NON-DISCRIMINATORY POLICY AS TO STUDENTS

Freed-Hardeman University admits qualified students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. Freed-Hardeman does not discriminate on the basis of age, handicap, race, color, national or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Except for certain exemptions and limitations provided for by law, the university, in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, does not discriminate on the basis of sex in admissions, in employment, or in the educational programs and activities which it operates with federal aid. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX may be referred to Dr. Samuel T. Jones, Freed-Hardeman University, or to the Director of the Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Education, Washington, DC 20202.

The Graduate Programs

The Graduate Catalog is the official listing of the policies governing graduate education at Freed-Hardeman University. This Catalog documents policies and procedures established by the Graduate Council and approved by the faculty. Admissions policies, academic policies (including degree requirements), registration policies, degree programs of study, a roster of Graduate faculty, and calendar of events/activities are among the items to be found in this Catalog.

Freed-Hardeman University is an outstanding university where the administration, faculty and staff are dedicated to the academic success of each student. The university is committed to providing those resources necessary to support the highest level of excellence for faculty as they seek to prepare students with knowledge, skills and creative thinking abilities to be successful in their respective discipline. Freed-Hardeman University's mission and vision demonstrate our commitment to lifelong learning and academic excellence.

Thank you for allowing FHU to teach you how to live and how to make a living.

General Information

Purpose Statement

Freed-Hardeman University is a private institution, associated with churches of Christ, dedicated to moral and spiritual values, academic excellence, and service in a friendly, supportive environment. The purpose of the university is to provide every student an education permeated with these Christian values.

Aims

In accomplishing its purpose, the university pursues the following three aims.

Freed-Hardeman provides higher education with a Christian perspective:

- by recognizing the Bible as the inspired and authoritative Word of God,
- by presenting Jesus, the Christ, as the model for personal behavior,
- by viewing each person as a special creation of God, possessing an everlasting soul, with ultimate accountability to God,
- by promoting racial harmony, religious unity, and respect for individual differences through Christian love and biblical teaching, and
- by offering programs, activities, and worship opportunities that strengthen the university community.

Freed-Hardeman provides educational opportunities through excellent undergraduate and graduate programs:

- by employing a qualified, caring Christian faculty,
- by teaching students to be critical thinkers who communicate effectively,
- by offering a balanced education in the liberal arts and sciences as well as specialization in a chosen discipline,
- by offering academic enrichment opportunities to strengthen individual students,
- by equipping students for advanced study and career challenges, and
- by instilling in students a lasting desire for learning.

Freed-Hardeman provides service to the individual, home, church, community, and world:

- by facilitating spiritual, intellectual, emotional, social, and physical growth,
- by recognizing the home as the basic unit of society and helping students develop skills for healthy Christian families,
- by encouraging students to love the church and preparing them for active service in a local congregation,
- by offering programs to strengthen and encourage growth of the church, and
- by teaching students to become effective citizens of the local and world communities.

MOTTO

“Teaching how to live and how to make a living.”

NATURE OF THE INSTITUTION

Freed-Hardeman is primarily an undergraduate, residential institution enrolling full-time students of traditional college age who come to Henderson, Tennessee, from the southeast and from more than two-thirds of the United States and from several other countries. Alumni live in all fifty states and in more than thirty-five other countries. The university also seeks to serve commuting, part-time, and older adult students on-campus and through selected distant learning programs as resources and technology permit. The university offers a limited number of master's-level graduate programs as resources, needs, and interest permit, offering advanced preparation for service. Most research is focused on institutional or instructional improvement. Arts, science, and professional degrees are conferred.

The goals of the university can best be pursued when a qualified Christian faculty teach and inspire students to learn and when all instruction and activities recognize and honor biblical truth and principles. The university is governed by a self-perpetuating board of trustees who are members of churches of Christ and who hold the institution in trust for its founders, alumni, and supporters. Freed-Hardeman, its faculty, and its students receive support from alumni, churches, and other friends and provide a variety of services to businesses, churches, nonprofit organizations, and to the general public.

Freed-Hardeman seeks to provide a liberal arts education for all students primarily through its general education and general degree requirements. Courses are offered by twelve academic departments organized into six schools—Arts and Humanities, Biblical Studies, Business, Education, Sciences and Mathematics, and the Honors College.

History of Freed-Hardeman University

Freed-Hardeman University traces its origins to the 1869 charter of the Henderson Male and Female Institute as a high school and college. Through charter revisions and a new charter in 1907, successor institutions on the present campus have been the Henderson Masonic Male and Female Institute, West Tennessee Christian College, Georgie Robertson Christian College, and the National Teachers Normal and Business College. The institution was renamed in 1919 for A.G. Freed, who had earlier served as president and teacher in Georgie Robertson Christian College and was the first president of NTN&BC, and for N.B. Hardeman, who had served as teacher in GRCC and teacher and vice president in NTN&BC.

Freed-Hardeman and its predecessors have prepared teachers since 1870 and ministers since at least 1885. In the early years of the institution, the teacher-training courses were more disciplinary than pedagogical and teacher certification was based on passing subject area examinations. Freed-Hardeman was approved as a teacher training institution at the two-year level by the Tennessee State Board of Education in 1925. Two years of college work, including eighteen hours of education courses, earned students permanent elementary education certifications in Tennessee for several years. State approval was reaffirmed under the newly-adopted state standards in 1952. Institutional and program approval to provide teacher certification in elementary education and in selected secondary education subject areas, beginning with the 1976 graduating class, was granted by the state in February of 1976 after a pilot self-study and state examination of curricula under the standards of the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC). National accreditation of teacher education was granted in 1982, retroactive to 1981. Programs have been resubmitted and reapproved again recently under revised state standards. State board policies developed and implemented in the 1990s reformed and extended teacher preparation, requiring disciplinary rather than professional undergraduate majors. The graduate degree will complement the reduced professional component at the undergraduate level.

Ministerial education, which began to receive specific attention after 1885, was also based on liberal arts and general education—complemented by Bible studies. West Tennessee Christian College, for example, recommended that those preparing to preach pursue the classical course, which included English, Greek, and Latin languages, literature, mathematics, natural science, and mental and moral science. Continuing education began after 1925 with special short courses for preachers and since 1937 has been offered most notably through the week-long Annual Bible Lectureship. In recent years, summer short courses, extension courses in such fields as counseling and personal evangelism, the summer Christian Training Series, forums for church workers, and special programs for youth ministers have offered lifelong learning opportunities for educators, ministers, Bible teachers, and other church workers.

In 1908, A.G. Freed articulated his aim as president of the National Teachers Normal and Business College. He wanted “to provide a thorough education under the influence of primitive Christianity.” The theme of thoroughness can be traced to Freed-Hardeman University’s first predecessor, the Henderson Male and Female Institute. Since the 1950s, the university has used the motto, “Teaching how to live and how to make a living.” As a senior institution, character, career, and liberal arts education have been pictured as the sides and base of a triangle, which conceptualizes the balanced education that Freed-Hardeman University and its predecessors have sought to offer.

The university has been regionally accredited since 1956. In 1976, Freed-Hardeman University obtained Level II accreditation by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate degrees. This accreditation was reaffirmed in 1981. Under the leadership of Dr. E. Claude Gardner, president from 1969-1990, graduate degrees, which had been offered by turn-of-the-century predecessors, were reinstituted. In June 1990 the university was accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award master’s degrees. Accreditation to offer bachelors and masters degrees was reaffirmed in June 1991, and again in December 2001.

LOCATION AND FACILITIES

The university is located in a clean, quiet, West Tennessee county seat town of approximately 5,500 citizens. Henderson is fortunate to have more than adequate educational, medical, protective, and business services and facilities. The county high school is regionally accredited. The university is adjacent to the city and county courthouses and office buildings and the central business district. Light industry is located away from the campus. The campus consists of about 120 acres with twenty-six main buildings.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Students may enroll in courses leading to a Master of Ministry, Master of Arts in New Testament, Master of Business Administration, Master of Education, or Education Specialist degree. The Master of Education degree offers majors in Curriculum and Instruction, School Counseling, Administration and Supervision, and in Special Education. Each of these degrees requires 37 semester hours. An advanced degree above the masters level, a 34-hour Education Specialist degree, is offered in the School of Education's graduate program. On June 1, 1997, FHU began offering a 48-hour Master of Science in Counseling program and degree. A 36-hour Master of Business Administration and an 86-hour Master of Divinity were added to the graduate programs of study in the fall of 2005. Scheduling of courses generally accommodates full- and part-time students, including those employed. At least twelve hours of graduate study in each program will be offered in the summer, fall, and spring terms in order to provide the opportunity for full-time students to complete the degrees in a timely fashion. Transient and non-degree seeking students will be accepted on a case-by-case basis. The Graduate Counseling Program also offers three Graduate Certificate programs. These Certificate Programs are: Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Counseling for Church Leaders, and Gerontology. These Certificate Programs are described under the Masters of Science in Counseling program of study.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE GRADUATE STUDIES PROGRAMS

Dr. Samuel T. Jones, Vice President for Academics, coordinates the graduate studies programs. Policies governing the graduate programs are developed by the Graduate Council. This council is representative of the faculty and functions on a continuous basis. Dr. Elizabeth A. Saunders is Director of Graduate Studies in Education, Dr. Gayle Michael Cravens is Director of Graduate Studies in Counseling, Dr. Mark Blackwelder is Interim Director of Graduate Studies in Bible, and Dr. Thomas W. DeBerry is Director of Graduate Studies in Business. Matters pertaining to graduate teacher education are reviewed and approved by the Teacher Education Committee before being presented to the Graduate Council.

ACCREDITATION AND AFFILIATIONS

Freed-Hardeman University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane; Decatur, GA 30033-4097; Telephone number 404-679-4501) to award bachelors and masters degrees.

National accreditation of the elementary and secondary teacher education programs was granted by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education in 1982, retroactive to September, 1981. Reaccreditation was granted by NCATE in March, 1992, which included the Master of Education post-baccalaureate program. The Council on Social Work Education accredited the school's bachelor degree social work program in 1981. This was reaffirmed in 1989, in 1997, and most recently in 2004. The Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP) accredited the university's undergraduate business program in 1994.

Freed-Hardeman University is an institutional member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the Tennessee College Association, the Tennessee Independent Colleges Fund, the Tennessee Council of Private Colleges, the Tennessee Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, the North American Association of Summer Sessions, and the Associations of Independent Liberal Arts Colleges for Teacher Education (National and State).

Freed-Hardeman University will seriously consider any written student complaints regarding its accreditation status. Each complaint should be sent to the President and will be reviewed by the President and his cabinet of Vice Presidents, and a written response will be prepared and sent to the student. If this does not satisfactorily resolve the concern, the student will be given an opportunity to meet with the President and his cabinet to explore solutions to the concern. The President may choose to invite the Chairman of the Board of Trustees to attend this meeting if circumstances justify the need for the Chairman's presence. A written record of any complaints and responses will be maintained in the President's office for review by accreditation association officials or peer reviewers.

Wayne Scott, Vice President for Student Services

You will be expected, as a student at Freed-Hardeman University, to help realize the ideal of a Christian university by contributing to the friendliness, courtesy, and wholesomeness for which the school is known. The academic and spiritual commitments of students and teachers are manifested in mutual respect, in cooperativeness, and in the assuming of appropriate responsibilities.

Institutional Governance

The Board of Trustees is the governing body of Freed-Hardeman University. Through their adoption of fundamental statements of purpose and policy, the board seeks to ensure the accomplishment of the aims of the institution. The President is appointed by the Board of Trustees as the executive officer of the university and is responsible for the operation and development of the university as a whole and for each of its parts.

THE GRADUATE COUNCIL

The Graduate Council is responsible for developing policies on admission, retention, and graduation requirements. The Council reviews the courses of study for each degree and provides suggestions that may strengthen the curriculum. Eligibility requirements for faculty teaching graduate courses are formulated and approved by the Council.

The Council is composed of two faculty from each degree program, faculty members who meet the criteria for teaching in the graduate program and who hold the terminal degree, the Director of Graduate Studies in Education, the Director of Graduate Studies in Bible, the Director of Graduate Studies in Business, and the Director of Graduate Studies in Counseling. The Vice President for Academics who may teach graduate classes also serves as an ex officio member of the Council.

Each director of a graduate program will serve on the Council as long as he/she remains a director. The two faculty representatives from each program will serve for two years. Replacements will be recommended to the Graduate Council by the faculty who teach in the program and the director. The Graduate Council will vote whether or not to accept the faculty recommended. The chair of the Graduate Council will serve for two years and will be elected by the Council from among the directors of the programs.

General Expectations and Regulations

In return for the privilege of enrolling in Freed-Hardeman University, you pledge to abide by the policies and regulations set forth in the Graduate catalog. Responsible channels for seeking change or for requesting exceptions are provided.

CONDUCT

You will be expected to respect the property of others and of the university and to avoid any form of cheating, false reporting, plagiarism, or willful destruction or misappropriation of records or property. Computer accounts of others are not to be entered without written authorization.

In keeping with the ideals of a Christian university, profanity, reading obscene or pornographic literature, illicit sex, dancing, gambling, and such like are forbidden. The possession, sale, or use of drugs, including alcohol, is prohibited. The use of tobacco is not permitted. Firearms, hunting knives, and ammunition are prohibited on campus by state law. Fireworks are illegal. Students are expected to obey local, state, and federal laws.

You will be expected to abide by a dress and grooming code which emphasizes Christian modesty and good taste. Dress should be appropriate to the occasion—church, class, or recreation. Shorts are not permitted in classes at any time. Tank tops are limited to athletic activities. The health, comfort, and well-being of each student and of his classmates require that standards of personal cleanliness be maintained and that dormitory rooms be kept clean and orderly. The university reserves the right to inspect university-owned quarters under proper supervision and safeguards.

You are expected to observe university regulations while on campus and when participating in university activities.

HOUSING

Graduate students may apply to live in the university residence halls under conditions described under Financial Information.

You will be responsible for keeping your room locked and for any breakage or damage. Repainting, repairs, and replacements will be charged to the one doing the damage or, if this cannot be ascertained, to the occupant(s) of the room. Residence hall hours are included in the undergraduate student handbook. The university cannot be responsible for damage to or loss of students' personal property due to theft, mischief, fire, water, etc.

AUTOMOBILES

An automobile brought to campus must be properly licensed and insured. You must register the car (permits are available at the Student Services Office), display a university decal, and park in a designated area. Fines may be imposed for violation of automobile regulations.

Services and Facilities

FOOD SERVICES

Aramark operates Wallace-Gano Dining Hall and the Lion's Pride (the university's snack bar), both located in the Student Services Building and KC's Coffeehouse located in the Crews-Colbert Activity Center. Wallace-Gano Dining Hall offers a regular meal line and a deli line, soup and salad bar, and desserts. The Lion's Pride offers short orders, snacks, and light meals.

LIBRARY FACILITIES

The Freed-Hardeman University Library is composed of the Loden-Daniel Library, built in 1973, and the Lawhorn Library, built in 1956. An adjoining library annex which holds the Audiovisual Department is in the Draughon Education Center. The library is the support structure of the university's academic programs. Library holdings include in excess of 155,500 volumes, 228,000 microforms, and 26,000 periodicals, plus an extensive collection of audiovisual material. In addition, special collections include the Restoration and Rare Collections that contain letters, notes, and materials pertaining to church and restoration history. The library belongs to the Online Catalog Library Center (OCLC) through the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET). This affiliation enables the library to obtain interlibrary loans for faculty, staff and students. Membership in the West Tennessee Academic Library Consortium (WeTALC) provides access to materials outside the library's immediate holdings as well as vital input into the area's academic arena.

Access to the library's holdings can be found on LIONET, the online catalog, and is available from the library's home page, <http://www.fhu.edu/library>. The electronic databases offer indexing and full-text articles from scholarly journals, popular magazines, and newspapers. The library's home page also offers information on and access to electronic databases, Internet resources, and other resources, such as the library's hours and a month-by-month list of new items added to the collection.

The library offers accommodations for reading, studying, and viewing audiovisuals. In conjunction with a large juvenile book collection located on the second floor of the library, there are many teacher resources available. There is also a word processing lab as well as public network access points. The library has several rooms available for group study and media viewing in the library annex. Other services offered are reference help, information services, interlibrary loans, and photocopying. Librarians conduct library instruction and orientation sessions at the request of professors as well as individualized instruction for any student or other patron on a variety of library resources, including the electronic databases and searching the Internet. ID/Library Cards are required for book check-out.

