88TH ANNUAL BIBLE LECTURESHIP

TRIUMPH OF THE LAMB: THE BATTLE WITH EVIL IN REVELATION

From the majestic throne room to the final triumph of the Lamb, God's unwavering faithfulness prevails. Join us in studying a Christ-centered narrative of deliverance, reminding us to stand firm in the face of evil, anchored by the victory of divine grace.

LECTURESHIP BOOKS

We know good study books for personal or congregational Bible study can be difficult to come by, so we are excited about the production of two Bible study books in 2024. The first book will feature chapters written by 14 men for a general audience, while the other book titled "Triumph of the Lamb: How the Unseen God Can Be Seen in My Life" was written by 13 women and is especially for women's Bible study. The books will be available in print, Kindle and PDF formats. The books may be purchased for $15 each through Amazon or at Lectureship. In addition, recordings of all the 2024 lectures will be available through the registration process and in person during the lectures.

Authors include: Lisa Beene, Doug Burleson, Rita Cochrane, Andy Connelly, Renee Croom, Lacy Crowell, Lee Hagewood, Emily Hatfield, Lovell Hays, Andrew Kingsley, Drew Kizer, G. Clay Leonard, Cayron G. Mann, Chris McCurley, Matthew Morine, Jania Otey, Jovan Payes, Andrew Phillips, Kathy Pollard, Phil Sanders, Laurel Sewell and family, Meagan Spencer, David Sproule, Barry Throneberry, Peggy Tidwell, Sara Whitworth and Rebecca G. Young.

KIDS LECTURESHIP

The Kids Lectureship will provide childcare Monday through Thursday, 8:15-11 a.m. and 12:15-4:30 p.m. in the Henderson Church of Christ Activity Center. This program will be staffed by members of the FHU College of Education and Behavioral Sciences and the Learning Resource Library. There will be individual and group play, toys, books, games and study opportunities for toddlers through fifth graders. A nursery is available for young children. Each day at 10:30 a.m., there will be a Bible lesson highlighting stories that align with the overall lectureship theme. At 1:30 p.m., there will be a story time with crafts and activities. Kids Lectureship provides snacks, crafts and other activities for your children. These are provided at no cost, but donations are welcome. Those interested in having children attend may register online at fhu.edu/lectureship/register. For additional information, contact Gloria Sneed at 731-989-6074 or gsneed@fhu.edu.

APPRECIATION DINNER TO HONOR FHU ASSOCIATES

The 2024 Annual Bible Lectureship is dedicated to the selfless group of women, past and present, known as the Freed-Hardeman University Associates.

On September 5, 1963, ladies whose husbands were members of the Freed-Hardeman College Board of Trustees and Advisory Board met for the purpose of planning a women's organization to help support and encourage Christian education at Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tennessee. Mrs. Neal Penny of Milan, Tennessee, presided at the meeting and was elected the first president. In late 1963 and early 1964, chapters of the Freed-Hardeman Associates were organized in west Tennessee, Kentucky, north Alabama and Mississippi. Over the last 60 years the FHU Associates has been made up of career women, stay-at-home moms, retirees, young alumni and other outstanding women who have put others before themselves.

In his 2020 book titled "By the Grace of God: The Story of Freed-Hardeman University," Dr. Greg Massey shared that the Associates, in their first few years, raised funds for a new bus that transported the FHC Chorus, a speech lab, a campus radio station and funds to build new buildings including Loyd Auditorium and the FHU Associates Science Center (pages 215-16). Since its beginning the Associates have raised almost $4.5 million for student scholarships, while also being a constant source of help for the FHU Lectureship. Whether through their F.H. Brew coffee, the Lectureship Kitchen, rummage sales, tea parties, cookbooks, hospitality at the Hardeman House, ladies' Bible study books, Sunshine Boxes or many other thoughtful means of outreach, the FHU Associates have been a blessing to many. The FHU Associates believe in the power of a Christian education at FHU and have given their time, talents and financial resources to that end.

Past presidents of National Associates include Margaret Penny, Rebecca Woods, Pearl Griffin, Louise Dixon, Hazel Bradfield, Sylvia Harris, Irene Taylor, Lynda Ruff, Delphia Thornton, Martha Alls, Rubye Dodd, Corine Taylor, Fran Davis, Jo Martin, Lora Edwards, Laurel Sewell, Genia Southall, Ann Watson, Diane Smith, Lana Pirtle, Debbie McLaughlin, Sylvia Scott, Jeanita Estes, Carole Childers and Shirley Eaton.

