FREED-HARDEMAN IN MIDST OF BASKETBALL SEASON

COLLEGE PRESS IS ORGANIZED

The first meeting of the Tennessee College Press Association was held in Cookeville, Tennessee, January 10-12. This organization was sponsored by the Tech Oracle, T. P. I. publication, whose sponsor, Prof. Thomas L. Parsons, made several years ago a survey of college newspapers in Tennessee. The association is expected to benefit each college paper in Tennessee.

Officers elected for the first year are: James M. Clayton, Editor, Tech Oracle, President; Stiles B. Jones, Editor, Sewanee Purple, Vice President; and W. T. Bales, Jr., Editor, University Echo, Secretary and Treasurer.

New Science

Building Under Construction

The school has recently begun work on its new science building which will be located between the dining hall and the football field. The work is being done by school boys who are working for part of their expenses, and under the supervision of Mr. Endsley, our science teacher. They began work on the basement last week, and considerable progress has been made, the basement being almost complete. According to Mr. Endsley the building will be completed by the middle of next quarter, and the science department will move in immediately. The basement will be used for Chemistry; the first floor for Biology, and the second for Physics. A frame structure is being erected now, and later it will be veneered.

We are all anxious for the completion of this new school unit, for it will enable the school to offer a more complete course in Science.

An old lady got on the elevator in a big department store in Washington the other day. As soon as the operator had closed the door she became talkative. "Don't you ever become ill going up and down in this elevator all day?" she asked. "Yes'm" the operator replied. "Is it the motion of going down?" "No'm," "The motion of going up?" "No'm," "The stopping?" "No'm," "Standing on your feet so much?" "No'm," "Closing that heavy door?" "No'm," "Opening it?" "No'm," "What is it then?" "Answering questions."

F. H. C. DEFEATS BETHEL

Last week both girls' and boys' basketball teams of Freed-Hardeman were guests of the Bethel College teams at McKenzie. The girls played excellent ball and downed the Bethel sextet by the score of 46-14.

The boys played well and ran over Bethel by the score of 84-39. Mayfield led the visitors with twenty-four points. Hudson was close behind with 14 points.

CHAPEL VISITORS

On Wednesday, January 16, Bro. A. S. Landis of the Highland Ave. Church of Christ in Jackson, made a talk to the student body expressing his interest in Freed-Hardeman College and what it stands for. He declared that he always encouraged girls and boys to attend this school.

Bro. E. H. Smith of Murray, Ky. was also present and recommended the fine work the school is doing.

Orchestra Entertains in Chapel

On Sat. Jan. 19, the orchestra entertained in chapel with a program. They rendered "Happy Hours," "Mademoiselle," "Champagne Waltz," "Trumpeteers March" and "Lilac Time." The latter was dedicated to the basketball boys and girls who had played so well in the Lambuth game the night before.

This is part of a program which is to be presented over radio soon.

Mr. Folwell—"If a man steals, no matter what he will live to regret it."

Mrs. Folwell (coily)--You used to steal kisses from me before we were married."

Mr. Folwell--"Well, you heard what I said."

CONFERENCE GAMES ON SCHEDULE

Coach Dick Stewart's incomplete schedule shows that there are nine more conference games to be played. Five of these are to be played at home and four away from here. The schedule remains as follows.

Jan. 30 West Tenn. Teachers There (boys only)
Jan. 31 Bethel Here
Feb. 4 Austin Peay There
Feb. 11 Lambuth Here
Feb. 16 Austin Peay Here
Feb. 20 West Tenn. Teachers There (girls only)
Feb. 22 West Tenn. Teachers Here
Feb. 23 David Lipscomb There (boys only)

Society News

Maverick

The Maverick "ship," manned by cheerful fellows is steaming away down the river. Hardy Walker is its captain now. Every Monday night they put into port and sing songs and say speeches. Every three weeks they have an extra stop on Thursday. On the 10th they lied and burst balloons, but they didn't mean any harm. At the last port, the citizens were having a ball game. So the whole crew attended it. The captain entered the natives' games. They even cheered his playing. At the next port the citizens have no entertainment. So the Maverick are giving one and inviting everybody to come (females excluded). The fact is they are making recruits. Come! See the world! Ship ahoy!