The Instructional Resources Center is a small library and laboratory facility primarily for teacher-education faculty and students. It is located on the ground floor of the Gardner Center across the hall from the Graduate School of Education offices. In addition to a reserve section, it contains a collection of school textbooks, professional texts, children's literature, posters, and science and math kits available for checkout. A checkout period of one week for kits and two weeks for books is extended. A variety of supplies and equipment is provided for making instructional materials such as bulletin board supplies, bookbinding supplies, art paper, and transparencies. Lamination and die-cut services are provided by lab workers, and a fee for each item is charged. An opaque projector and copier are available for student use.

COMPUTER SERVICES

Freed-Hardeman University has advanced voice, data, and video networks connecting virtually every building on campus. Outlets in offices, classrooms, laboratories, and residence hall rooms provide access to these networks. Cable TV service is available in the residence halls and is part of the room charge. Four major student computer laboratories, smaller department laboratories, and library computers are available each day and most evenings during school terms. Access to the Internet and the campus network is provided in dorm rooms wirelessly (802.11b/g/n) and wired via Ethernet jacks. A student may use university-owned laboratory equipment for personal computing when it is available and with some limitations. Every program of study requires the use of computing in one or more courses. Students may use computing resources in the library and in general-use laboratories without additional charge.

UNIVERSITY COUNSELING CENTER (UCC)

College is a unique time in a person's life. New lessons and experiences coupled with poor coping skills can sometimes lead to overwhelming stress, psychological problems, and academic difficulties that impede a student's overall functioning.

Freed-Hardeman University strives to provide confidential, Christian counseling in a manner that incorporates our values and morals as a Christian university, along with educating and developing awareness that will aid the student for a lifetime.

Free counseling services are provided for all FHU students with a focus on short-term counseling. The center also offers referral services to local and surrounding area professionals to meet individual needs. The UCC has both a full-time male and full-time female counselor in case you would feel more comfortable speaking with one gender over the other. Crisis intervention is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and may be contacted through the counselor on-call at (731) 608-2590 or through a dorm parent, a residential assistant, or security. The UCC also has a link on FHU's website where you can submit questions anonymously which will be answered in the following Bell Tower.

For appointments contact Nicole Scott at (731) 989-6768 or via email at nscott@fhu.edu.

Dwayne Wilson, Executive Vice President for Administration and Finance

Financial Information

Freed-Hardeman University is a nonprofit private institution, operating without direct tax support. It must generate income from the following sources: student tuition and fees, grants, private gifts, endowment earnings, and auxiliary enterprises. This section of the catalog will define the cost of Christian education at Freed-Hardeman University, explain the university policy for meeting financial obligations, and explore areas of assistance available to the students.

BUSINESS OFFICE HOURS

The Business Office is open every week day from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Those involved in classes on Saturday or during evenings may secure services from the Business Office by requesting assistance through their instructors. A photo I.D. is required of all registered FHU students. I.D.s can be obtained in the office of Student Services.

APPLICATION FEE

There is a $35 application fee.

Tuition

The tuition cost is $357 per graduate hour. This rate also applies to any undergraduate courses required for the master's degree or for teacher licensure when taken by accepted graduate students who have already earned a bachelor's degree. It does not apply to students working toward a second undergraduate degree or major.

Full-time graduate students (taking nine or more graduate hours) desiring to take additional undergraduate courses NOT required in their graduate program pay $402 per semester hour for these undergraduate courses. Part-time graduate students (taking fewer than nine graduate hours) pay $402 per semester hour for non-required undergraduate courses.

TECHNOLOGY FEE

Technology is a significant part of Freed-Hardeman University's graduate programs. Students benefit from varied technologies including electronic library services and resources, access to numerous computer labs, e-mail accounts, state-of-the-art campus network, multi-media instructional equipment, administrative software and hardware supporting all academic programs, online access to student's account and student's grades, and others. Each student registering for graduate credit will be assessed a technology fee of $16 per graduate credit hour.

HOUSING

Graduate students may apply to live in the university residence halls. Additional information may be obtained through the office of the Dean of Students, (731) 989-6052.

MEALS

Full-time graduate students living in university housing have the option of participating in the various meal plans in Wallace-Gano Dining Hall or the Lion's Pride, the university snack bar. The university employs Aramark to operate the campus food facilities.

Lion Bucks, mentioned below, are the same as dollars that may be spent in the Lion's Pride Snack Shop, Wallace-Gano Dining Hall, or KC's Coffeehouse. Any Lion Bucks left at the end of the fall semester will roll over to the spring term. However, at the end of each spring semester any unused Lion Bucks at that time will be lost. Resident students as well as commuters may purchase additional Lion Bucks at any time during the fall and spring semesters at the business office. For $100 (including tax), 100 Lion Bucks can be added to any meal plan. For $50 (including tax), 50 Lion Bucks can be added to any meal plan or purchased separately. For $25 (including tax), 25 Lion Bucks can be added to any meal plan or purchased separately.

The wife of a full-time ministerial student may enroll as a special (part-time, non-credit) student in Bible courses without charge.

TITLE IV REFUND POLICY

The Higher Education Amendments of 1998 changed the formula for calculating the amount of aid a student and school can retain when the student totally withdraws from all classes. Students who withdraw from all classes prior to completing more than 60% of an enrollment term will have their eligibility for aid recalculated based on the percent of the term completed. For example, a student who withdraws completing only 30% of the term will have “earned” only 30% of any Title IV aid received. The remaining 70% must be returned by the school and/or the student. The Office of Business Services encourages you to read this policy carefully. If you are thinking about withdrawing from all classes PRIOR to completing 60% of the semester, you should contact the business office to see how your withdrawal will affect your financial aid.

1. This policy shall apply to all students who withdraw, drop out or are expelled from Freed-Hardeman University, and receive financial aid from Title IV funds:
 - a. The term “Title IV Funds” refers to the Federal financial aid programs authorized under the Higher Education Act of 1965 (as amended) and includes the following programs: Unsubsidized FFEL loans, subsidized FFEL loans, FFEL PLUS loans, Federal Direct PLUS loans, Federal Pell Grants, Federal SEOG, Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership Grants (LEAP).
 - b. A student’s withdrawal date is:
 - i. the date the student began the institution’s withdrawal process, or officially notified the institution of intent to withdraw; or
 - ii. the midpoint of the period for a student who leaves without notifying the institution; or
 - iii. the student’s last date of attendance at a documented academically-related activity.
2. Refunds on all institutional charges, including tuition and fees, will be calculated using the institutional refund policy published in the FHU Catalog.
3. Title IV aid is earned in a prorated manner on a per diem basis up to and including the 60% point in the semester. Title IV aid and all other aid is viewed as 100% earned after that point in time.
 - a. The percentage of Title IV aid earned shall be calculated as follows:
Number of days completed by student divided by Total numbers of days in term* = % of term completed
The percent of term completed shall be the percentage of Title IV aid earned by the student.
The total number of calendar days in a term of enrollment shall exclude any scheduled breaks of more than five days.
 - b. The percentage of Title IV aid unearned (i.e., to be returned to the appropriate program) shall be 100% minus the percent earned.
 - c. Unearned aid shall be returned first by FHU from the student’s account calculated as follows:
(Total institutional charges X % of unearned aid) = amount returned to program(s)
Unearned Title IV aid shall be returned to the following programs in the following order:
 1. Unsubsidized Stafford Loan
 2. Subsidized Stafford Loan
 3. GRAD Plus
 4. Federal Pell Grant
 5. Federal SEOG
 6. Other Title IV grant programs

Exception: no program can receive a refund if the student did not receive aid from that program.

- d. When the total amount of unearned aid is greater than the amount returned by FHU from the student's account, the student is responsible for returning unearned aid to the appropriate program(s) as follows:
- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. Unsubsidized Stafford Loan* | 4. Federal Pell Grant |
| 2. Subsidized Stafford Loan* | 5. Federal SEOG |
| 3. GRAD Plus | 6. Other Title IV grant programs |

*Loan amounts are returned with the terms of the promissory note.

Amounts to be returned by the student to federal grant programs will receive a 50% discount.

4. Refunds and adjusted bills will be sent to the student's home address on file in the Registrar's Office following withdrawal. Students are responsible for any portion of their institutional charges that are left outstanding after Title IV funds are returned.
5. Institutional and student responsibilities in regard to the return of Title IV funds.
- a. FHU's responsibilities in regard to the return of Title IV funds include:
- providing each student with the information given in this policy;
 - identifying students who are affected by this policy and completing the Return of Title IV Funds calculation for those students;
 - returning any Title IV funds that are due the Title IV programs.
- b. The student's responsibilities in regard to the return of Title IV funds include:
- becoming familiar with the Return of Title IV policy and how complete withdrawal affects eligibility for Title IV aid;
 - returning to the Title IV programs any funds that were disbursed directly to the student and which the student was determined to be ineligible for via the Return of Title IV Funds calculation.
6. The fees, procedures, and policies listed above supersede those published previously and are subject to change at any time.
7. Any notification of a withdrawal or cancellation of classes should be in writing and addressed to the Registrar's Office. Such notification may be made by facsimile.

If you would like examples of the refund policy, contact the Office of Business Services.

Institutional Refund Policy

Refunds are issued as listed below. The university is not obligated to refund expenses if the withdrawal is unnecessary or due to the student's misconduct.

REFUND POLICY FOR COURSE WITHDRAWAL

If a student withdraws from an individual course (and remains enrolled in a course or courses) before the university drop-add date, he/she will receive a full tuition refund. If a student withdraws from a graduate course after the university drop-add date, but within five business days after the first class meeting, he/she will receive a fifty (50) percent tuition refund and will receive a grade of "W" for the course. If a student withdraws after the five business days, there will be no tuition refund. The university drop-add date is ten days after classes begin for the semester.

REFUND POLICY FOR SUMMER COURSES AND SHORT COURSES

If a graduate student officially withdraws from a Summer Course or from a Short Course by the end of the business day following the first class meeting, he/she will be fully refunded for both tuition and technology.

If a graduate student withdraws from a Summer Course or from a Short Course after the first business day, but before the next class meeting, he/she will receive a 50% refund of tuition, but no technology.

After the second class meeting, no refunds will be made.

REFUND POLICY FOR WITHDRAWING FROM AN ONLINE GRADUATE COURSE

SUMMER SCHOOL

After the scheduled beginning date of the online course, a graduate student who officially withdraws from an online course during summer school will be refunded based on the following:

- If a graduate student officially withdraws from a summer online course within two days which includes the starting date of the class, the student will be fully refunded charges for both tuition and technology fee. (For example: If the class starts on a Monday and the student withdraws on Tuesday before 5:00 p.m., the student is eligible for a full refund.)
- If a graduate student officially withdraws from a summer online course within three days of the starting date of the class, the student will be refunded 50% of the chargers for both tuition and technology fee, and 25% if the student withdraws within four days of the starting date.
- No refund will be given to the graduate student who officially withdraws after the fourth day of the starting date of an online course.

FALL AND SPRING SEMESTERS

After the scheduled beginning date of the online course, a graduate student who officially withdraws from an online course during the fall or spring semester will be refunded based on the following:

- The graduate student who withdraws within two days, which includes the beginning date of the course, is eligible to be refunded all tuition and technology fee. (For example: If the class starts on a Monday and the student withdraws on Tuesday before 5:00 p.m., the student is eligible for a full refund.)
- The graduate student who withdraws within five days, which includes the beginning date of the course, is eligible to be refunded 50% of tuition and technology fee, and beginning the sixth day of class the refund will be reduced by 10% per day of the original cost.
- No graduate student is eligible for a refund if the withdrawal occurs after the tenth day of the start of the course.

REFUND POLICY FOR COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL

Room and board refunds are determined on a weekly basis over a 15-week term during the regular year and a five-week term during the summer. No credit will be issued if the withdrawal is within two weeks of the end of regular term.

In the event of a student withdrawing from the university, all institutional scholarships and aid shall be refunded to the university on a pro rata basis, based on the number of days the student attended.

There are no refunds of special fees, such as late registration, or examination fees.

Refunds will be mailed approximately four weeks after an official withdrawal or after the residence hall is vacated.

AFTER CLASSES BEGIN, CHARGES WILL BE MADE ON THE FOLLOWING BASIS:

FALL/SPRING SEMESTERS:

After first week of classes.....	10%
second week of classes	20%
third week of classes	40%
fourth week of classes	60%
fifth week of classes	80%

SATURDAY CLASS CHARGES WILL BE MADE ON THE FOLLOWING BASIS:

After first class meeting	20%
second class meeting.....	50%
third class meeting.....	80%

SUMMER TERMS:

Each class meeting will count as a week of classes.

Full charges will be made after these times.

There are no refunds of special fees, such as late registration, change of schedule, or examination fees. Refunds will be mailed approximately four weeks after an official withdrawal or course drop.

Paying Your Account

Please refer to the financial information detailed in this catalog under Financial Information to determine the approximate charges for each semester. In addition to tuition and fees, remember to estimate a reasonable amount for textbooks and class supplies. From this total, deduct scholarships, grants, or loans that have been awarded as part of the financial aid package. (Aid awards are usually based on the academic year and will be credited to your account proportionately, i.e., half of the award or offer for each semester you are enrolled as a full-time student or as indicated in the award announcement.) For information concerning financial aid adjustments, contact the financial aid office or review the information provided with your offer of financial aid.

Students who have registered and selected classes must have their financial arrangements made by August 10, 2009, for the fall semester, and by January 4, 2010, for the spring semester. The charges for tuition, fees, room and board, must be paid by these dates to prevent the student's classes from being dropped out of the system. Students who register for fall classes after August 10, 2009, or for spring classes after January 4, 2010, must pay their bill in full the day they register. Students who have not designated one of the following payment options will not be eligible to attend classes and their classes may be cancelled. You may view your account on IQWeb. The student is responsible for confirming all financial arrangements are made and processed.

After determining the amount of financial aid you will receive, and if financial aid does not cover all of the charges for the semester, the balance may be paid by one of the following three options: 1) Full Pay – A check for the entire balance can be mailed to FHU Business Office, 158 E. Main St., Henderson, TN 38340, or paid in cash, check, or credit card at the cashier's window in Gardner Center (Monday-Friday, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm) or 2) Online Credit Card Payment – Pay by credit card online at www.afford.com/fhu.

Any combination of the options mentioned above is acceptable to pay the bill in full.

Bookstore charges and other miscellaneous charges the student incurs will be due upon receiving the monthly statements or viewing the statement online. Any unpaid amount from a previous monthly statement will be subject to a 1% per month (12% per year) service charge. Accounts must remain current to maintain charging privileges. If there are any questions about the student's account, you may contact the business office at 731-989-6008, or e-mail tfish@fhu.edu.

Transcripts are not released by the university until all outstanding accounts are paid. If, after a student leaves FHU, an obligation is due that requires an outside collection agency, the responsible party agrees to pay collection agency fees, court costs and attorney fees for collecting the outstanding balance.

STUDENT LOANS AND WORK STUDY

The school year at Freed-Hardeman University begins with the summer term and goes through the following spring term. A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must be completed each school year to be eligible for government sponsored student loans and work study. The FAFSA may be completed over the internet at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

STAFFORD LOANS

Under the federally-guaranteed loan program, you may borrow from a bank or other financial institution an amount needed for graduate studies. The university certifies your application, and the federal government through a state agency guarantees repayment. Under current regulations, you may borrow up to $8,500 per academic year in a subsidized loan if you are taking at least a half-load (minimum of five semester hours) of courses.

Repayment of a Federal Stafford loan begins six months after graduation or when the student ceases to be enrolled half-time (5 hours). The federal government will pay the interest on the loan while you are in school. The interest rate is fixed at 5.6% for Subsidized Stafford loans.

UNSUBSIDIZED LOAN FOR STUDENTS

A full-time graduate student may borrow under the Unsubsidized Stafford Loan program up to $12,000 per academic year. This loan is not based upon need, but must be held within the total cost of education minus any other financial assistance. The interest rate is fixed at 6.8%. The interest accrues from the beginning of the loan but can be deferred and capitalized if desired. Repayment of a Federal Stafford loan begins six months after graduation or when the student ceases to be enrolled half-time (5 hours).