The Appreciation Dinner will be Tuesday, February 6, in Brewer Sports Center's Auxiliary Gym. Tickets are $20 and may be purchased in advance by calling Christy Hardin (731-989-6956) in the FHU Business Office or purchasing online at fhu.edu/lectureship.

DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING

Lectureship guests who are hearing impaired may request signing services when they register. A designated area at the front of Loyd Auditorium during keynote sessions and Open Forum is reserved for those who desire signing services. Thanks to Ryan Smallwood, coordinator of the National Deaf Workshop, for helping to coordinate this service. For more information, individuals may contact him at rahmsmallwood@gmail.com.

EXHIBITS

Exhibits will be located in the Main Arena of Brewer Sports Center. Exhibits will close at 7 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and 1 p.m. on Thursday.

OPEN FORUM 2024

Open Forum is a time to study the Bible and promote critical thinking about biblical and contemporary issues of interest to God's people. The 2024 Forum will be moderated by Dr. Doug Burleson each day and will feature Dr. Bruce McLarty and Dr. Justin Rogers as panelists with an additional guest panelist each day. Questions can be pre-submitted through the Freed-Hardeman Lectureship website (fhu.edu/lectureship), emailed to openforum@fhu.edu, tweeted using #fhuopenforum, handed to a panelist or submitted through the Facebook group, FHU Open Forum 2024.

ESPECIALLY FOR STUDENTS

The Lectureship has always sought to be relevant to the students at FHU. In many ways students are involved in preparing for and hosting the lectures by volunteering in a number of capacities. Students are required to attend daily chapel services at 10:30 a.m., which includes a student speaker on Tuesday. Students assist with the Teen Lectureship and also help to orchestrate the Kids Lectureship. All Bible classes are dismissed during Lectureship week and teachers in other disciplines of the university have the option of dismissing their classes as well. In addition, the "Late Nite Lectures" at 10:30 p.m. in Chapel Hall, hosted by the University Counseling Center, will offer students opportunities on three evenings during the lectures. We appreciate all of the students who help to accommodate lectureship guests and help to make the Annual Bible Lectureship a special event every year.

ASSOCIATES' KITCHEN AND F.H. BREW

The Associates' Lectureship Kitchen will be open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Brewer Sports Center Auxillary Gym. Guests will be offered delicious, hot meals and sandwiches each day, Monday–Thursday.

The Associates' Coffee Shop — Beloved F.H. Brew — will be open in Brewer Sports Center Lobby from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Attendees can take a break and enjoy a warm welcome, along with gourmet coffee, tea, hot chocolate, hot caramel apple cider, breakfast pastries and savories, desserts and snacks. The coffee shop also features FHU's favorite coffees: Bell Tower Brew, The Lion Sleeps Tonight and Three Swings and a Ring.

All proceeds will benefit FHU students through scholarships.

WHAT'S NEW AT THE 2024 LECTURESHIP?

There are some features of the Lectureship that are favorites from year-to-year, but this year there are several new aspects of the program that we hope will be among your favorite features as well.

1. A Balanced Focus on the Difficult Text of Revelation — It seems that many students of the Bible either ignore the Book of Revelation or build too much on an anachronistic interpretation of the book. The Lectureship has been designed to focus on the key themes and passages of the Book of Revelation, while not getting “lost in the weeds.” In addition to the chapel sessions and keynotes, other sessions specifically connected to Revelation include a survey of the whole book (Monday, 8:30-10:20 a.m., Loyd) and fourteen other series throughout the week that will address issues related to the interpretation and application of this God-inspired book.
2. Healthy Families and Individuals — On Wednesday, February 7, the FHU Lectureship will feature a “Sexual Integrity Workshop” led by Jonathan Harrison which will help attendees to think about human sexuality in a healthy way. For adults who choose to attend, these much-needed sessions will focus on how to handle temptation in a healthy way, while also addressing many of the challenges that Christians face today with addiction, counseling, culture and education. In addition to this, two series on the family in the Butts Family Conference room at 1:30 and 2:30 each afternoon, coordinated by Dr. Ryan Fraser, will encourage all who attend to think more intentionally about healthy families.
3. FHU Campus Involvement — We are delighted that many at FHU outside of the College of Biblical Studies actively participate in the Annual Bible Lectureship. In addition to the FHU College of Education again hosting our Kids’ Lectureship in the Henderson church of Christ Activity Center, the FHU College of Business will be hosting a series on “Best Business Practices for Congregations” (Mon-Thurs., 2:30 p.m., Aud D). Also, the FHU University Counseling Center under the direction of Nathan Judd will be hosting our Late Nite Lectures in Chapel Hall at 10:30 p.m.
4. Relevant Ministry Emphasis — Christians and congregations are constantly being challenged with how to best serve others and the 2024 Lectureship has been designed with some of those challenges in mind. Jason Helton and Blaine McKinney will lead a three-day series titled “Ministry & Media: How to Minister Online” (Tues.-Thurs. 8:30 a.m., Aud D); another series will address how congregations can thrive when they are small, in urban settings or outside the Bible belt (Tues.-Thurs. 9:30 a.m., Aud D), while Marshall Danby and Timothy Hall will lead a series on the effective prison ministry work being operated by the Central church of Christ in Johnson City, Tennessee (Tues.-Thurs., 9:30 a.m., Butts Family Conference room).