Les Camarades

The Les Camarades Society resumed work after Christmas and has been having some very interesting programs.

On Thursday, Jan. 17, the society had charge of the chapel program which consisted of piano selections by Mrs. C. M. Foy; a pantomime playlet, "The Romance of Lily" and selections by the girls' quartette.

We are glad to have several new members.

Calliopeans

The Calliopean society recently elected the following new officers: Pres. Martha L. Pearson; Vice-president, Mava Ann Dobson; Secretary, Ardin Ward.

We are very sorry that our president, Martha Layton Pearson, has had to quit school on account of illness.

New members are always welcome.

KOREAN VISITS ITS SCHOOL

A recent visitor to the school was Bro. S. K. Dong, a Korean who is in the United States studying to be a missionary to his own people. He established the first Church of Christ in Korea, and has started three others also. He entertained the student body two different mornings during the chapel period. Dressed in the native Korean costume, he told something about the habits and customs of his country. He sang in Korean. Bro. Dong is a very entertaining talker and is well educated. He was heard to say that he had studied 'Hebrew and Greek.' He said that he would be in Korea next winter and would answer any letters written him. Anyone desiring a letter from the other side of the globe next year may write S. K. Dong, Sanki Hoksei, Korea.

Nurse Serves

College Students

Miss Madeline McLain registered nurse, of Stantonville, Tennessee, is attending F. H. C. and giving service to the students. Miss McLain is a graduate nurse, having received her training in the Baptist Memorial Hospital at Memphis, Tennessee. She has her office in Room 105 on the first floor of the girl's dormitory. Any student in need of medical treatment may receive it without cost. Bro. Hardeman suggested that at the first indication of cold a student should go to Miss McLain for treatment, and thus prevent the spread of colds among the student body. Miss McLain is a valuable asset to the school.

F. H. C. Wins

From Lipscomb

The Freed-Hardeman boys' team scored an easy victory over the David Lipscomb five in the local gym on Jan. 17. The local boys easily ran up a score of 36 to the visitors 14. The Lions will journey to Nashville to meet Lipscomb on Feb. 23.

While the varsity was preparing to meet Lipscomb the B team encountered the Union Freshmen and won by a score of 29-16.

This was a very interesting game for the fans, for many new players saw action for Freed-Hardeman.

Lineups:
Hayes, 6 F. Parsons
Weeks, 3 F. Donaldson
Mayfield, 17 C. Wright 6
Clayton 6 G. Edwards 1
Farrell 2 G. Parham 6

LIONS DEFEAT LAMBUTH

On Friday night, January 18, the Freed-Hardeman basketball teams met the Lambuth teams at Jackson. These games turned out to be the most interesting of the season. The players were encouraged by the ardent support given by the student body. Four buses were loaded with students and many cars of local students went along to cheer the teams to victory. Freed-Hardeman girls played a good game and fought hard, but for some reason their scoring attack, which has characterized them in the past, could not get underway, and the Lambuth team won by the decisive score of 35-15.

The Boys' game was a thriller, and with quite a different story. In the first part of the game, Lambuth took the lead by several points, but by the half the Lions were on their feet and the score stood 16-14 in favor of Lambuth. During the last half the Lions came back with an offensive attack led by Farrell and Clayton, and outscored the Eagles to the tune of 37-30. The lions were greatly handicapped by the loss of Willie Hudson, star guard, who was in bed with the flu. Nevertheless, Snodgrass played a bang-up game in his place and the boys came out victorious.

