

Undergraduate Final Exam Schedule Fall 2024 December 9-12, 2024

The time of the course final examination is determined by the time period in which the course begins on the schedule of classes. Final examinations must be given at the time assigned by the Office of Academics. All courses, except for physical education activity courses and other one-hour activity courses, must meet during final exams. The vice president for academics must approve variations from the final exam schedule.

If a student has four or more exams in one day, he/she may arrange one of these for a later time by consulting with the faculty. Faculty must make alternative arrangements for students taking four or more exams in one day. For other student conflicts or extenuating circumstances, faculty may make alternative arrangements for that student; however, faculty are not required to make alternative arrangements.

Physical Education activity courses will have final examinations on the day of their last class meeting. One-hour activity courses are not scheduled during the examination period. Finals for evening classes are given at their regular night and time during final exam week.
