The M.Ed. degree in Instructional Leadership program, with a concentration in Instructional Leadership Licensure (ILL-B), is a forty (40) hour program consisting of a nineteen (19) hour core in Curriculum and Instruction and twenty-one (21) hours of upper-level Instructional Leadership courses. The Administration and Supervision (Licensure) concentration provides a means for practicing educators to earn a Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree with a major in Instructional Leadership and Licensure as an administrator based on the Tennessee Instructional Leadership Standards (TILS). Standard knowledge, skills, and dispositions are categorized into the required courses, including reflection, research, theories of leadership, applications and processes, professionalism, changes and improvements, and instructional leadership. The ILL program requires three (3) years of successful teaching experience before acceptance. Those who currently hold a master's degree in education have the option of pursuing the licensure-only track. These will be evaluated on an individualized basis. Ed.S. in Instructional Leadership: Administration and Supervision (Licensure) - The purpose of the Ed.S. degree with a concentration in Instructional Leadership Licensure (ILL) is to prepare school leaders of integrity to meet the instructional and administrative demands of child-centered schooling in a pluralistic society. The Ed.S. degree with a concentration in Instructional Leadership Licensure is a thirty-nine (39) hour program designed for educators with an earned master's degree in an education-related area. Prospective Ed.S. students must have three (3) years of P-12 teaching experience and seek Tennessee Instructional Leadership Licensure. Most recently, FHU's Instructional Leadership Licensure programs earned a grade of "A" from the Tennessee Department of Education.
