

Christian School Agreement for Graduate Programs in the College of Education

To promote graduate education among teachers in private Christian schools, Freed-Hardeman University (FHU) will grant a tuition discount to those working at a school with membership in the National Christian School Association (NCSA).

To be eligible for this scholarship, applicants must:

- Meet all admissions requirements for FHU's graduate programs in education
- Be currently employed full-time by a Christian school with membership in NCSA
- Provide a verification of employment form by the drop/add date each semester of enrollment
- Maintain good academic standing in FHU's graduate program

This discount is available until the program is completed and is voided if the student ceases to be employed at an NCSA institution.

Eligible programs can be viewed at www.fhu.edu/gradeducation

For more information, contact the Office of Graduate Admissions at (731) 989-6101 or gradstudies@fhu.edu.
