Notice of Nondiscriminatory Policy

Freed-Hardeman University admits qualified students of any race, color national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. Freed-Hardeman does not discriminate on the basis of handicap, race, color, national or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Except for certain exemptions and limitations provided for by law, the university, in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, does not discriminate on the basis of sex in admissions, in employment, or in the education programs and activities which it operates with federal aid. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX may be referred to Dr. C. J. Vires, Freed-Hardeman University, or to the Director of the Civil Rights of the Department of Education, Washington, DC 20202.

The applicant (___ waives, ___ does not waive) the right to see this evaluation form. Signature _____

For your information as you prepare this recommendation:

A limited number of positions in the Freed-Hardeman University Honors College freshman class are open to students with outstanding academic records. Students are expected to work at a level of excellence in special Honors course sections and are also given special opportunities to pursue individualized research in their other university courses. In Honors, attention is given to oral and written communication and to the ability to think and respond quickly under pressure. Acceptance into this program is highly competitive and enrollment is by invitation only. We want to know whatever you know about the applicant that might be relevant to admission into such a program.

Please send this evaluations form directly to Dr. Jenny Johnson, Dean of the Honors College, Freed-Hardeman University, 158 E. Main Street, Henderson, TN 38340.