LOAN DISBURSEMENTS

Loan disbursements for graduate students who have previously withdrawn from graduate work at FHU in prior semesters will be made with 1/2 of the loan proceeds disbursed from the lender at the beginning of the semester (from 10 days prior to the beginning of the semester to 10 days after the beginning of the semester) and the second half will be disbursed after the 60% point in time of the semester. All necessary loan documents would be required prior to disbursement.

All other students will have their loans disbursed at the beginning of the semester (10 days prior to the beginning of the semester to 10 days after the beginning of the semester) providing that the student has completed all the necessary loan documents.

FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM

Work-study may be available. The number of hours per week is based on the need of the student and availability of funds and jobs. Completion of the FAFSA is required for the Federal Work-Study program.

Scholarships and Assistantships

Scholarships and assistantships may be applied for through the directors of the programs. Those who apply early will have a higher probability of obtaining help. Applications are encouraged to be submitted up to six months before one plans to enroll in classes.

The following factors will be considered in granting scholarships and assistantships:

1. the student's grade point average in previous work;
2. the evidence of professional promise seen in the student; and
3. the student's need for financial aid.

Criteria for assistantships will include evidence of the ability to serve the university in some useful capacity. A ministerial student must meet qualifications given by grantors of certain scholarships. Those qualifications may include stipulations regarding religion, sex, reputation, and potential.

ANNUALLY DESIGNATED SCHOLARSHIPS

Annually designated scholarships are awarded on an annual basis, and the award is based on the amount of money donated that year to the scholarship. Below are the annually designated scholarships available listed under the major or office by which they are awarded.

GRADUATE BIBLE

The EARL EDWARDS SCHOLARSHIP was established by Dr. Earl Edwards and is awarded to graduate Bible students.

The HAMPTON GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP was established by Gary Hampton through the proceeds from the sales of his book. The scholarship is for graduate Bible majors.

The PEACHTREE GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP was established by the elders at the Peachtree Georgia Church of Christ for a needy graduate student who is preparing for a career in preaching.

The JAY AND NAN SATTERFIELD AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP was established by Jay and Nan Satterfield of Milan, Tennessee. Fifty percent of the scholarship is for graduate Bible majors preparing to preach and fifty percent is for graduate Bible majors who are currently preaching part-time.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Two-thirds of Freed-Hardeman University's endowment is composed of scholarships. All scholarship funds are combined and invested by the Investment Committee of Freed-Hardeman University. Freed-Hardeman University's Investment Committee of the Board of Trustees has established a five-percent spending policy on endowed funds. Therefore, awards from endowed funds will not exceed an amount above five-percent of the total invested amount of the fund. These scholarships have the same recipient requirements as the academic scholarships and are awarded by the director of Financial Aid.

GRADUATE BIBLE

The ALICE GOULD SCHOLARSHIP was established by Alice Gould of Marion, Illinois, and is awarded to graduate students in Bible.

The DENNIS-BURTON SCHOLARSHIP was established by Mrs. Mary Thomas Burton Dennis in honor of her late husband Roy J. Dennis, and is awarded to graduate students in Bible.

The FAIRLANE CHURCH OF CHRIST SCHOLARSHIP was established by the elders of the Fairlane church of Christ in Shelbyville, Tennessee, and is awarded to graduate students in the Master of Ministry program.

The McCONNELL CHURCH OF CHRIST SCHOLARSHIP was established by the elders of the McConnell Church of Christ in Martin, Tennessee, to assist students majoring in Bible who are preparing to become preachers.

The NOLA MERLE LUSK ROCHELLE SCHOLARSHIP was established by gifts from the estate of Ted Rochelle and is awarded to graduate students in Bible at Freed-Hardeman University.

The POLK FAMILY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was established in memory of Kym Polk and is awarded to graduate students in Bible who are training to become preachers.

The WILBUR HUGH AND ROMIE SMITH SCHOLARSHIP was established by Mrs. Smith to provide financial assistance to students in the Graduate Ministry program.

VETERAN'S BENEFITS

Veterans and their dependents may be eligible for benefits. Veterans with more than six months of active duty in the United States Armed Forces may be entitled to monthly payments plus an allowance for dependents for full-time or part-time study. Financial assistance may also be available to children of deceased or disabled veterans. (Need is not a criterion for these benefits.) For further information, see your veteran's service officer, or write the registrar at Freed-Hardeman University.

Admissions

Freed-Hardeman University seeks students for graduate admission who have demonstrated by their academic performance, other achievements, and personal conduct, that they are qualified for advanced study and may be expected to be a credit to the university and of service to their communities and professions.

Freed-Hardeman University does not discriminate on the basis of age, disability, race, color, or national or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs. Except for certain exemptions and limitations provided for by law, the university, in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, does not discriminate on the basis of sex. The university enrolls students of any or no religious affiliation. As a private, church-related institution, the university is permitted to consider information on the student's conduct and confidential references on ability, reputation, and the apparent potential of the applicant. Religion, sex, and reputation may be considered in placement in churches and church-related roles. Admission is a privilege granted by the university rather than a right to be assumed by those presenting minimal qualifications.

GENERAL ADMISSION INFORMATION

Applications cannot be processed until All required materials are received. As soon as all materials have been received, the applicant will be notified that his/her file is complete. It is appropriate to assume that the application is incomplete until such notification is received.

Admission, when granted, will be valid only if the applicant enrolls during the term indicated on his/her application.

All application materials become property of Freed-Hardeman University, and will not be returned to the applicant.

All admission categories require an application and application fee.

REGULAR ADMISSION

An applicant must have completed an appropriate baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution. An applicant must submit official undergraduate and graduate transcripts of credit earned from all institutions of higher education previously attended.

The following criteria exist for regular admission:

For the Bible programs (Master of Ministry, Master of Arts in New Testament, and Master of Divinity), an applicant must have 1) at least 18 undergraduate hours in Bible or Religion from an accredited institution; 2) a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0; and 3) a minimum score on one of the following entrance exams:

1. FHU graduates may use their Bible Outcomes Exam score, if 80 or above,
2. The Graduate Record Examination (GRE) – a minimum score of 440 on both the verbal and quantitative writing parts, or
3. The Miller Analogies Test (MAT) – a minimum score of 380.

For the Master of Business Administration program, an applicant must have either a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or a minimum score of 450 on the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT), with his/her grade point average multiplied by 200 plus the GMAT score totaling a minimum of 1,050. In addition, no applicant with a GMAT score of below 350 may be admitted to this program.

For the Master of Counseling program, an applicant must have (1) a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0, and (2) either a combined minimum verbal and quantitative score of 800 on the GRE, or a minimum score of 380 on the MAT.

For the Master of Education program, an applicant must have (1) a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0, and (2) either a combined minimum verbal and quantitative score of 800 on the GRE, or a National Teachers Examination (NTE) of 651 CS, 647 GK, and 643 PK on Core Battery, or a minimum score of 380 on the MAT.

Notice that students with GRE/MAT/GMAT/NTE scores older than ten years may be required to retake one of the entrance examinations for graduate admission. The decision will be at the discretion of each program director. Freed-Hardeman University will not accept scores on the MAT if the applicant has been administered the test more than three times in a two-year period.

If an applicant does not meet these criteria, the applicant may request conditional admission as described under Conditional Admission. This is granted on an individual basis depending on policies of specific programs.

While no particular undergraduate major is specified as an admissions requirement for Freed-Hardeman University's graduate programs, the following prerequisites do apply:

Students applying for admission to the Graduate Bible programs will be required to have at least 18 semester hours in Bible and/or religion at the undergraduate level.

The Accounting program in the Master of Business Administration requires prerequisites in undergraduate accounting.

The Master of Counseling student will be required to have the equivalent of 12 semester hours in Behavioral Science (Psychology, Sociology, Social Work, Family Studies) with a grade point average of 3.0 or better at the undergraduate level.

Additional requirements for the Master of Counseling, the Master of Education, and the Graduate Bible programs include the following:

Written Statement. A statement of approximately 200 words from the student specifying personal goals and how the program at Freed-Hardeman University will contribute to those goals will be required as indicated in the application materials.

Recommendation Forms. Each student must provide recent recommendation for admission forms from two or three individuals as indicated in the application materials.

Also, the Master of Counseling program requires a resume describing the applicant's work experience or academic vita.

TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language). The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is offered in three formats. A score of 500 on the paper-based exam, or a score of 173 on the computer-based exam, or a score of 61 on the Internet-based exam is required of all students for whom English is a second language.

CONDITIONAL ADMISSION

To register under conditional admission, the applicant must have completed an appropriate baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution. Applicants must submit official undergraduate and graduate transcripts of credit earned from all institutions of higher education previously attended. To be considered for conditional admission, the applicant generally must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5, and a minimum score on appropriate admissions tests.

For the Master of Business Administration program, a potential applicant whose cumulative grade point average is below 2.5 may retake undergraduate courses to effectively raise the applicant's grade point average from what it was at the time of graduation. Once higher grades have been earned on retaken courses sufficient to produce a grade point average that would have been at least 2.5, application for conditional admission may be submitted.

For the Master of Education program, a potential applicant whose cumulative grade point average is below 2.5 must submit a letter to the director specifying a rationale for the cumulative grade point average, goals, and how the program will contribute to these goals. The letter and other documentation in the student's file will be considered by the Admission/Appeal Committee composed of the director and the coordinators of the Administration and Supervision Program and the School Counseling Program.

For the Graduate Bible program, a written statement of approximately 200 words specifying goals and how the program will contribute toward these goals and letters of recommendation from two individuals is required. Applicants for the Graduate Bible programs who are graduates of non-regionally-accredited institutions must score a minimum of 80 percent on the FHU Comprehensive Bible Test. Bachelor's degree graduates of foreign, nationally-accredited, or pre-accredited (candidates for regional accreditation) institutions may be granted conditional admission.

For the Master of Counseling Program, a written statement of approximately 200 words specifying goals and how the program will contribute toward these goals and letters of recommendation from two or three individuals is required. A potential applicant whose cumulative grade point average is below 2.5 may retake undergraduate courses to effectively raise the applicant's grade point average from what it was at the time of graduation. Once higher grades have been earned on retaken courses sufficient to produce a grade point average that would have been at least 2.5, application for conditional admission may be submitted. Bachelor's degree graduates of foreign, nationally-accredited, or pre-accredited (candidates for regional accreditation) institutions may be granted conditional admission.

A student granted conditional admission may register for a maximum of twelve graduate semester hours; a student may not register for additional courses after completing the maximum of twelve graduate semester hours without first obtaining regular admission status. A student admitted conditionally may be granted regular admission status only after completing the twelve graduate semester hours with all grades of A or B; for the Master of Business Administration program, these twelve graduate semester hours must be completed with a minimum grade point average in these courses of 3.5.

TRANSIENT ADMISSION

An applicant who wishes to take a number of courses for renewal of certification or licensure may apply for Transient Admission. The applicant must have completed an appropriate baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution. Applicants must submit official undergraduate and graduate transcripts of credit earned from all institutions of higher education previously attended. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 is required. Acceptance will be on a case-by-case basis.

SPECIAL ADMISSION

Special Admission may be available for undergraduate senior students with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 who are within nine (9) semester hours of meeting the requirements for an appropriate baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution. Applicants must submit official undergraduate transcripts of credit earned from all institutions of higher education previously attended. The student is not considered a graduate student and may take no more than nine (9) graduate semester hours. Graduate courses taken by qualified undergraduates cannot be used for bachelor's degree requirements. Any financial aid awarded for this special admission category will be awarded on the basis of an undergraduate credit hour.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE ADMISSION

Applicants interested in one of the three certificate programs must have completed an undergraduate baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution and be enrolled in one of FHU's graduate programs or have completed a graduate degree from a regionally accredited university. Applicants must submit official undergraduate and graduate transcripts of credit earned from all institutions of higher education previously attended. The applicant must complete the graduate application process and include the application fee.

As a graduate certificate student, one may enroll in any of the courses listed in the certificate program for which he/she has applied.

Students in Graduate Certificate Programs are eligible for federal financial aid.

READMISSION POLICY

A former Freed-Hardeman student who plans to re-enroll must submit a new application for readmission. After any period of academic or disciplinary suspension, one must apply to the director of the intended program of study for readmission. In addition to the application, the student should submit a letter stating what plans are being made to ensure academic success. Re-admission is not guaranteed or automatic.

TRANSFER CREDITS

A student who has earned graduate credit from a regionally accredited institution(s) generally may transfer a maximum of six (6) semester hours into an approved degree program, or three (3) hours for certificate programs. These must be approved by the appropriate director of graduate studies. Some summer workshops, short courses, video courses, etc. may not be accepted as transfer credit.

By prior special arrangement, 12 hours of transfer credit will be accepted into the M.A. New Testament program as offered on the campus of the School of Biblical Studies in Jos, Nigeria.

The Master of Divinity student may transfer in (from any accredited institution) as many as 42 hours of A's and B's, which will count toward degree requirements as long as, in the director's judgment, those courses are reasonable substitutes for core or elective courses.

The Master of Business Administration student may transfer in (from any accredited institution) a maximum of twelve hours to count toward degree requirements as long as, in the director's judgment, those courses are reasonable substitutes for core or emphasis area courses. No more than three of those twelve hours may be for emphasis area courses.

The University is not obligated to accept any courses for transfer of credit. Transfer courses must reflect and be similar to courses within the program of study the student is entering. Only grades of A or B will be accepted. The coursework must not have been used to satisfy a requirement for any degree previously granted (exception in Graduate Bible). Graduate credit from foreign universities is not accepted because of academic and procedural differences between U.S. regionally accredited and foreign institutions. Official transcripts are required before courses can be evaluated, approved, and accepted.

NON-DEGREE SEEKING STUDENTS

A college graduate not planning to enroll in a degree program may register as a non-degree-seeking graduate student. An applicant must have completed an appropriate baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution. An applicant must submit official undergraduate and graduate transcripts of credit earned from all institutions of higher education previously attended. The applicant must complete the graduate application process and include the application fee.

As a non-degree-seeking student, one may enroll for any graduate course for which he/she has the necessary prerequisite course work, with the approval of the director of the program of study offering the course. Certain courses may not be available to non-degree-seeking graduate students. The Director of the program of study may restrict enrollment in the course or give scheduling preference to degree-seeking students.

If an applicant is planning to pursue a degree program, he/she should not enroll as a non-degree-seeking student. While non-degree-seeking students may subsequently apply for a degree program, there is no assurance they will be admitted. In addition, the program of study, at the discretion of the director, may approve a maximum of 12 credit hours of course work (with grades of "B" or higher) taken in non-degree-seeking status to count toward the master's degree.

Non-degree-seeking students are NOT eligible for federal financial aid.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION AND APPLICATION FEE

To obtain an application form, write to the appropriate director of graduate studies at Freed-Hardeman University, Henderson, TN 38340; or go online to <http://web.fhu.edu>:

Dr. Elizabeth A. Saunders, Master of Education, 731-989-6087;

Dr. Mark A. Blackwelder, Director, Master of Ministry, Master of Arts in New Testament, or Master of Divinity, 731-989-6624;

Dr. Michael Cravens, Master of Counseling, 731-989-6638; or

Dr. Thomas W. DeBerry, Master of Business Administration, 731-989-6659.

A non-refundable application fee must be included with the completed application form and the other required materials listed above. Send all application materials to the appropriate program director.

Academics

Freed-Hardeman is a Christian university. Each student needs to know the academic expectations and policies of the university and is personally responsible for meeting the requirements for any degree. We expect our students to behave in a Christian manner and in accordance with university standards.

Academic Policies

The Graduate Council is responsible for developing policies and regulations affecting graduate curricula and requirements leading to graduate credits, certification, and degrees.

The Council is composed of two faculty from each program in which a degree is offered, faculty members who meet the criteria for teaching in the graduate program and who hold the terminal degree, the Director of Graduate Studies in Education, the Director of Graduate Studies in Bible, the Director of Graduate Studies in Business, and the Director of Graduate Studies in Counseling.

While every effort will be made to conform to catalog announcements, the university reserves the right to adapt its programs and policies as necessary. Students having matters of concern should see the appropriate director of graduate studies.

UNIT OF CREDIT

The unit of credit is the semester hour. One semester hour of credit represents approximately fifteen hours of lecture-discussion activity and examinations.