Since the depression has covered our Country, it is common to see men pacing the streets looking for work. And we hear this expression, "There is no job to be had" But did you ever stop to think that it might be the man's own fault that he cannot get a job, instead of the fact that jobs are scarce? Did you ever notice the type of people that are out of work? Did you ever see a man with a good character absolutely dependable, and yet out of work and starving?.....No.....Why?

"Character," as Edward Ward Carmack once said, "is the making of the man." "Even the greatest and most disciplined mind cannot of itself bring us happiness, cannot make us good and useful citizens, or entitle us to the respect of our fellow man." "The main thing in life is character." "And the greatest men whose names are honored and revered by all mankind, were great not because they were mighty in intellect, but because they were great in soul." So let us all while here in school resolve to better our social standing by developing a character pleasing to God and man. If this is done we need not worry about the future, for jobs are plentiful to those who are ABLE and DEPENDABLE.

M.H.

GOSSIPERS

One of the most prevalent faults of mankind is that of gossiping. Each time idle gossip is repeated, a little is added to it and it becomes slander. A man who tells an idle rumor would not recognize it by the garbled version he would hear after it has been told by a dozen people. Lives of men and women have been ruined by the talk of others. Friendships have been broken up through gossipers. We should be careful in repeating what we have heard. If a thing sounds false, let us believe it is false until we find it to be true. The Bible has much to say against bearing false witness. Slander is the most common form of false witness.

Shakespeare has Iago to say to Othello: "Who steals my purse steals trash....but he that filches me of my good name robs me of that which not enriches him and makes me poor indeed." The gossip little realizes that he is robbing someone of his most valuable possession--his good name--and has not benefitted himself by having done so.

"To speak no slander; no, nor listen to it," was one of the rules of King Arthur's Round Table. It is one of the rules of every true lady and gentleman today.

R. B.

The resurrection of Christ is the Gibraltar of Christianity and the Waterloo of infidelity.

Some Christians have been exposed to Christianity, but it has not taken as yet.

MISCELLANEOUS MEDITATIONS

By
Frank Payne

Note from a famous English preacher's journal:

"After preaching (as usual) I took horse for Tanfield.

More than once I was only not blown off my horse. However, at three I reached the Leigh where I explained to a multitude of people the salvation which is through faith."

This extract speaks for itself as to the energy and perseverance that must belong to even Christians as well as to preachers.

The Inscription over the cross was in three language: Hebrews Latin and Greek. These three peoples are like three types of humanity, The Hebrew is the man of the past---his records went back to the beginning of all things. The Latin was the man of the present, in power and victory, in mastery of the world. The Greek was the man of the future. He had lost his empire but still retained an empire in the world of thought. The Jew was the man of tradition; the Roman the man of energy; the Greek the man of thought.

John Monro Gibson.

In an Epytian grove of rank palms, lies the statue of Ramses II, prostrate, alone. He is the one who oppressed the Isralites. He is all that is left of that proud Empire of Egypt, By day lizards play on the face of that monarch. By night the jackals mix their weird howl with the sad moan of the palms--the only sentinels to stand guard now. This represents the fallen splendor of pride, the waste of wealth and ruin of sin.

Sermon to Preachers

Of John the Baptist it is said, "The child grew and waxed strong in spirit and was in the deserts until the days of his showing to Isreal."

Then thirty years later it happened that "John came into all the country about Jordan preaching"---and "---the multitude came forth."

The distinctive trait of Alexander Campbell (as of all great men) was his mastery of speech and originality of thought. These he matured in the obscurity of the University of Glasgow. It is amazing to note the amount of study he did before he began his ministry. Not given inspiration as was John, he consulted the penned thoughts of men.

In the obscurity of school and home, preaching for a few congregations around we must aim at mastering language and thoughts. Then we may appear in larger and more conspicuous fields.

John the Baptist and Alexander Campbell had purposes. The blazing desert sun---the scorn of bigoted churchmen hindered not those men. They had a goal. They reached it, leaving us an example.