We have prayerfully prepared every session and series in the 2024 Lectureship with hopes that God will be glorified and attendees will grow in faith. We hope you will take advantage of each of these opportunities.

7:30 p.m.		 The Church's Struggle with Evil—The Church that Gives Everything It's Got (Rev. 2:8-11; 3:7-13) The modern church stands at a crucial juncture, confronting external societal change and internal divisions that challenge its relevance and moral stances. This era demands a dynamic, engaged church, not merely a place for passive worship. Key lessons from the Book of Revelation, particularly the experiences of the churches in Smyrna and Philadelphia, offer valuable insights. Smyrna, enduring severe trials, exemplified spiritual resilience and transformative suffering. Philadelphia, with limited resources but steadfast faith, showcased the power of divine opportunities and reliance on God. These examples underscore the necessity for today's church to embody resilience, faithfulness and proactive engagement. It's a call for the church to evaluate its role, moving beyond weekly rituals to truly live out faith in action. These ancient churches demonstrate that, even in adversity, a church can thrive through commitment to Christ and perseverance, serving as a transformative community with a unifying purpose.	Chad Brinker	Loyd Auditorium	28

JOHNSON TO RECEIVE HONORARY DOCTORATE

Roy Johnson has been preaching for 50 years, including 18 years at Campbell Springs church of Christ in Ashland, Alabama. He has been an elder at three congregations and is currently serving as an elder for the Sylacauga church of Christ in Sylacauga, Alabama. Johnson was a top-level executive for the Boy Scouts of America for 23 years before taking on the role as executive director of Lads to Leaders in January 2003. His last position with the BSA was as scout executive in Butler, Pennsylvania, near Pittsburgh for three years.

Johnson was one of the first young lads trained by Dr. Zorn in Lads to Leaders in the summer of 1968. As one of the first Lads scholarship recipients at Alabama Christian College, Johnson traveled with Dr. Zorn to 28 states. As the current executive director of L2L, Johnson speaks at over one hundred congregations per year. He is a member of the Faulkner University Board of Trustees, Freed-Hardeman President's Council and numerous other boards.

Johnson comes from a long line of church leaders. His great-grandfather was one of the founding members of the Hollins church of Christ in the early 1900s. Johnson's grandfather was an elder and had the distinction of having every child, grandchild and great-grandchild become a member of the church. Johnson's father served as an elder, his brother is currently an elder and his sister (now deceased) was married to a preacher. Johnson is married to the former Brenda Hurt and they have three grown sons, Bryan (Adrienne Ray), Ben (Alison Walsh) and Brad (Madison Campbell). The Johnsons have five granddaughters and four grandsons.

On Wednesday, February 7, before the evening keynote address during the 2024 FHU Lectureship, Freed-Hardeman University will present Roy Johnson an honorary doctorate for his outstanding citizenship and service to the church.

The sermon emphasizes the importance of reliance on God, drawing inspiration from the concept of the Sabbath rest and the Year of Jubilee in the Bible. The church in Laodicea had become lukewarm, a symptom of their self-reliance and complacency. The sermon challenges believers to examine their own lives and reliance on God, reminding them that true provision comes from Him. It encourages stepping out in faith and relying on God's strength, rather than seeking comfort or success on our own.	TJ Kirk	Loyd Auditorium	129