STUDENT LOAD

Full-Time Load. For academic purposes, a student enrolled in 9-13 graduate semester hours is classified as a full-time student.

Maximum Load. No student may register for more than 13 graduate hours during a semester or summer term. Students employed full-time may not register for more than seven hours while working without the permission of the appropriate director of graduate studies.

SHORT COURSE OFFERINGS

Short courses are offered in each graduate program. See the graduate schedules for exact dates each course will be offered.

LEVELING COURSE WORK

Courses required to bring the student up to graduate school level will not count in the hours required for the master's degree.

ADVISING AND COUNSELING

Advising and counseling are available. The directors of each graduate program will provide help with academic, career, or personal concerns. The directors and other professionals are prepared to assist you in analyzing personal, family, social, and religious concerns which may trouble you or impede your progress. In the event you need the assistance of a professional counselor, please contact the director of personal counseling.

Each student is referred to the director or adviser of his graduate program for assistance in planning his program, in registration, and in reviewing his progress. The director or assigned advisor should approve each semester's schedule and any changes made. Students may be referred to the Vice President for Academics for additional assistance. The student is, however, personally responsible for meeting catalog requirements, following handbook policies in their handbook, and seeking written approval of any exceptions.

REGISTRATION

After a schedule of classes has been approved by an official adviser, you may register through the director of your chosen graduate program. Students must follow the registration schedule of their particular program and register prior to the beginning of a class or within the add/drop period.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE

You may change your schedule during a period specified in the catalog calendar by adding or dropping a course or courses. Changes require permission of your program director and the instructors involved. Tuition will be prorated according to the schedule of charges in this catalog under "Financial Information: Tuition."

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE OR FROM THE UNIVERSITY

To withdraw from a course after the end of the drop-add period or to withdraw from the university, a student should contact the Director of the Graduate Program and follow his/her instructions.

Grades and Grade Point Average

GRADES

Achievement and the quality of work of the student in each course are indicated as follows:

Grade	Significance	Quality Points per Graduate Semester Hour
A	Excellent	4
B	Good	3
C	Satisfactory (Marginal)	2
D	Unacceptable Grade	0
F	Failure	0
I	Incomplete	0
E	Withdrew Failing	0
X	Absent from Final Examination

The following grades are not used in determining scholarship level or satisfactory progress.

W	Withdrew
N	Noncredit
R	Repeated
S	Satisfactory
U	Unsatisfactory

S and U grades are used when it is not feasible to evaluate achievement more precisely or when work is still in progress and not overdue.

N is the grade assigned for a course audited or otherwise taken without credit. If an auditor stops attending, W is assigned.

R is the grade assigned a course which is being repeated or duplicated. Credit will not be given twice for the same course or a similar one which duplicates the content of the first. The last grade earned will be the one used to determine if requirements have been met and in calculating averages unless the student withdraws passing. A failing grade (E or F) may be removed only by repeating the course failed.

I and X grades are given only when necessary and not for the convenience of students who wish for more time than their classmates. They are calculated as failing grades unless removed. A student who has an I grade must make it up by midterm of the following semester. An acceptable excuse for an absence from an examination must be presented and an examination taken as soon as possible. A fee may be charged for a make-up examination.

After a final grade has been submitted, it cannot be changed except when it is quite clear that a major error has been made. Students will not be given additional time to raise a grade.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

Scholarship level is expressed in terms of a grade point average (G.P.A.) calculated by dividing total quality points earned by GPA credits. Semester and cumulative averages are recorded on the permanent academic record and on semester grade reports. Averages are used to determine honors, academic probation and suspension, renewal of academic scholarships, and eligibility for certificates and degrees.

GRADE REPORTS

Grade reports are available on IQ Web. Each student should review low grades promptly with his/her adviser.

Official notice of academic probation or suspension can be found on IQ Web, subject to correction of any errors in recording or processing grades. Confirmation by letter may follow.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is required. The class attendance policy shall be in the written syllabus distributed to all class members by the second meeting of that class. The policy is subject to review by the Vice President for Academics. Excessive absences, regardless of the reason, may result in grade reductions or failure in the class.

GOOD ACADEMIC STANDING

The student must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 to remain in good academic standing. No grade below C will be counted toward degree requirements. Grades below C may result in academic suspension or termination at the discretion of the Graduate Council.

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION

Should the student's cumulative grade point average fall below 3.00, he/she will be placed on academic probation. A student on academic probation will not be allowed to enroll for more than 9 hours during any term the probation applies.

The student on probation is required to achieve a 3.00 cumulative GPA the following semester enrolled. Failure to do so will result in suspension from the program. A student on suspension must reapply for admission to the appropriate director.

A course in which a student has earned a grade of C or below may be repeated. The last grade earned will be the grade for the course.

DISHONESTY AND CHEATING

Academic dishonesty is not in keeping with Christian principles. The following are some forms of academic dishonesty:

Cheating – intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise. This applies to all forms of work submitted for credit or hours.

Fabrication – intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.

Facilitating academic dishonesty – intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to violate a provision of the institutional code of academic integrity.

Plagiarism – the adoption or reproduction of ideas or words or statements of another person as one's own without acknowledgement.

A student who is dishonest in a course may be given an "F" and dropped from the course. Taking books from the library in any way other than that prescribed and removing pages from books and publications is dishonest. Attempts to by-pass the library security system is dishonest and may be grounds for suspension.

STUDENT RECORDS

All student records which are not specifically exempted by Section 438 of the General Education Provision Act are available upon request to all present and former students. A list of student records and their location is maintained in the Registrar's office. All requests for examination of student records should be made in writing and directed to the Registrar, Freed-Hardeman University, Henderson, Tennessee 38340. Requests are normally granted within two weeks of receipt of the request. All examinations of student records will take place in the office of the Registrar with a representative of the university present.

After examining his or her record, the student or former student may request that certain records be removed based on grounds that the records in question are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's rights. Should the request by the student be refused, the student shall have the right to a formal hearing before a committee appointed by the President within 60 days of such request being submitted in writing. Any student has the right to request a copy of any material contained in his or her record. The cost of each page to be reproduced shall be $1.00.

Unless the student files a written objection with the records office, the university may release the student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student, and similar information. The university regards as similar information which may be used in publications and news releases or released upon request the following: high school attended, photograph, maiden name, sex, marital status, number of children, race, citizenship, candidacy for graduation, classification, parents' names and addresses, degree objective, student's class schedule, activities, church affiliation, and student organization memberships.

Grades, reports of excessive absences from class, and other information relating to the current status of a student may be sent directly to the parent(s) or guardian(s) who claim(s) a son or daughter as a dependent on the federal income tax return. This procedure is followed until such time as a parent or guardian informs the records office that the student is no longer a dependent. Any such change in status should be reported immediately to the Registrar.

ACADEMIC GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Any grievance concerning grades, competencies, course syllabi, absence from class, admission to a program, or any other academic matter should be discussed with the teacher or director of the program as appropriate. If the grievance is not resolved satisfactorily with the teacher or director, the next step is to register the complaint within seven days of student's notification of the decision in question in writing to the department chair or dean where no department exists. If, after the completion of the procedure described above, the grievance has not been equitably resolved, then within 48 hours an appeal in writing must be submitted to the Vice President for Academics. A hearing will be scheduled with the Graduate Council which will serve as the appeals committee. The recommendation of the Graduate Council will be made to the Executive Vice President, and this will be the final step in the grievance procedure.

Admission to Candidacy

All programs of study require each degree-seeking student to apply for and be admitted to candidacy in order to complete the program of study leading to the master's degree. The candidacy process is used to review a student's progress and compliance with academic policies.

Programs of study requiring candidacy may establish their own guidelines for the process. Contact the director of graduate studies in the student's area of study for specific information.

In general, a student should apply for admission to candidacy at the completion of six graduate courses at Freed-Hardeman University (18 semester hours; 18-24 hours for M.S. in Counseling students) with an average grade of B. Grades below C will not be counted in the 18/24 hours. (Master of Divinity students must also apply for candidacy after 18 hours, or have transferred into the program 18 credit hours with a 3.0 GPA.) The student will be required to submit a written request for candidacy status. The request will be submitted to the director of graduate studies in the student's area of study and must be accompanied by written recommendations from two teachers with whom the student has taken graduate courses at Freed-Hardeman University.

At the time the request is made for admission to candidacy, the student will file a degree plan with his adviser which shows how all requirements will be met. Candidacy status is required in order to exceed a total of 24 graduate hours.

Graduation Requirements

A cumulative GPA of 3.0 on all graduate credits with no grade lower than a "C" is specified, except for the Education Specialist Degree which requires a 3.5 GPA for graduation. No more than six (6) semester hours of grades of "C" may be applied toward graduation requirements.

Specific course requirements which must be met are listed under each program of study.

Participation in commencement ceremonies is required unless an exemption is granted by the Vice President for Academics.

APPLICATION FOR DEGREE

Application for graduation should be made within two weeks of the first day of classes of the last semester of work. The application form is available online at <http://fhu.edu>. A list of other requirements for graduation is available online.

Comprehensive Examinations

A written comprehensive examination will be required for most degrees. The comprehensive examination will be prepared by a nationally recognized testing organization or at least three members of the graduate faculty who have taught the student. The examination will normally be administered during the student's last semester (except in the case of Master of Divinity students who have taken the comprehensive examinations at the 36-hour level) and candidates will be notified of the time and place of the examination at least one month prior to the examination. An oral examination or interview may be required in addition to the written examination.

Master of Arts in New Testament and Master of Divinity students who write a thesis will do both written and oral exams based TOTALLY on the thesis materials. Comprehensive exams for Bible students who do not write a thesis will be based on three courses the student has taken and those three courses will be selected by the program director.

The Master of Divinity student who has passed comprehensive examinations at the Master of Ministry or Master of Arts in New Testament level will not be expected to repeat them.

Faculty who contributed in creating the examination will score the examination as "pass" or "fail." Reasons will be stipulated when a grade of "fail" is given.

Students will be notified by the director of the program if they passed or failed the comprehensive examination immediately (Bible), within 10 days (Education), or 14 days (Counseling) after the examination has been written.

Students who fail the examination will be given an opportunity to take it again the following semester. Students who fail the comprehensive examination twice must petition the Graduate Council for permission to take the exam again.

TIME LIMIT

All work for the Master of Education and Master of Science in Counseling degrees must be completed within a period of six (6) calendar years. All work for the Master of Ministry, the Master of Arts in New Testament, and the Master of Business Administration degrees must be completed within a period of eight (8) calendar years. The limit for the Master of Divinity is twelve (12) calendar years from the time of entry into the program unless the student has relevant hours from a previous graduate degree which are older than twelve years and which, in the director's judgment, should be counted.

THESIS

Students who write a thesis in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Master of Education or Master of Arts in New Testament degrees must hold "regular admission" status, submit a written thesis proposal to the appropriate director, and after receiving the director's approval, present a thesis which reflects original investigation, and then defend it orally.

The Master of Divinity student has an option of doing either a thesis or an internship. If such a student chooses to do a thesis, the student must likewise hold "regular admission" status, have a GPA of 3.00 or above on at least 24 hours, submit a proposal, etc. Students who anticipate graduate studies beyond the master's level are encouraged to write a thesis instead of doing an internship. Detailed instructions regarding thesis writing may be obtained in the office of the appropriate director.

The Master of Divinity student who has done an acceptable thesis or internship at the Master of Ministry or Master of Arts in New Testament level will not be expected to repeat it.

APPEALS

Any exceptions to any requirements or regulations would require approval by the Graduate Council. A Request for Exceptions or Exemptions form should be obtained from the Office of Academics, completed, and returned to the Vice President for Academics.

TRANSCRIPTS

An official photocopy transcript of the student's permanent academic record of work attempted and grades and credit earned will be issued on request of the student. The first is free; a fee of $5.00 is charged for each subsequent request. Direct transcript requests to the Registrar, or go online to <http://web.fhu.edu>. Transcripts will not be issued for students or graduates whose accounts are delinquent.

AUDITING A COURSE

Up to five (5) students will be allowed to audit for no credit any courses in the Bible/Counseling-related programs at the one-half tuition rates. These students will be admitted on a case-by-case basis after meeting with and being approved by the Director of Graduate Studies in Bible or the Director of Graduate Studies in Counseling.

Waiver: The spouse of a Master of Ministry, Master of Arts in New Testament, or Master of Divinity student who is carrying at least 6 credit hours may enroll as a special (part-time, non-credit) student in any graduate Bible course without charge. Any student enrolled for credit in the education or counseling graduate programs may audit undergraduate Bible courses with permission of the instructor without charge.

Online Availability of Courses

Not only do we offer convenient scheduling on campus, we are also now offering our Master of Ministry program completely online! (The other programs also offer a number of their courses online.)

Some courses are offered in an “online-only” format. Other courses have been offered as “hybrids,” meaning that the instructor teaches the course to students in the classroom and online simultaneously. A laptop computer with a webcam is used to broadcast the classroom sessions to a website which records them. Distance students may watch the class in real time, or view later. Interaction with online students is done via the Blackboard Learning System.

Master of Ministry

The Master of Ministry (M.Min.) is designed for students who wish to have advanced study in the work of a pulpit minister. Others who would benefit would be Bible school teachers, youth ministers, writers of Bible school literature, counselors, and people in the helping fields. The student who earns the Master of Ministry degree will complete 30 hours of course work and 6 hours of internship for a total of 36 semester hours. For more information call (731) 989-6624.

The student who wishes may take three courses in Hebrew rather than Greek. Likewise, a student who wishes to do so may substitute a readings-level course in a modern language like Spanish or French, or similar for either Hebrew or Greek readings. However, the student who opts for an emphasis in either Old Testament or New Testament is encouraged to take not just the three required, but at least four courses in the relative language.*

The student with an Apologetics emphasis must have at least one course in each of the three major areas: Metaphysics, Epistemology, and Axiology. If the student has had some of the required courses at undergraduate level, then those courses will be avoided at the graduate level.*

* A student must have a 3.00 GPA on the first 24 hours to qualify for thesis writing.*

AREAS OF EMPHASIS IN THE MASTER OF DIVINITY

An emphasis is optional, but if a student selects one, it requires 15 hours, as follows:

A. Old Testament

Advanced Introduction to Old Testament, the first three Hebrew Language courses, and one Old Testament text course.

B. New Testament

Advanced Introduction to New Testament, the first three Greek language courses, and one New Testament text course.

C. Biblical Languages

Three language courses in one of the Biblical languages, and two in the other. The third course in one's preferred Biblical language may be substituted by a readings course of a modern language (graduate or undergraduate level B or above) which is approved by the director.

D. Apologetics

Advanced Christian Evidences; Values in Human Thought and Action; Biblical Text, Canon and Inspiration; Philosophy of Religion; and one other course listed under Apologetics.

E. Ministry

Any five of the courses listed under Ministry.

F. Missions

Any five of the courses listed under Missions.

G. Church History

History of the Reformation Movement, History of the Restoration Movement, one of the Systematic Doctrine courses, plus at least two others in this section.

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN COUNSELING FOR CHURCH LEADERS

The School of Biblical Studies and the Department of Behavioral Sciences and Masters of Science in Counseling Program offers a Graduate Certificate in Counseling for Church Leaders. Ministers, associate ministers, youth ministers, family life ministers and/or elders who have interest or duties in counseling are encouraged to enroll in this certificate program. The interdisciplinary design of the certificate is reflected in a combination of graduate Bible and counseling courses. Students will gain an understanding of basic counseling skills, using scripture in counseling and specific areas of counseling that church leaders are often called upon to perform. The certificate program will give students an opportunity to strengthen and refine their skills whether for members inside the congregation or as an outreach for those in need. Students who successfully complete the Graduate Certificate in Counseling for Church Leaders will be better prepared to meet individual and family needs of those seeking help and support within a church context. This certificate can be taken for audit or graduate credit. Those students completing the Graduate Certificate (for credit) will be presented their certificate and recognized at the appropriate graduation ceremony. If you are interested in obtaining this certificate, see the Graduate Counseling office.

Description of Courses

BIB 500. Introduction to Graduate Studies. 3 hours. F., Sp.

The student is introduced to graduate level education with “hands-on” experience in the use of library resources and tools needed for effective research and writing including proper documentation of research projects. The student must take this course in the first or second regular semester of his enrollment.

BIB 511. Seminar in Genesis. 3 hours. Sp.

