NUMBER 8

Junior-Senior Banquet May 10,

On Monday, May 10, at 8 p. m., the Junior and Senior Classes launched out from Pier Cafeteria for a jolly cruise on the U. S. S. F. H. C. At the appointed time the couples met in front of the administration building and marched through it to the cafeteria. A gangplank placed at the door of the cafeteria gave the first salty tang of a mariner's roving life to the banquet. Tickets were distributed among the prospective passengers, and soon the two-hour pleasure cruise was under way.

A male chorus began the program by blending hearty voices together in the singing of "Anchors Aweigh". After offering of thanks by Brother Hardeman, Roy Webb, president of the Junior Class, tendered a speech of welcome to the Senior Class, to which the Senior president responded. During the dinner hour a girls' trio sang "Sailing, Sailing" and a boys' quartet, "Blow the Man Down". The next phase of the program was uniquely arranged into three parts, each part representing a landmark of our brief sojourn at F. H. C. Friendship, hardship, and courtship were remembered by the singing of "Shipmates Forever", "Jesus Savior Pilot Me", and "Harbor of Dreamboats". Billy Nicks, master of ceremonies, took the leading part in a tribute to our boys in military service. A list of their names was read and two songs sung in their honor—"My Buddy" and "Bonnie Heather". The concluding number was a candlelight ceremony in which the Senior class passed on to the Junior class the sacred flame of friendship and cooperation which always has been characteristic of

ALUMNI GIVE TO STUDENT FUND

During the latter part of last year the Alumni Association launched a campaign to raise a loan fund to help worthy students share the benefits of attending school here. The time of those chiefly responsible for carrying on the work has been rather limited by a heavy load of teaching this year but provisions have been made for the prosecution of the work in real earnest and on a broader scale during the coming summer months. In the next few months we expect to see the total results multiplied. The loyalty and support of those who have subscribed to this drive is greatly appreciated. Listed below are the names of those who have already had a part in the drive. We would like to see the name of every alumnus on the next list.

J. B. McCaleb, Savannah, Tenn.; Dorsey B. Hardeman, San Angelo,

Good Neighbors To Arrive

"Good Neighbors", a comedy in three acts, has been chosen for the annual Commencement play. The story centers around two saintly sinners who arrive in a small town and endeavor to bluff the citizens. The good sense of the towns people catches up with the crooks, however, and before they realize it, they've been converted and are acting quite the very way civil people are expected to act; they're even taking their money which formerly had been for no good purpose, and are helping those in need in the little town. With the following cast, the performance of "Good Neighbors" will occur on the evening of May 26:

Agatha Brownlee...The landlady...Irene Gibson.
Irene Brownlee...her daughter...Mary Joyce Forrester.
Theodora Waterman...Irene's girl friend...Mary Louise Freeman.
Janice Boyd...a female detective...Nell Jones.
Mother Higgins...a wealthy old lady...Mary Flo Cox.
Polly Tripp...a victim of circumstances...Corrine Brothers.
Effie Tilbury...a spinster...Louise Cagle.
Cornelia (Corney) Boggs...the landlady's "help"...Becky Park.
Anna Thorne...the minister's daughter...Aletta Burton.
Ruth Norton...the doctor's daughter...Bernice Young.
Samuel Kinsley...a stranger in town...Walter Barron.
Merle Norman...Samuel's nephew...Henry Forgy.

ORCHESTRA FAREWELL

For their opening number on their concluding program of the year, the orchestra played "Wave the Flag", which was followed by "March of the Maroons", "Red Leaves", "High Society", "Stolen Kisses", and "Marine's Hymn". The program took place in chapel, May 20.

Harold Purdom, student-director had charge of the program and good cooperation by the members of the orchestra was evidenced.

The orchestra has had a trying year in that many of its members have been called to the armed forces, but the student body is proud that it was able to carry on in spite of such odds.

History and Music Senior Recital In Junior Recital Tuesday May 25,

Miss Rubye Caldwell and Mrs. O. Foy presented the children of the Demonstration school in a unique musical program Friday night. With the "History of Music of the United States" as a background, the children portrayed the music from the time of the Pilgrims up through the folk music of our present-day mountain people. "Pop Goes the Weasel", "Paper of Pins", and "Home On the Range" gave the audience a glimpse of realistic music set to action.

Interspersed with the vocal numbers and games were the following piano numbers:

Quartet, "Dancing Moonbeams" Carmen Fay Deming, Edith May and Mary Joyce Harris, Regina Woods.

Solo, "The Big Bass Singer", Doris Dean Barton.

Solos, "Big Chief", "The Happy Farmer" Nick Powers.

Duet, "Tick Tock", Edith May and Mary Joyce Harris.

Solo, "Minuet in G" Peggy Stewart.

SUMMER SCHOOL STARTS ON MAY 31,

As for the past 15 years, the F. H. C. Summer School will open on the Monday following Commencement. They include: Education, Science, English, Bible, Mathematics, History, Shorthand, Typing, and Bookkeeping.

The session will extend from May 31 to August 20.