It is usually death for a young bird to try to fly prematurely. He can stretch his wings, but must not try today to fly to yonder peak.

An old Quaker once said, "Many say it is a solemn thing to die; but, bethink you all, and bethink you well, it is a solemn thing to live."

"Peace is the still music of the soul; it is a calm sunset; it is the vision of Zion."

G. S. Bowes.

Courage to think is as rare as courage to act.

GOD CHOOSES BUSY MEN

By
JAMES WILLEFORD

It has ever been true that when God wanted a thing done he chose busy men. The reason for this is self-evident. When God wants a thing done he wants it done right and a busy man or one who is accustomed to tending his business is the only one that will do it as God wants it done. When God looked about for a man to take Saul's place as king of Isreal he did not select some lazy fellow with no initiative. Instead he selected a shepherd-boy who was busy doing something. His job was probably not the best in all the land, but it was honorable and David was doing it well. We may not be holding the best job in the country, but if we use judgment and are diligent we shall be fully repaid. Above all we must keep steadily on the job, because the greatest returns are gained thereby.

When Christ called Peter and John he selected men that were busy. We wonder why he did not call some big fellow who was lying on the deck of the ship dreaming away the time, and wondering why the fish did not swim into his net. Or why didn't Christ call some young man who had been accustomed to having things dished out to him, and was afraid to work for fear of getting his hands dirty? The reason is forcibly seen and yet young men and women will rely on their parents for all they have. The world is calling for men and women who are prepared and ready for action. Why not step forward with a determination that knows no defeat and strive lawfully that you may be crowned? Someone has said "where there is a will there is a way," you furnish the "will" and the Lord will furnish the "way."

FOR YOUR HELP

When things look blue read Isaiah 40.

When tempted to do wrong read Psalm 139.

If you are discouraged, think over Psalm 23.

If you are facing a crisis, read Psalm 46.

If you are bored, read Psalms 103 and 104.

When business is poor, think over Psalm 37.

When you are lonely or fearful, read over Psalm 27.

When you are anxious for dear ones, read over Psalm 91.

When you plan your budget, read chapter 19 of Luke.

To live successfully with your fellows, follow Romans 12.

When everything seems to be going from bad to worse, try second Timothy 3.

The best investment is described in the BIBLE, Matthew 6.

When your friends seem to go back on you, see 1 Cor: 13.

If you need inward peace, consider John's Gospel 14:chapter

Do you bear great responsibility? Read Joshua, chapter 1.

If you are in sorrow, turn to 1 Cor. 15 and Rev. 21.

For a stirring record of what confidence did, see Hebrews 11.

If you are satisfied with being well to do, read Luke 15-16.

If you have had great losses, read the last paragraph of Rom. 8.

If you are having to put up a stiff fight, there is a fine equipment listed at the end of Ephes.

The New corporation at the boy's dormitory is progressing nicely, and has even gone so far as to have some stationery printed.

We advise Phoebe Mohundro to make her visits home few and far between.

It has been rumored that Ruth Bobbitt is gaining prominence lately by her parodies on Poe.

Edgar seems to be having trouble evading the long arm of the law.

There has been a noticeable decrease in attendance at the sight-singing classes lately, in spite of the new bass singers.

The rapid decline of the boy's health is really appalling since Miss McLain opened her clinic.

We notice that Frank Payne is staging a comeback at the girl's dorm. If your name begins with "Z," just be patient.

We wonder if Mary Frances' visit home was for the purpose of preserving peace between two Alabama roommates.

What girl in the dorm is planning to middle-aisle it as soon as possible?

It was customary for the congregation to repeat the 23rd Psalm in unison, but invariably Mrs. Spielfast would keep about a dozen words ahead all the rest. "Who," asked a visitor of an old church member one Sunday, "was the lady who was already by the still waters while the rest of us were lying down in green pastures?"

Mrs. Folwell (on honeymoon) Why do you look so unhappy, W. O.? You know we are one now.