A preliminary to the Law of Moses, Genesis introduces the entire redemptive covenant message of Scripture. This Old Testament course probes the text and theology of this crucial book as foundational for understanding the life and thought of the ancient Hebrews.

BIB 512. Old Testament Wisdom Literature. 3 hours. F. Odd years.

An overview of the themes and theology of the books of Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon followed by exegesis of select passages from each book. Special attention is given to the poetic nature of this literature, as well as to its relationship to cognate literature from the ancient Near East.

BIB 513. Prophets I: Pre-Exilic. 3 hours. F. 2010. Even years.

A study of selections from the writings of the pre-exilic prophets: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Amos, Hosea, Micah, Jonah, and Nahum. Major prophetic themes are emphasized along with the study of the nature and work of the prophets.

BIB 515. Seminar in Job. 3 hours. Su.

This Old Testament text study probes the historical significance and the practical relevance of the book of Job. Special emphasis is given to the sovereignty of God and to the problem of suffering.

BIB 516. Seminar in Gospel of John. 3 hours. F. Odd years.

The major introductory questions to the Gospel of John will be discussed. The seminar will focus on an in-depth study of key passages. Applications for the twentieth century minister will be emphasized.

BIB 517. I, II Thessalonians and Philippians. 3 hours. Sp.

Study will be given to the background of the epistles and then verse-by-verse exegesis will be done with special attention to problems like the second coming of Christ.

BIB 518. I, II Peter and Jude. 3 hours. Sp.

Emphasis will be placed on the authorship and the background of the epistles and then a verse-by-verse exegesis will be done with attention to the “false teachers” and other such problems mentioned in the epistles.

BIB 519. The Corinthian Correspondence. 3 hours. F.

Study will be given to the background of the epistles and then a verse-by-verse exegesis will be done with special attention to problems like the Lord’s Supper, the woman’s veil, the resurrection, etc.

BIB 520. Life of Paul. 3 hours. Su. Odd years.

The course will examine the life, thought, work, and influence of Paul of Tarsus through a study of primary literature (his own letters) and secondary literature (letters about him; i.e., Acts of the Apostles). It will especially be concerned with placing Paul, the communities he addressed, and the literature by or related to him within their religious and social-historical contexts in the Greco-Roman world.

BIB 521. Romans. 3 hours. F. 2011. Short Course.

Introductory matters, including questions of chronology, destination, audience, and occasion will be treated. The student will be led through an exegesis of selected passages, consideration of difficult texts, and attention to the teaching of the Gospel, salvation, and man's responsibility to God as presented in these epistles.

BIB 525. Religious Communication. 3 hours. Su. Odd years.

An examination of communication as it is employed in the work of the local church. Attention will be given to the application of public relations, media, and computer techniques.

BIB 526. Advanced Preaching. 3 hours. Sp. Even years.

The preparation and presentation of topical, textual, and expository sermons in the context of local preaching. Training will include preparation for weddings, funerals, and speaking for special occasions.

BIB 527. Advanced Introduction to New Testament. 3 hours. Sp.

The origin, background, authorship, and design of New Testament books with some attention to the synoptic problem and general introduction to the New Testament. If the student has passed BIB 420 at undergraduate level, he will add one hour of Independent Study (in the area of New Testament introduction) and two more hours of electives.

BIB 528. New Testament World. 3 hours. Su. Even years.

The politics, society, culture, philosophies, and religions of the Greco-Roman world of the time of Christ. Backgrounds of early Christianity, its history and archeology from the 2nd century BC to the 2nd century AD. Same as BIB 452.

BIB 529. Expository Preaching. 3 hours. Sp. Odd years.

Study is made of the expository method; emphasis is placed on preaching from the Bible text; opportunity is given for practice, evaluation, and correction. Same as BIB/COM 435.

BIB 531. Elementary Greek I. 3 hours. F.

This course includes a study of forms, vocabulary, elementary syntax and it also includes reading/translation of some of the less difficult books of the New Testament.

BIB 532. Elementary Greek II. 3 hours. Sp.

A continuation of BIB 531.

BIB 533 A, B. Greek Readings. 3 hours. F., Su.

Readings in selected books of the New Testament (A=John; B=principally from Paul). Different New Testament books will be rotated each semester so that the student may take the course a second time as an elective. Emphasis is on vocabulary and grammar and development of facility of reading. Prerequisite: BIB 531 and BIB 532.

BIB 534. Greek Exegesis. 3 hours. Sp.

BIB 540. Introduction to Christianity. 3 hours. F., Sp.

Exploration of the roots of New Testament Christianity in Judaism, its planning, prophecy, beginning, development, and crystallization in various cultures is the focus. The course is designed to give an overview of God's plan for the church in the world. Students in Biblical programs will present and defend the results of their assigned research projects on major themes central to living in the modern/post-modern world.

BIB 541. Elementary Hebrew I. 3 hours. F.

Essential principles of the Hebrew language and grammar, acquisition of vocabulary, use of parts of speech, and development of ability to read the narrative portions of the Hebrew Bible. Same as BIB 461.

BIB 542. Elementary Hebrew II. 3 hours. Sp.

A continuation of BIB 541. Prerequisite: BIB 541 Elementary Hebrew I. Same as BIB 462.

BIB 543. Hebrew Readings. 3 hours. Su. Even years.

A study in the translation and exegesis of select narrative and poetic passages from the Hebrew Bible. Special attention is given to advanced Hebrew syntax and its application to Old Testament interpretation. Prerequisites: BIB 541 and BIB 542 Elementary Hebrew I and II.

BIB 544. Hebrew Exegesis. 3 hours. On demand.

Work on exegeting even more difficult passages of the Old Testament by emphasis on history, methods, and tools of Old Testament exegesis. Prerequisites: BIB 541 and 542 Elementary Hebrew I and II, and BIB 543 Hebrew Readings.

BIB 545. Christian Leadership. 3 hours. Su.

Leadership principles from the business world and from Scripture applied to the church, qualifications of effective spiritual leaders and methods of developing them, and consideration of the urgency of developing leaders. Same as EDU 517.

BIB 546. Education Program of the Church. 3 hours. Sp. Odd years.

Attention to the principles used to develop and strengthen the education program of the church. Goals, organization, curriculum, facilities, and teachers are major units of study that are included.

BIB 547. Missions and Church Growth. 3 hours. F. Odd years.

The Biblical basis of missions, its practice in history, in Catholicism, in Protestantism, and in churches of Christ. The practical principles which need to be mastered to be effective in missions, and anthropological/cultural aspects of mission work.

BIB 548. Contextualization. 3 hours. Sp. 2011.

An examination of the critical issues involved in presenting and applying the Gospel in other cultural contexts. Particular emphasis will be given to balancing faithfulness to the Biblical text with meaningfulness within culture.

BIB 549. Encountering Islam. 3 hours. Sp. 2010. Short Course.

The history of Islam, the Koran, basic Muslim doctrines compared and contrasted with Bible doctrine, and a study of evangelism among Muslims. Same as BIB 436.

BIB 550. Missionary Anthropology. 3 hours. F. 2010.

An examination of basic anthropological insights with application to the missionary enterprise. Culture change and cross-cultural adaptation will be addressed, as well as world view, urbanization, modernization, and westernization of less-developed cultures. Same as ANT 431/BIB 431.

BIB 555. Contemporary Ethics. 3 hours. F.

A study of contemporary theories in philosophical ethics with an emphasis on Biblical applications to current problems in values.

BIB 565 A, B, C, D, E, F. Internship. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 hours. F., Sp., Su.

This course requires extensive time spent in practical "hands-on" work in a supervised program of some local church. The particular church, program, and supervisor must be approved by the course instructor and the Director of Graduate Studies in Bible. Approximately 40 hours of preparation, work, and evaluation, exclusive of travel, will be required for each hour of credit. Internships are available in Ministerial Counseling, Teaching (Job, John, I, II Corinthians or I, II Thessalonians & Philippians), Religious Communication, Education Program, Missions, Preaching, Family Ministry, Church Leadership, and Reformation History.

BIB 570. Philosophy of Religion. 3 hours. Su. Short Course 2012.

Study and evaluation of classical and contemporary arguments regarding such issues as the existence of God, the essence and attributes of God, the nature of religious faith and its relationship to reason, the use of religious language, and the relationship between divine sovereignty and free will. Focus will be on Western rational conceptions, but alternative approaches will also be studied.

BIB 571. History of Apologetics. 3 hours. Su. 2011.

This course includes a study of apologetics in the New Testament, and a survey of apologists and apologetic systems which will help the student to develop a foundation for contemporary Christian apologetics. Emphasis will be placed on reading key New Testament texts through the lens of an apologist with evangelistic concerns. Students will be exposed to the history of apologetics, not simply through an account of names and dates, but through a practical introduction to historic challenges to the Christian faith and a review of exemplary responses.

BIB 572. Deity of Christ. 3 hours. Su. 2010.

This course begins by considering both Biblical and non-Biblical information supporting the historicity of Christ. It then explores the various claims made by Christ Himself concerning His deity and examines the Biblical testimony which supports these claims. Further evidence indicating that Jesus is the divine Son of God is also considered.

BIB 573. Symbolic Logic. 3 hours. Su. 2011.

An introduction to the use of symbolic logic as a tool to constructing and evaluating formal and informal deductive arguments, introducing the student to the terminology and chief concepts of logic. This course will emphasize the use of deductive logic in the Gospels.

BIB 575. Suffering and the Human Condition. 3 hours. Sp. Odd.

Human suffering is one of the most difficult experiences to understand and endure. Those in counseling and ministry are frequently faced with the psychological and physical problems of human suffering. This course explores how we deal with concerns in our own lives and the lives of others. It combines both theory and practice in an examination of the various elements of suffering. This course is an attempt to find value in suffering from a Christian perspective and help formulate a "theology of suffering" from Scripture that will result in successful interventions of the sufferer.

BIB 576. Advanced Christian Evidences. 3 hours. Sp. Short Course 2012.

Advanced apologetics: the study of evidences which prove the Christian faith is from God. Attention is given to systems of thought which oppose the Christian world view, and possible responses are considered. Classical and contemporary arguments for the existence of God, the inspiration of the Bible, and the deity of Christ are considered in detail.

BIB 577. Biblical Text, Canon, Inspiration. 3 hours. F. 2011.

A study of the nature and origin of the Biblical text (including a brief consideration of textual criticism), the definition and extent of the canon, and the definition and nature of inspiration.

BIB 578. Seminar in Epistemology. 3 hours. Su. 2011.

This course will focus on such important Biblical concepts as truth, faith, revelation, and knowledge which provide a context for evaluating theories of knowledge.

BIB 579. Values in Human Thought & Action. 3 hours. On sufficient demand.

An exploration of value issues and opportunities for further learning in the liberal arts and sciences. This course will focus on Christian perspectives in value questions which the student will confront in art, music, literature, economics, science, politics, and other related areas. Graduate students present and defend the results of their research on various assigned topics.

BIB 585. Thesis. 1-6 hours. F., Sp., Su.

The thesis for the Master of Arts in New Testament/Master of Divinity is written under the guidance of a faculty mentor and allows the student to do deeper research on a topic in his/her area of interest. The student is also examined on the topic by the committee which administers oral comprehensives. A $38 thesis fee is charged.

BIB 591. History of Reformation Movement. 3 hours. Su. 2011.

The events, teachings, and leading figures of the Reformation Movement from its beginning to 1800. Particular attention is given to separation from Catholicism, the development of various denominations, and the rise of the restoration plea.

BIB 592. History of Restoration Movement. 3 hours. F. 2011.

The events, teachings, and leading figures of the Restoration Movement from its beginning until the present. Focus is made on the origins, geographical spread of the movement, and various departures.

BIB 593. History of the English Bible. 3 hours. Su. 2010 Short Course.

A study of the history of the Bible's development with emphasis on its translation into the English language. Modern English translations will be surveyed and evaluated within the context of their stated goals and methodologies.

BIB 594. Systematic Theology I. 3 hours. Sp. Even years.

An introduction to systematic theology, including its necessity, method, and nature. The nature of God, revelation, and humanity are studied with an emphasis on the Biblical foundation of each.

BIB 595. Systematic Theology II. 3 hours. Su. Even years.

The nature of Christ, the church, salvation, and last things are studied with an emphasis on the Biblical foundations of each.

BIB 596. Hermeneutics. 3 hours. F. Even years.

This course studies the general principles requisite for proper Biblical interpretation. It also examines special principles necessary for properly interpreting different types of literary genre. Attention is given to examples of legitimate interpretation and opportunity is given for application of principles by students. Same as BIB 441.

BIB 598. Independent Study. 1, 2, 3, or 4 hours. Su., F., Sp.

The graduate student undertakes a research project of a practical nature under the direct supervision of a member of the graduate faculty. The number of hours credit will be determined by the length of the study and the extent of the student's involvement in the study.

TOPICAL SEMINARS

A topical seminar is a graduate course devoted to a significant topic of current interest to several students and an instructor. Topical seminars are offered on sufficient demand and may not be scheduled each year. When offered, these courses would be numbered 599A, B, C, etc.

Master of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) is designed for students who seek advanced study in business. Students may choose a program in Accounting, Corporate Responsibility, or Leadership. The M.B.A. requires 36 hours of course work. The Accounting program is designed primarily for those students who wish to take the Uniform Certified Public Accountant (C.P.A.) Examination, but require credit hours beyond the bachelor's degree. The Accounting program requires prerequisite courses in undergraduate accounting. The Corporate Responsibility program has roots in accounting, but is without its technical emphasis on mechanics. The Leadership program is a unique course of study applicable to leaders in all organizations.

The M.B.A. is available through 1) a totally online format, 2) a totally traditional classroom format, or 3) a mixed approach (online and traditional). Courses are scheduled to enable a student to complete the M.B.A. in approximately a year if the student uses the mixed approach. Using either the totally online format or the totally traditional classroom format lengthens the minimum completion time to approximately two years. Core curriculum courses and emphasis courses for Accounting and for Leadership are available online or in the classroom. Corporate Responsibility emphasis courses are currently available only online.

As a requirement to graduate, students must participate in program assessment activities scheduled near the completion of their coursework. Currently, these assessment activities consist of an exit exam and opinion surveys and take approximately four hours to complete. Students can complete these on campus on a scheduled date, or may work with the Director of Graduate Studies in Business in securing an off-campus testing center that is more convenient for the student to complete these assessment activities. The details of this scheduling are initiated when the student completes their Application for Graduate Degree.

The School of Business also offers a B.B.A./M.B.A. in Accounting program that results in the student earning both an undergraduate degree in Accounting and a M.B.A. with Emphasis in Accounting, as well as providing the student with the credits needed to take the C.P.A. exam. This program provides for a somewhat different mix of courses than those in the M.B.A. Accounting Program Emphasis area listed below. This B.B.A./M.B.A. program is detailed in the undergraduate catalog.

Students are encouraged to access the following website on a recurring basis for routinely updated information about the M.B.A. program: <http://www.fhu.edu/themba>.

Topics include a study of statistical theory and procedure, including descriptive statistics and statistical inference, and linear programming. The course focuses on the application of knowledge to real-world problem solving and utilizes Microsoft Excel for assignments and exams.

BUS 554. Legal and Ethical Issues in Decision Making. 3 hours.

A general introduction to legal and ethical issues relevant to general managers. A primary focus of the course will be on how legal and ethical issues influence the decision making of managers in the context of employment law. Students will explore the relationship of personal values and business decisions and the social responsibilities of managers.

BUS 559. Strategic Decision Making. 3 hours.

An integration of the major subject matter areas covered in the M.B.A. core. Integration is accomplished within the context of studying the strategic management process. The course relies heavily on cases that deal with the wide range of policy, strategic, and implementation issues faced by companies operating in both domestic and global markets.

ECO 570. Global Economic Environment. 3 hours.

An examination of the economic forces, institutions, and policies that govern and shape the global environment in which business operates. Emphasis is placed on the evolution of international trade and current trends in the global economy. Topics include motivations for international trade, risk assessment, trade policies, fiscal and monetary policies, exchange rates, and comparative economic systems.

FIN 580. Financial Management. 3 hours.

An examination of the vital role of active financial management within an organization and the impact of financial decisions to a firm's long-term competitiveness and viability. Emphasis will be placed on financial statement analysis, working capital management, financial forecasting, capital budgeting, required rates of return theory and calculation methods, operational and financial leverage decisions, long-term financing alternatives, and profit-distribution methods.

MGT 540. Integrated Resource Management. 3 hours.

Integrating traditional, total quality, just-in-time, and constraint management philosophies with current practices in services and manufacturing. A systems perspective on long- and short-term planning, scheduling, implementing, controlling, and measuring operations that produces goods or services, provides customer satisfaction, and supports the organization's competitive edge. Emphasis on supply-chain and continuous-improvement processes.

MIS 520. Information Systems Management. 3 hours.

Study of the rapidly changing capabilities of technology and its impact on an organization's ability to gain competitive advantage. The course focuses on the strategic management of information and builds the skills necessary to analyze business strategies and processes, identify IT-related problems and opportunities, specify required IT capabilities, and manage the design, implementation, and evaluation of IT solutions. Same as ACC 520.

MKT 560. Marketing Management. 3 hours.

An examination of the role of marketing in an organization and how effective marketing creates value for customers. Emphasis is on making strategic marketing decisions in the context of general management. Major topics include market segmentation and targeting, management of the Four Ps, marketing research, sustainable competitive advantage, strategic planning in competitive and dynamic markets, and social and ethical issues in marketing.

ACCOUNTING EMPHASISACC 520. Information Systems Management. 3 hours.

Study of the rapidly changing capabilities of technology and its impact on an organization's ability to gain competitive advantage. The course focuses on the strategic management of information and builds the skills necessary to analyze business strategies and processes, identify IT-related problems and opportunities, specify required IT capabilities, and manage the design, implementation, and evaluation of IT solutions. Same as MIS 520.

ACC 532. Seminar in Accounting Theory. 3 hours.

An examination of the background and applications of modern accounting theory, with emphasis on the authoritative pronouncements that influence accounting practice and generally accepted accounting principles. Prerequisite: ACC 331 Intermediate Accounting II, or equivalent.

ACC 533. Taxation of Entities. 3 hours.

A study of the tax laws relating to partnerships, estates, trusts, and corporations, including S corporations. An emphasis on research methodology for tax planning. Prerequisite: ACC 430 Principles of Taxation, or equivalent.

ACC 534. Seminar in Auditing Theory. 3 hours.

Study of audit theory, introduction to auditing research, case studies, and special topics. Prerequisite: ACC 436 Principles of Auditing.

ACC 535. Advanced Accounting. 3 hours.

A study of the specialized areas of business combinations and consolidated financial statements. The course includes accounting for partnerships and an extensive examination of accounting for government and not-for-profit entities. Same as ACC 435. Prerequisite: ACC 331 Intermediate Accounting II.

CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY EMPHASISRSP 522. Internal Controls. 3 hours.

The study of processes designed to minimize risk exposures from such occurrences as accounting errors, non-compliance, theft, and fraud. The course examines such topics as establishing and monitoring internal controls, risk exposures, business processes, transaction cycles, reasonable assurance, segregation of duties, and collusion. Documentation and audit trail, transaction approval and authorization, accountability, security of assets and information, and links to system design and development are also examined.

RSP 523. Fraud Detection and Investigation. 3 hours.

The study of fraud detection and the investigation of suspected fraud. The course examines such topics as data analysis/mining tools, tracing illicit transactions, money laundering, red flags of financial fraud, interviewing/interrogation techniques, securities fraud, and intellectual property. Organized crime and terrorism and their impact on fraud incidence are investigated.

RSP 524. Governance and Accountability. 3 hours.

The study of governance and the accountability of entities to their stakeholders, including the public. The course examines such topics as responsibilities of boards of directors, officers, and partners, fiduciary responsibility, conflicts of interest, tone at the top, and the requirements of Sarbanes-Oxley. Shareholder impact analysis decision-making approaches, external audit reform, social responsibility, organizational crisis management, environmental economics, and environmental stewardship are also examined.

LEADERSHIP EMPHASISLDR 542. Personal Leadership. 3 hours.

The course improves leadership self-awareness and competencies through in-depth self-examination of skills, abilities, personality, attitudes, values, and behaviors. Examines leadership principles, theories, and models and their application to personal leadership capabilities. Integrates insights and learning by developing a personalized-leadership development plan and participating in projects and exercises to increase personal leadership skills.

LDR 543. Leading Teams and Organizations. 3 hours.

Leadership in organizations. While the previous course in this sequence focuses on exploring one's own skills, abilities, interests, and self-development plans, this course focuses on leading and developing others in organizational settings. Specific topics include developing employees as individuals, leading teams, servant leadership, service to one's community, leading organizations, and building careers of substance.

LDR 544. Managing Careers in Organizations. 3 hours.

This course demonstrates that proper employee management has the potential to be a source of sustainable competitive advantage for organizations. The course examines the major issues in career training and development, specifically: (1) to increase students' understanding of theory and research in the area of career development; (2) to increase students' skills in managing their own careers; and, especially, (3) to increase students' skills in developing the careers of their subordinates.

ADDITIONAL COURSESACC 599A. Special Topics in Accounting. 3 hours.

Master of Science in Counseling

The Master of Science in Counseling is designed to meet the needs of college graduates who desire training in counseling-psychotherapy and wish to provide such services to individuals, couples, groups, and families. Freed-Hardeman University's interdisciplinary M.S. in Counseling program integrates elements of the core mental health professions with principles of the Christian faith to produce graduates ready for the clinical practice of professional counseling.

The Master of Science in Counseling requires that students satisfactorily complete 60 semester hours of course work and pass a comprehensive exam. Included in the 60 hours are two practicums of 150 supervised hours of counseling and counseling-related activities. All counseling supervision is performed by well-trained counselor-supervisors. For more information call 731-989-6638.

Career Opportunities. A master's degree in counseling (with advanced graduate work and licensure where required) may lead to employment in a variety of settings, such as community agencies, children and family services agencies, churches, counseling clinics, business-employee assistance programs, and private practice. Further study at the doctoral level may prepare students for faculty positions at various schools, colleges, and universities.

Note: Students will be required to carry liability insurance once accepted into the program. Coverage is offered through the American Counseling Association or a number of other agencies. To gain ACA coverage, a student would need to join the American Counseling Association as a student member. If a student does not want ACA insurance coverage, other carriers are available for student perusal and selection.

Graduate Certificate Programs

A Graduate Certificate in Gerontology is available through the Department of Behavioral Sciences and Masters of Science in Counseling Program. This certificate program offers specialized training for practitioners in serving aging adults. The various healthcare providers who complete this program will be better equipped to meet the complex needs of the aging population and their families. The area of gerontology is predicted to be one of the fastest growing areas within the human services healthcare and counseling job markets. Older people make up an increasingly larger segment of the population, as the average life expectancy in the U.S. has grown from 47 years in 1900 to 76 years currently. This trend will continue until the elderly population reaches 80 million in 2050 (one in five Americans will be 65 or older). Every facet of life is touched by these changes, including the family, economy, health services delivery, government, the private sector, businesses, and religious institutions. These trends result in a demand for professionals with knowledge and expertise in aging. Due to these trends, the M.S. in Counseling Program offers an 18-hour Certificate of Gerontology.

The School of Biblical Studies and the Department of Behavioral Sciences and Masters of Science in Counseling Program offer a Graduate Certificate in Counseling for Church Leaders. Ministers, associate ministers, youth ministers, family life ministers and/or elders who have interest or duties in counseling are encouraged to enroll in this certificate program. The interdisciplinary design of the certificate is reflected in a combination of graduate Bible and counseling courses. Students will gain an understanding of basic counseling skills, using scripture in counseling and specific areas of counseling that church leaders are often called upon to perform. The Certificate program will give students an opportunity to strengthen and refine their skills whether for members inside the congregation or as an outreach for those in need. Students who successfully complete the Graduate Certificate in Counseling for Church Leaders will be better prepared to meet individual and family needs of those seeking help and support within a church context. This certificate can be taken for audit or graduate credit.

Those students completing a graduate certificate will be presented an official certificate when the program of study is completed.

- B. For the purpose of mental health service provider designation pursuant to T.C.A. 63-22-150, "has completed a minimum of nine (9) graduate semester hours of coursework specifically related to diagnosis, treatment, appraisal and assessment of mental disorders" will be interpreted to mean passing nine (9) semester hours, either during the course of a graduate degree or as post-graduate work, in courses which include diagnosis, treatment and treatment planning, appraisal and assessment of mental disorders, psychopathology, and the use of the DSM, were the entire focus of the course or comprised a substantial portion of the course work.

Description of Courses

COUNSELING CORE COURSES

COU 500. Counseling Foundations. 3 hours.

This course provides an intensive look at the profession of counseling and the professional roles, tasks-responsibilities, and identity of the counselor. This course also includes an opportunity for an in-depth understanding of the many aspects of professional counseling including similarities and differences of other mental health professions, educational preparation, professional counseling organizations, ethical standards, legal aspects of counseling, and state and national credentialing. The course emphasizes self-awareness and growth as it relates to becoming an effective facilitator of individual, couple, group, and family change.

COU 501. Clinical Intervention I. 3 hours.

The development of basic counseling techniques with an introduction to counseling theory, philosophy and principles as applied to skill development.

COU 502. Clinical Intervention II. 3 hours.

This course develops advanced counseling techniques. Skills for diagnosis, case conceptualization, treatment planning, intervention and evaluation of treatment will be targeted. A number of counseling approaches-techniques will be examined for student development, demonstration, and possible integration.

COU 505. Life-Cycle Development. 3 hours.

A thorough survey of the specified divisions of the life cycle from early childhood to death. Topics include life-cycle theories of development, developmental tasks, normal-abnormal behavior, models of moral, intellectual, social, and physical development and learning theories will be explored. Counseling strategies for specific concerns in the life cycle will be emphasized.

COU 510. Theories of Counseling and Psychotherapy. 3 hours.

An intensive study of selected theories of counseling and psychotherapy with a review and critique of motivation and process dynamics of each theory in light of current research and theory. Students are encouraged to begin to identify and personalize their own theoretical approach.

COU 514. Psychopathology I. 3 hours.

An in-depth study of abnormal behavior including the theories of psychopathology, etiology, and epidemiology of mental disorders. The course, prognosis, and cultural differences of each mental disorder are given special attention. Students will be introduced to the DSM-IV approach to defining and diagnosing mental disorders.

COU 515. Psychopathology II. 3 hours.

An in-depth study of the DSM approach to diagnosing mental disorders. Emphasis will be given to DSM criteria, case studies, and differential diagnosis of mental disorders. Prerequisite: COU 514 Psychopathology I.

COU 520. Assessment I. 3 hours.

A study of the administration, scoring, and interpretation of assessment-appraisal instruments used in counseling. Emphasis is on the use of test results in counseling with individuals and families. Case note fundamentals and report writing are also studied.

COU 521. Assessment II. 3 hours.

An intensive study of the application of assessment-appraisal techniques in counseling. Emphasis is on the selection, administration, scoring, and interpretation of personality assessment instruments. Synthesis of various forms of data into a comprehensive assessment report will also be studied. Prerequisite: COU 520 Assessment I.

COU 525. Marriage and Family Counseling. 3 hours.

A study of the dynamics of marriage and family relationships with emphasis on understanding of the structure and function of marriage, the various aspects of the marital relationship, family systems, and the way in which the counselor may approach marriage and family counseling as a creative, preventative, and healing avenue.

COU 530. Group Counseling. 3 hours.

A study of the principles of group counseling dynamics, theory and techniques. Students participate in face-to-face task groups. Emphasis is placed on developing competencies in self-intervention and growth as well as competence in processes of small group phenomena.

COU 535. Ethical Issues in Counseling. 3 hours.

An in-depth study of professional ethics, legalities, and professional issues relating to the professional practice of counseling.

COU 540. Research Methods in Counseling. 3 hours.

An introduction to research methods and their application to research problems with emphasis on the conceptualization, design, completion, and evaluation of research in counseling. Prerequisite: 12 hours of counseling courses.

COU 545. Practicum I. 3 hours.

The student works in a face-to-face relationship with a client under the supervision of a field supervisor. A minimum of 150 clock hours is required for this practicum. Weekly campus meetings are also required. Weekly meetings will be organized and directed by the graduate faculty. An additional fee of $160 is charged. Prerequisites: COU 500, COU 501, COU 502, COU 510, COU 514, COU 515, COU 535, and Liability Insurance.

COU 550. Career Counseling. 3 hours.

This course will review concepts, issues, and trends in the field of career education. It is designed to consider the role of the counselor in the career decision-making process, as well as current issues in the facilitation of career decisions for women and men across the lifespan. Topics will include, but may not be limited to: selected theories of career-life planning and development; techniques designed to bring about greater awareness of needs, ethnicity, values, interests, and abilities related to career decision-making; and a range of techniques counselors may choose to facilitate work with clients.

COU 555. Theories of Personality. 3 hours.

Representative theories of personality are analyzed for their contribution to understanding human growth and development, psychopathology and behavior change. The relationship of theory to assessment and research is examined.

COU 560. Counseling Diverse Populations. 3 hours.

This course is designed to address societal changes, influences and trends, human roles, societal subgroups, social mores, and diversity of life-styles. Social change and individual/societal responses, and multicultural issues are examined. Other major issues addressed include religion, racial issues, ethnicity, gender issues, sexual preference, aging issues, and subgroup/cultural communication patterns. Methods of addressing the provision of counseling services and alleviating those concerns are explored. Because of the nature of this course it will be team taught.

COU 565. Addictions Counseling. 3 hours.

This course provides an intensive understanding of the etiology, progress and counseling strategies for addictive disorders. Emphasis will be given to the DSM classification of addictive disorders, the interaction of addiction within and upon the family system, and effective techniques for counseling addicted persons and their families.

COU 570. Crisis Counseling. 3 hours.

An examination of the theory, practice, cultural dynamics, and legal implications of crisis intervention as applied to crisis-induced dysfunctional behavior. Recognizing crisis situations and having knowledge of crisis intervention strategies and brief therapy techniques will be the main objective of this course.

COU 575. Agency Counseling. 3 hours.

An advanced study of the clinical skills and administrative knowledge unique to Mental Health Counselors in Agency Settings (i.e. Community Mental Health Centers, profit/non-profit counseling service agencies, psychiatric settings and private practice) with varied clientele. Included are the topics, concepts and skills of "community" assessment, program development, administration, delivery and evaluation.

COU 585. Psychopharmacology for Counselors. 3 hours.

A course designed to teach the prospective counselor about the history and development of psychopharmacologic agents, the biochemical nature of the central nervous system and the relationship of the system of psychopharmacology. The legitimate use of medications, the importance of treatment for some psychological disorders, and coordinating treatment amongst professionals will also be examined.

COU 590. Counseling and the Law. 3 hours.

This course will provide an overview of the American legal system, with special attention given to legal terminology, how to minimize legal problems, how to deal with members of the legal profession, preparing for court appearances, and handling a legal audit. The primary focus of the course is on avoiding malpractice. Topics include informed consent, confidentiality/privileged communication, duty to warn, duty to report, record keeping, and risk management. As time and interest permit, additional topics related to employment law will be discussed.

COU 598. Independent Study. 1-3 hours.

A cooperatively planned reading-research course or special project guided and evaluated by a member of the graduate counseling faculty. May be repeated as needed. Prerequisite: student must have "regular admission" status, have completed 12 graduate hours with 3.0 or above GPA, and complete required forms with appropriate signatures before the drop/add date of the semester for which the credit is to be earned OR gain special permission from the director of the Program for Special Circumstances, i.e., Conference Credit, etc. It is the student's responsibility to develop a proposal, initiate contact with a faculty member willing to serve as mentor and see that all requirements are met.

COU 600. Practicum II. 3 hours.

A continuation of Practicum I. The student works in a face-to-face relationship with a client under the supervision of a field supervisor. One-hundred-fifty (150) clock hours of counseling and counseling-related activities is the minimum requirement for successful completion. Weekly campus meetings are also required. Weekly meetings will be organized and directed by the graduate faculty. An additional fee charged. Prerequisite: COU 545 Practicum I, Completion of Core course work, and Liability Insurance.

COU 605. Internship. 6 hours.

A field-based clinical-counseling experience supervised by a qualified, licensed mental health professional at a site selected by special arrangement with the intern, the program director, and a mental health agency. Interns spend a minimum of 600 clock hours over one semester for six credit hours. Specific emphasis is placed on direct contact with consumers of mental health counseling services. The internship includes all activities a regularly employed mental health counselor would perform. It provides interns with an opportunity to develop and apply clinical diagnostic skills and counseling skills in a practical setting. An additional fee charged. Prerequisites: Completion of core coursework (including and passing practicums with a 3.0 GPA or better), admission to candidacy and completion of final coursework as specified in the student's degree plan (ex. transfer work), and permission of the program director.

COU 611. Foundations of Gerontology. 3 hours.

This foundational course begins an in-depth study of the aging process. Emphasis on how the greater social, family, physical, psychological, and spiritual contexts interplay and shape one's aging processes. Particular focus will be on helping various professionals create a positive, holistic, and applied understanding of aging.

COU 612. Sociological Aspects of Aging. 3 hours.

This course allows for an in-depth analysis of the current literature and research related to the demographic, social, and cultural aspects of aging in the United States and other cultures.

COU 613. Biological Aspects of Aging. 3 hours.

This course is structured for an in-depth examination of the human anatomy and physiology with implications of normal and abnormal age-related changes, needs, and concerns.

COU 614. Psychological Aspects of Aging. 3 hours.

A core course that examines the psychological aspects associated with aging. Topics include theories of aging, intellectual functioning, stress and personal adjustment, coping with illness, motivation, family dynamics, and one's role in later life.

COU 615. Assessment and Case Management. 3 hours.

This practitioner-oriented course focuses on the development of the knowledge and skills required to effectively assess and respond to the multi-dimensional needs of older adults and to coordinate and implement services from a range of resources and programs. Case management strategies addressed include: case finding, prescreening, intake, goal setting, treatment planning, capacity building, care plan, coordination-implementation, treatment evaluation, reassessment, and termination. Situations commonly encountered in at-risk elders are examined using standard protocols.

COU 616. Counseling the Aging. 3 hours.

The goal of this course is to understand the predictable and normal dependencies of aging. Both positive and pathological conditions will be examined. Advanced counseling techniques and specialized treatment interventions effective with older adults and their families will be addressed. Topics usually needing specialized counseling include, but are not limited to, retirement, finances, health, legal documents, and bereavement concerns.

COU 617. Nutrition for the Aging. 3 hours.

This course is an in-depth study of the physiological and biochemical changes of aging persons, their nutritional needs, concerns, and dietary management for the gerontological client. Advanced principles of human nutrition and the relatedness of nutrition, health, disease, and wellness are examined. Emphasis is placed on dietary goals, food pyramid and recommended allowances; psychosocial influences and perceptions related to diverse populations; nutrition, nutritional risk factors and related diseases. Nutrition education and promotion methods are also addressed.

COU 618. Community-Based Services for the Aging. 3 hours.

This course examines the range of community-based policies and programs which affect health impaired and well older adults and their families. Specific attention is given to the areas of health, nutrition, housing, employment, retirement, supportive living, protective services, and advocacy programs for older adults. Resources and supportive services to caregivers are also addressed.

COU 619. End-of-Life Care with Older Adults. 3 hours.

This course focuses on issues involved with end-of-life, especially the roles of various health care providers, family, caregivers, and the patients involved in death and dying processes. This program will provide the professional with the skills and knowledge required in this broad yet specialized area of care to stay current with emerging trends.

TOPICAL SEMINARS

COU 599A. Counseling Children and Adolescents. 3 hours.

A topical seminar designed to develop skills in counseling children and adolescents individually and in family therapy. Coordination of services with other agencies, work with the juvenile court system and the use of assessment instruments with this age group will be studied.

COU 599B. Diagnosis and Treatment Planning. 3 hours.

The foundation of an effective treatment plan is the data gathered through biopsychosocial assessment. Data can be obtained from interviews, client history and records, testing or collateral contacts. This course presents specific steps for developing an effective treatment plan based on assessment data and recognizing the uniqueness of each client. Plans will include a variety of interventions and approaches based on both behavioral problems and/or DSM IV diagnosis. The case study method will also be used to develop such plans in class for discussion and presentation. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor, or COU 514 Psychopathology I and COU 515 Psychopathology II.

COU 599C. Biblical Anthropology and Counseling. 3 hours.

This topical seminar is designed to help increase the student's appreciation for the Scriptures as an adequate handbook to meet the needs and concerns of the "human condition." This course will examine methods of integration of Scripture and counseling methods. This course also provides an intensive investigation into the Judeo-Christian doctrine of man with emphasis on the multifaceted nature of man in God's image, human choice, the fall, human sin, suffering, and sin related problems. Sin related problems which entrap people will be examined from a biblical perspective along with church and para-church methods of counseling.

COU 599D. Premarital Counseling. 3 hours.

A topical seminar designed to introduce the student to the concepts, various models, resources, and process for leading couples through premarital preparation. The student will become familiar with the theological issues as well as the practical implications of having a Christian marriage and family in today's society.

COU 599E. Grief Counseling. 3 hours.

This topical seminar provides content on the concepts of human attachment, loss, death, dying, and bereavement. Special clinical attention is given to the processes of grief therapy in resolving pathological grief and facilitating grief related to special kinds of losses. Grief is studied within the context of family systems.

COU 599F. Counseling for Church Leaders. 3 hours.

This course is intended to give the church leader basic counseling skills needed in a church setting. A basic introduction to counseling principles and concepts will be given from a strong, but not exclusive, Christian perspective. The church leader will gain a fundamental knowledge of psychopathology, so as to know how and when to make a referral. Topics that have special application to a church setting will be pursued, e.g., basic counseling within the congregation, marital and family counseling, Christian family life, conflict management, crisis counseling, the problem of suffering, counseling in the hospital (i.e. intensive care unit), dealing with anger, abuse, family dysfunction, spiritual disorders, Christian stewardship, affairs, divorce, and ethics. (Same as BIB 536.)

COU 599H. Domestic Abuse, Violence and Addiction. 3 hours.

This topical seminar provides an understanding of the etiology, progress and counseling strategies for working with abusive and addictive disorders.

Master of Education

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) is designed for those who are teaching, preparing to teach and/or adding areas of licensure to their credentials. It also offers opportunities for advanced study to people in education support roles and education-related fields. It is possible for a person who holds a non-education baccalaureate degree to meet Tennessee licensure requirements while completing the Master of Education (M.Ed.) program. For more information call (731) 989-6082, (800) FHU-FHU1, or (800) 348-3481.

Conceptual Framework — Teaching Licensure Program

REFLECTIVE EDUCATORS SEEKING TO SERVE

The graduate program at Freed-Hardeman University is guided by a conceptual framework which has its roots in the historical mission of the institution, competencies established by the State of Tennessee, research-based practice and practice proven over years of successfully preparing teachers for K-12 classrooms.

1. Reflective educators seeking to serve know the academic content of their discipline.
2. Reflective educators seeking to serve find opportunities to serve using Jesus Christ as a model.
3. Reflective educators seeking to serve continually reflect on and evaluate their choices and actions.
4. Reflective educators seeking to serve create instructional opportunities that are adapted to diverse learners.
5. Reflective educators seeking to serve use a variety of instructional strategies that recognize and address variation in learning styles.
6. Reflective educators seeking to serve create a learning community in which students assume responsibilities for themselves and one another.
7. Reflective educators seeking to serve know and use effective verbal, nonverbal, and media communication techniques.
8. Reflective educators seeking to serve use technology as a tool to enhance student learning.
9. Reflective educators seeking to serve know their respective codes of professional ethics.

MEMPHIS PROGRAM

Freed-Hardeman University offers a number of graduate classes on the campus of Harding Graduate School (1000 Cherry Road) each semester. Students in the initial teaching licensure program can take most required classes at this site.

A graduate office is located in Memphis at Harding Graduate School. The phone number there is 901-683-5714. You may also call the main graduate office in Henderson at 800-348-3481.

BIBLE COURSE

A requirement of the Graduate Studies in Education Program is the successful completion of a Bible course, BIB 540 Introduction to Christianity, through which the student is exposed to a basic overview of the Bible. The Bible serves as a foundation for personal conduct and ethical behavior in an educational setting.

Another requirement of the Graduate Studies in Education Program is the successful completion of the course, EDU 500 Introduction to Graduate Studies, through which the student is provided an orientation to the university, graduate studies, use of library resources, preparation of a portfolio, and advising. NOTE: Students cannot go beyond six hours in their program without completing this course.

NOTE: Freed-Hardeman University is a private, Christian university. The School of Education reserves the right to deny admission or drop from its programs those who fail to meet program criteria, whose personal conduct is seen as not in harmony with Christian education, or who, for other reasons, are not seen as able to successfully serve as an educator.

Master of Education Major in Curriculum and Instruction (Teaching Licensure Program)

This plan consists of 37 hours of course work and a 12-hour student teaching semester. The total program takes four semesters, two of which could be summers.

Purpose. The Master of Education/Licensure Program provides a comprehensive program of teacher preparation and licensure for persons who already hold a baccalaureate degree. Licensure may be attained for elementary grades K-6 and in secondary areas where it is offered by FHU under Tennessee's new licensure standards.

An evaluation of undergraduate transcripts is necessary to assure state competencies are met. Tuition for any required undergraduate courses will be the same as for graduate courses.

Program Outcome. The successful student will exit the program with the Master of Education Degree (M.Ed.) with a major in Curriculum and Instruction and licensure to teach.

Schedule Overview. Each program participant will be able to earn the M.Ed. degree with a major in Curriculum and Instruction plus meet licensure requirements. Fall and spring classes will be scheduled on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings (typically beginning at 5:00 p.m. or later) and on designated Saturdays. Summer classes, however, meet both during the day and in the evening. Several online courses are also available.

Admission to Teacher Education Program. At the end of 12 graduate semester hours, those seeking teaching licensure must do the following:

1. Submit an application for admission to the Teacher Education Program. (This will also be considered application for candidacy status.)
2. Submit a plan outlining the completion of the program.
3. Have a GPA on 12 or more graduate hours of 3.0 or above.
4. Be a member of a professional organization.
5. Submit an updated portfolio for review.
6. Participate in an interview with an appropriate advisor. At this time, the advisor will:
 - a. Review the application, portfolio, faculty recommendations and other materials.
 - b. Conduct an interview with each applicant.
 - c. Make a recommendation to the Teacher Education Committee for formal action.

NOTE: Admission to the graduate program does not assure a student that he/she will be admitted to the Teacher Education Program, Administration Program, or the School Counseling Program, all leading to licensure. In addition to academic ability, such factors as disposition, reliability, honesty, and suitability for the professional position being sought will be considered. Even if not admitted to the licensure program, the student may be provided an opportunity to complete requirements for the graduate degree.

Students must have a minimum 3.0 graduate GPA and the required Praxis examinations must be passed before a recommendation will be made for a teaching license. Praxis tests related to the specific licensure sought must be taken prior to program completion. Registration materials may be obtained in the Office of the Dean. Students should plan to take the required tests prior to student teaching and must register well in advance of the test date.

4. Cumulative graduate grade point average of 3.0 or above
5. Acceptable application to student teaching submitted by the required date
6. Approval of the Teacher Education Committee

NOTE: Two years of experience as a classroom teacher may be approved as a substitute for student teaching on an individual basis. Teaching experience being used to substitute for student teaching must be formally approved at the beginning of the student's licensure program. To be considered, the following must be true:

- a. The teaching experience was as a full-time teacher of record in a public K-12 school for a full two years.
- b. Employment was as a regular classroom teacher in K-12 by the school district (not outside agencies/institutions).
- c. Both years were within the same grade levels as the initial teaching licensure being sought.

7. Admission to Student Teaching

Applications for student teaching are available online on the School of Education website and should be submitted online no later than February 1 for the fall semester and September 1 for the spring semester. The application must be approved by the Director of Field Experiences and the Teacher Education Committee before the student may engage in student teaching. Student teachers must have evidence of liability insurance coverage and must complete an approved background check administered through the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation. Procedures for obtaining the background check are outlined on the School of Education website and the Graduate Studies in Education website. Student teaching is such a demanding responsibility that students may not take additional coursework or participate in extracurricular activities during the student teaching semester.

Master of Education Major in Curriculum and Instruction (Special Education Emphasis)

The Special Education Licensure Program is designed as a means by which practicing educators can earn a Master of Education (M.Ed.) with a major in Curriculum and Instruction and add the special education endorsement to their existing license. An introductory course in special education on an undergraduate level is a prerequisite to this program.

Master of Education Major in Administration and Supervision, with requirements for licensure

The Administration and Supervision Masters Program and the add-on Licensure Program are designed as a means by which by which practicing educators seeking to be administrators can earn a Master of Education (M.Ed.) with a major in administration and supervision and licensure as an administrator (Beginning Administrator Endorsement PK-12). Standard knowledge, skills, and dispositions common to both principals and supervisors are categorized into the required courses, including reflection, research, theories of leadership, applications and processes, professionalism, changes and improvements, and instructional leadership.

This is a 34-hour program consisting of a 22-hour core in curriculum and instruction and 12 hours of upper-level administration/supervision courses. The add-on licensure requires passing of the PRAXIS Leadership Test, along with appropriate recommendations for the program.

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA (ADMINISTRATION/SUPERVISION PROGRAM)

1. Submission of petition to the Director of Graduate Studies in Education for formal admission.
2. Full admission to Master of Education program by acceptance of the admissions committee.
3. Twelve hours of the curriculum and instruction core with 3.0 or above G.P.A.
4. Successful completion of EDU 601 Foundations of School Administration and Supervision.
5. For the add-on licensure, application and interview with the Director of Administration and Supervision and completion of application requirements. Verification of three years of successful teaching experience and required portfolio information are also required for acceptance into the Program.

II. Required for Licensure/Initial Licensure

EDU	530	Professional Reflective Seminar (for initial licensure)	1
EDU	695B	School Counseling Internship (for licensure)	3

Internship. The internship is the culminating experience in which the student practices the knowledge and skills learned in program coursework and in which he/she is expected to demonstrate mastery. This is a cooperative venture involving the student, a school district and the university in which there is provided an environment to experience the responsibilities of a school counselor with the support and guidance of a mentor counselor. This experience will consist of the equivalent of full-time work for one semester (450 hours).

Teaching Experience. This program will have as an emphasis the preparation of licensed teachers to add to their credentials licensure as school counselors. Those who do not have teaching licensure and/or experience as a classroom teacher will be considered for admission on an individual basis after a formal interview with the program director. If approved, a program will be planned which will include an additional K-12 classroom practicum and possible leveling courses.

The Director of School Counseling will supervise and administer this program in cooperation with the Director of Graduate Studies.

In addition to the competencies required for program approval by the State of Tennessee, those proposed by the American School Counselor Association and the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and related educational programs were used in the development of this program.

Those currently having a masters degree in counseling or education have the option of pursuing a licensure-only track. These will be evaluated on an individualized basis.

Exit Requirements

1. Successful completion of the previously mentioned coursework with a 3.0 GPA and other requirements for the M.Ed. degree.
2. Successful completion of required internships.
3. Completion of all courses within a six-year period (M.Ed.).
4. Passage of comprehensive exam (M.Ed.).
5. Passage of the appropriate state-approved licensure examination.
6. Recommendations by the Director of School Counseling, internship mentors and superintendent of the district where the internship was completed.

Education Specialist Degree (Ed.S.) Major in School Leadership

PURPOSE OF Ed.S. PROGRAM

The purpose of the Education Specialist Degree (Ed.S.) in School Leadership is to prepare school leaders of integrity to meet the instructional and administrative demands of the modern school in a diverse society.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This 34-hour program above a master's is for those who have a Master of Education and are seeking a Specialist Degree in School Leadership.

Students with a master of education and licensure in school administration will meet with an advisor to work out a program that reflects the student's professional goals and previous graduate work and the FHU program requirements.

Students who want to obtain administrative licensure while working toward their Ed.S. should consult with their advisor to see how best to tailor the program to meet their needs. (For licensure requirements, see Administration/Supervision Licensure Program.)

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

The following are required for admission to the specialist degree program:

1. Successful completion of a Master of Education (or equivalent) from a regionally accredited institution.
2. Cumulative graduate GPA of 3.5 or above.
3. Applicants not meeting the 3.5 GPA can apply for Conditional Admission status.
4. Three years of successful teaching experience.
5. Recommendations from two school administrators.
6. Recent small, professional looking photograph.
7. Current Administrator's License or EDU 601.
8. Submission of a sample of writing to be reviewed.
9. Interview with director of administrative program.
10. Consideration by an admissions committee.

This is a 34-hour program above a masters. Students who are new to the FHU graduate program will take EDU 500 Introduction to Graduate Studies. This course, an orientation to the university and graduate program, begins the student's professional portfolio and aids the student in the development of a program that meets his professional goals. This course does count in the 34 graduate hours required for the program.

Six hours can be transferred into the program from other institutions if those hours fit into the Leadership framework. A two-part thesis for which the student will receive six graduate hours credit is required during the Ed.S. program. EDU 621 Advanced Leadership is also required.

A cumulative GPA of 3.5 is required to graduate with an Education Specialist Degree.

EDU 520. Teaching Strategies K-4. 3 hours.

A study of materials and methods for teaching children in grades K-4. This course involves instructional design, methods, materials, and technology appropriate for those ages and a 15-hour practicum in a kindergarten setting.

EDU 521. Reading in the Content Area. 3 hours.

A general study of strategies used in building and reinforcing reading skills in respective content areas of secondary grades. Prerequisite: Admission to teacher education. Same as RDG 321.

EDU 522 A. Thesis Research and Planning. 3 hours.

This course is the first part of the six-hour thesis process in partial fulfillment for the Master of Education Degree. In this course, students will review significant aspects of research, learn the thesis process, select their thesis project, research the literature, and develop the thesis proposal. The student must hold "regular admission" status.

EDU 522 B. Thesis Preparation and Defense. 3 hours.

This course is the second part of the six-hour thesis process in which students will work independently to follow their planned thesis proposal, periodically meeting with their assigned mentor and defending the final product before a thesis committee. A $38 thesis fee is charged. Prerequisite: EDU 522A Thesis Research and Planning.

EDU 523 A, B. Internship (Curriculum and Instruction). 3, 6 hours.

The internship provides focused supervised opportunities to extend knowledge and professional competencies in curriculum and instruction. Each internship is designed individually and must be approved by the Director of Graduate Studies in Education. Approximately 40 hours of preparation, work, and evaluation, exclusive of travel will be required for each hour of credit. A fee of $160 is charged.

EDU 524. Enhanced Student Teaching. 12 hours.

The enhanced field experience consists of an entire semester with the student working as a student teacher in two sequentially assigned classroom settings. During this time the student is expected to demonstrate skills in teaching appropriate to the age of the children and the subject for which licensure is being sought according to specific areas of knowledge and skills. Students will also meet in a weekly, on-campus seminar to discuss experiences and other areas of interest and/or need. A student teaching fee of $165 is charged.

EDU 525. Learning Theory and Principles. 3 hours.

This course will cover theories of learning and ways of implementing this body of knowledge in a school-wide counseling program and in assisting teachers in their professional responsibilities with students.

EDU 526. Inclusive Teaching. 3 hours.

This course is intended to help students demonstrate knowledge, skills, and dispositions related to working with children with exceptionalities. The focus will be on best teaching practices in general and special education and the understanding of students with widely different academic, social-emotional, and sensory-physical abilities.

EDU 530. Professional Reflective Seminar. 1 hour.

A course bringing closure to the initial licensure program in which the student will present a portfolio, complete content competencies required for licensure, prepare for and pass Praxis, and take any remedial steps required to obtain a teaching/counseling licensure. The student will also develop and implement a professional development plan for the following year.

EDU 532. Theories of Child Counseling and Consulting. 3 hours. Su., Sp.

This course provides a comprehensive study in person-centered, behavioral and related theories in counseling children. Experiences include exercises in counseling, consulting, and coordinating with a focus on elementary and middle school students.

EDU 533. Career Development, Counseling, and Consulting in Schools. 3 hours.

Field experiences and/or projects and activities will be included in this course. Prerequisite: EDU 601 and admission to Administration Program.

EDU 611. School Business Management. 3 hours.

This course requires that students identify a specific school district and verbalize the budgetary responsibilities of each of its administrative components; do an operating cost analysis of a specific program after having been given a specific program in a school and a traditional line-item budget; compare the procedures and capabilities of a Planning Programming Budgeting System of budgeting model with a traditional budgeting model; develop an appropriate budgeting model and identify the steps necessary for its implementation for an identified school district; conceptualize the business management competencies necessary to function as a business administrator or unit head in a specified school. National and state finance issues and trends will be addressed. Field experiences, projects, and activities will be included. Prerequisite: EDU 601 and admission to administration program.

EDU 612. School and Community Relations. 3 hours.

A study of processes, systems and instruments for obtaining and disseminating information pertaining to school and community; the investigation and analysis of procedures for utilizing human and physical community resources for improving education. This course will include field activities, group projects, and individual activities. Prerequisite: EDU 601 and admission to administration program.

EDU 613. Instructional leadership. 3 hours.

This course will focus on the role and responsibilities of the school leader in effectively moving his/her school toward improved student achievement. Instructional techniques and strategies, personal and professional development, teacher-process-program evaluation, success for all students, and motivational morale will be covered. Other topics would include dealing with change, collecting and using data, curriculum, scheduling, and facilities and services. Field experiences, group and individual activities, and assigned projects will be included during this course.

EDU 615. Service Learning: Principles and Practice. 3 hours. Sp.

A practical experience designed to prepare educators to develop and lead service learning experiences through experiential education, theories of service and service learning, strategies for facilitation and effective teaching practice, and critical reflection. The course requires each student to present a paper in a FHU Saturday "Service Learning" Conference.

EDU 618. Grant Writing. 3 hours.

This course will study the requisite knowledge and skills necessary to develop programs dependent on competitive funding. It will include an overview of proposal development strategies; skills in determining, critiquing, and assessing criteria of successful proposals; a systems approach in project development; and skills in identifying and critiquing viable sources of funding for developed projects.

EDU 620. Administrative Issues in Special Education. 3 hours.

This course will explore various legal and administrative issues associated with special education programs in the public school setting. It is intended primarily for those working as school administrators in the Education Specialist Degree Program.

EDU 621. Advanced Educational Leadership. 3 hours.

School leaders are entrusted with overseeing the education of the present and the next generation. They are held by the public and by their staff and faculty to high professional standards and expectations. This course is designed for prospective school administrators and supervisors to expand and enhance their knowledge and skills in leadership areas.

EDU 622A. Thesis Research and Planning. 3 hours.

Prerequisite: Students enrolled in the Ed.S. program are required to complete a minimum of 18 hours before registering for this course.

This course is the first part of the six-hour thesis process. In this course, students will review significant aspects of research, learn the thesis process, select their thesis project, research the literature, and develop the thesis proposal.

EDU 622B. Thesis Preparation and Defense. 3 hours.

Prerequisite: Students enrolled in the Ed.S. program are required to complete a minimum of 18 hours before registering for this course.

This course is the second part of the six-hour thesis process in which students will work independently to follow their planned thesis proposal, periodically meeting with their assigned mentor, and defending the final product before a thesis committee. Prerequisite: EDU 622A Thesis Research and Planning.

EDU 630. Professionalism and Ethics. 3 hours.

School leaders are expected to model and promote professional and ethical standards in their actions and in their decisions. This course will research national, state, local, and organizational leadership expectations of professional behavior. Students will study, discuss, and practice desired behaviors through written in-basket activities and role play.

EDU 632. Research in Leadership. 3 hours.

The information on types and styles of leadership and on prevalent uses and current changes in leadership needs and expectations is growing rapidly. This course will focus on research through various media sources and on practical application of the results of this study into developing research-driven leadership strategies.

EDU 635. Advanced Legal Issues in School Administration. 3 hours.

This course will concentrate on legal issues that were not covered in EDU 513 and on issues that have recently been changed by the courts in subjects covered in other law courses. This course is designed for local building administrators as well as the central office administrators.

EDU 636. School Improvement. 3 hours.

A study and evaluation of the modern practices and strategies used for school improvement with the emphasis on enhancing K-12 school learning.

EDU 638. Instructional Design and Improvement. 3 hours.

An overview of learning centered on leadership, addressing the improvement of instruction through research findings. Emphasis is also placed on the demonstration of instructional improvement in various settings and the development of leaders who can facilitate the process of educational change.

University Advancement

Mission of University Advancement

To establish and maintain relationships that make possible learning integrated with faith, facilities that match our dreams, and a solid financial foundation for Freed-Hardeman University.

VISION OF UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT

FHU Advancement will become the premier advancement program among Church of Christ-related institutions.

Division of Responsibility

OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT

Dave Clouse, Vice President

Tonya Hyde, Administrative Assistant to VP of University Advancement

Led by the vice president for university advancement Dave Clouse, the Office of University Advancement is made up of four areas. Each department within University Advancement shares the same mission and vision. Each department works to establish and maintain relationships, making possible learning integrated with faith, facilities that match our dreams, and a solid financial foundation for Freed-Hardeman University. Each department will become the premier program among Church of Christ related institutions.

OFFICE OF ALUMNI RELATIONS

Betsy Hesselrode, Director

The Office of Alumni Relations exists to establish and maintain relationships with current students, former students and friends of the university. The staff seeks to inform these audiences of university opportunities and to facilitate their involvement and investment in the university. To accomplish these goals, the staff works with the Student-Alumni Association, the Alumni Association, student workers and several chapters away from campus. A number of outreach tools are coordinated through the office, including the alumni Web site, travel program, on-campus events, off-campus events and publications.

OFFICE OF DEVELOPMENT

Burton Williams, Associate Vice president for University Advancement

The Office of Development exists to establish and maintain relationships with all constituencies of the university in an effort to secure funding for university programs. The Office of Development seeks to acquire funds for the annual fund (yearly operating expenses), capital fund (special projects and buildings), and endowment fund (long-term investments in the future of the university). The Office of Development attempts to uncover new sources of gifts and inspire current donors to increased levels of participation so as to help provide every student an undergraduate or graduate education and to maintain the university on a solid financial foundation. The Office of Development coordinates the direct mail program, the Phone-a-thon, solicitation of individuals, businesses and churches, and fundraising for the annual Advisory Board Benefit Dinner.

CENTER FOR ESTATE AND GIFT PLANNING

Burton Williams, Associate Vice President for University Advancement

The Center for Estate and Gift Planning exists to establish and maintain relationships with all constituencies of the university in an effort to secure the financial future and permanency of Freed-Hardeman University. The Center is responsible for wills, estates, insurance programs, annuities, trusts, split-interest gifts, and other means of planned giving. The Center provides educational services in financial and estate planning through seminars, mailings and personal sessions. The Center produces comprehensive financial and estate plans for alumni and friends of FHU. The Center also manages the endowed scholarship program, including sponsor stewardship, student recipient coordination and accounting of all endowed funds.

OFFICE OF CAPITAL PROJECTS

David Newberry, Assistant Vice President for Development

The Office of Capital Projects exists to provide the facilities needed to match our dream of being a premier Christian university making a positive global impact. This office completely coordinates all capital fundraising projects for University Advancement. This includes conducting studies necessary to determine feasibility, planning and organizing all capital fundraising projects, and working with the President, Vice Presidents, Directors, Territory Managers, and others that are necessary to accomplish the goals of capital fundraising projects.

Areas of Financial Support

ANNUAL FUND

The annual fund is the backbone of the yearly operations, providing critical support to all university departments. The annual fund helps bridge the gap between what students and their families pay for an FHU education and the actual cost of operating the university. Student tuition and fees pay only about 70 percent of the cost of an FHU education. Individuals, businesses and churches support the annual fund through their contributions to the:

- Bible Teaching Program
- Annual Bible Lectureship
- General Student Scholarship Fund
- Departmental Operations
- Annual Awarded Scholarship Fund

Some of the programs through which dollars are secured for the annual fund are direct mail, the Phone-a-thon, the Annual Advisory Board Benefit Dinner and direct solicitation.

CAPITAL FUND

Donations to the capital fund are generally used to purchase items that have a usable life of at least two years, that cost more than $5,000 and that are not currently included in the annual operating budget. The capital fund also seeks funds to construct new buildings and renovate existing ones. The Capital Fund plays a vital role in helping maintain and improve the appearance and usefulness of campus facilities.

ENDOWMENT FUND

The endowment fund is the foundation of financial strength for the university. It serves as the university's "savings account" and is essential to the financial health and future of the university. Currently the endowment fund stands at more than $38 million. A committee of the board of trustees oversees the investment of these funds.

There are three main divisions of the endowment fund:

Permanent Endowment. The university has a permanent endowment provided by gifts, grants and bequests. Interest and dividends from the assets in the endowment may be reinvested or used to cover a portion of the operating costs of the university. Wills, estates, insurance programs, annuities, trusts and other means of deferred giving are offered. A certified public accountant, a certified financial planner, an attorney and the entire development staff stand ready to assist with individual's financial and estate planning.

Endowments for Programs. Endowment funds have been established to benefit certain departments, programs or schools. The income from these funds is used solely for the work of the particular department, program or school for which it is designated.

Scholarship Endowments. Through the years, friends of the university have provided scholarship endowments in the names of friends or loved ones. Endowed scholarships are funds exceeding $30,000 with the principle invested and the interest used for scholarships. Additions to the principle can be made at any time. Currently, two-thirds of Freed-Hardeman University's endowment is composed of these scholarships. That means that Freed-Hardeman University's scholarship program is a vital part of ensuring that students are given a chance to receive a Christian education. As our program continues to grow, the number of scholarships we are able to award grows, and the number of students who can receive their education increases.

Support Groups

ADVISORY BOARD

Members of the Advisory Board are appointed by the board of trustees upon the recommendation of the university president. Each member is encouraged to contribute financially to the university, assist in the recruitment of prospective students and donors, and to help promote the annual Benefit Dinner. The Advisory Board Benefit Dinner is hosted annually on the first Friday night of December. It is the single largest fund-raiser of the university.

ASSOCIATES

The Freed-Hardeman University Associates, established in 1963, have organized more than 40 chapters of women in various communities to promote the work of the university. They have sponsored several major projects over the years, one of which was the Associates Science Center, dedicated in April 1971. In addition to significant gifts to assist the university, the Associates award $65,000 annually in scholarships to FHU students. The Associates also have an endowed scholarship that awards each year to two students.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Comprised of alumni from various years, the Alumni Association Executive Committee meets quarterly. The committee's projects include recognizing alumni association award recipients, coordinating regional events and hosting on-campus events such as Uproar! and homecoming. In addition to cultivating alumni loyalty, the committee represents the association by providing a vehicle through which alumni can provide input to FHU administration.

ENDOWMENT SOCIETY

The concept of the Endowment Society of Freed-Hardeman University was the brainchild of Dr. E. Claude Gardner, former president of FHU, as early as 1972. The society was officially established June 23, 1976, to assist FHU benefactors in creating a gifting plan to satisfy the donors' need to help charitable causes, maximize tax benefits, increase income, and provide for loved ones. Membership may be accomplished through several planning vehicles, including gift annuities, trusts, life estates, or naming FHU as a beneficiary in a will or life insurance policy. Membership is also available to donors who establish endowed scholarships with gifts of $30,000 or more for students attending FHU. Endowment Society members receive an original, autographed print of the Old Main Bell Tower by Sandy Stetler Sims ('86), an invitation to the annual Endowment Society reception held during the FHU Bible Lectureships, the Endowment Society Newsletter, and recognition in the alumni magazine. The committee is associated with the Office of Alumni Relations.

ESTATE PLANNING COUNCIL

The Estate Planning Council is a distinct group of allied professionals practicing in the fields of accounting, financial planning, insurance, investment management, and law. The purpose of the Estate Planning Council is to strengthen the mission of Freed-Hardeman University by heightening the awareness of the university through the members' example of Christian leadership in their communities and through their work in the financial and estate planning arena.

THE LEGACIES OF FREED-HARDEMAN UNIVERSITY

The Legacies of Freed-Hardeman University is a program to recognize donors who give in an outstanding way, to show gratitude for their interest in helping accomplish the university's mission and to encourage lifelong learning. The program includes four societies, which recognize four levels of giving. The Hardeman Society includes all who give any amount to the university's annual fund. The Maroon and Gold Club includes all who give at least $120 per year. The Bell Tower Society includes all who give $600 or more each year. The President's Circle includes all who donate $1,200 or more during the year. Donors in each of these groups are recognized annually in Seasons magazine and other appropriate publications.