ROSE GARDEN PARTY

The College rose-garden was the setting for the annual garden party, which occurred on Sunday afternoon, May 23. The beautifully-designed garden was a dream of loveliness in its Spring apparel of thousands of blossoms. The fountain in the center, the trim grass walks, the adjacent lily-pool and rock-garden, enchanted the beauty of the rose-bushes, the whole view backed by a wall of climbing roses in the glory of full bloom.

The boys and Mrs. Hamilton acted as hosts, and received in the lobby of Paul Gray Hall, where piano, violin, and song made music. Guests chatted and strolled into the garden, where cookies and iced punch were served in an improvised arbor by the faculty ladies. Every body in school was invited and a large and delighted group attended.

SOLDIER NEWS

The latest losses to F. H. C. occasioned by military duty are Elbert Barnhart, who had to leave school April 29, and George G. Estes, who left early in May. Elbert, whose home is in Lewiston, Idaho, thus follows the steps of his big brother, Arvid, who left to report for duty last fall. Elbert made a splendid and popular student, whose absence is much regretted. George, whose home is at Selmer, Tennessee, also was a pleasant and personable Junior, and we hate to lose him.

The whole College extends deep sympathy to Rebecca Park, of Lewisburg, Tennessee, who, on May 5, received the sad news of the death of her brother. He had been with the Royal Canadian Air Force for two years and was stationed in England when killed in action.

A. C. E. GIRLS HEAR DR. MAYCIE SOUTHALL

Saturday afternoon, May 8, the A. C. E. girls of F. H. C. met with a group of Chester County teachers at the local high-school auditorium to listen to their most distinguished speaker of the year, Dr. Maycie Southall, Professor of Education at Peabody College.

An attentive audience of teachers and parents listened to Dr. Southall's lecture concerning the current problems which present themselves to those who have the oversight of our citizens of tomorrow.

The speaker's delightful manner and her informality in addressing her audience impressed everyone who attended with the importance of the task which is theirs.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

So the day's gone wrong?....from the time of awaking this morning until this very minute everything has turned out just opposite from what you had planned? Yes, perhaps everyone does have those days, which are such good "growing weather" for a "crop" of blues resulting from worry.

There are so many things one can worry about too...everything from the breaking of a favorite, finger-nail to thinking how near you came to breaking an arm when you fell up the steps.

But look, both the above mentioned would be worry entirely for sympathy, now, wouldn't they? Just think-instead of a finger nail, it might have been a finger, and instead of an idea about how close you came to breaking your arm, it could have been broken! Hence there'd be no end to worry if it were allowed to run rampant.

It probably would help the "worried mind" to teach himself that since worry disappears with the lifting of a gloomy outlook, worry often is caused by one's just feeling sorry for himself and wanting his way or maybe he isn't busy enough. "I have no time to worry," said the happy man. "In the daytime I'm too busy and at night I'm too sleepy."

The worrier seems to forget God, or else he doesn't have faith in His care for His own. Chappell said in his book "Feminine Faces", "Anxiety and a sense of God cannot live in the same heart."

F. H. C. In the soft glow, Brother Hardeman arose and delivered an impressive address. When the last notes of "Taps had died away, the trip came to an end and the voyagers stepped once again on the pier.

Roy Webb, Junior president, and three committees cooperated in arranging the banquet. Billy Nicks, Willene Henry, June Cline and John Scott concentrated on program; Barbara Harrison, Corinne Brothers, Stanley Ash and Roy Simmons on decorations; Nell Jones, Christeva Moody, Paul Rotenberry and Earl West, on finances.

The splendid menu was composed of: grapefruit cocktail, string beans, chicken a la King, candied yams, green peas, whole pickle, vegetable soup, rolls, iced tea and chocolate shortcake.

I would rather be able to appreciate things I cannot have, than to have things I am not able to appreciate. (Anon)

Post War-World Theme Discussion

The Phi Kappas utilized their chapel morning on April 29 by a round-table on the question of what the post-war world will be like. The subject was divided into four phases, one each being discussed by Sidney Roper, Gordon Grose, Olin Hastings, and W. B. Barton. Henry Forgy acted as chairman and announcer.

SPORT SPIELS

By LEWIS KAUFFMAN

"THE TIME HAS COME...". Since this is the last of this series columns, we feel that it is only proper to close with a review of the happenings of the past year. Let us begin as school opens and follow the progress of sports, month by month.

OCTOBER...THE MAIN INTEREST to the sport-minded is softball. Softball play is climaxed by the beginning of a society tournament. Tennis is also arousing interest and there is quite a bit of talk concerning the possibility of concreting our court.

NOVEMBER...PHI KAPPA SOCIETY ends the softball tournament with a "bang" by snagging the crown from the Philos and defeating a picked All-Star team, 8-2. Sigma Rho Society takes the girls' tournament with no ties and no defeats. Whisperings have begun concerning basketball prospects but even this fails to stop the touch-football addicts. The sentiment for concrete tennis courts continues.

DECEMBER...BASKETBALL HAS ARRIVED. A two game Jr.-Sr. contest goes to the Jrs. Boys, 18-15; Girls, 22-12. The Perry County boys required three extra overtime periods to defeat F. H. C. 39-37. Tennis and touch-football fade as ping-pong captures the spotlight.

JANUARY...F. H. C. LOSES to the Chester County Independents by a score of 32-36. Ping-pong is still popular and football is again securing interest. Tennis remains in the background.

FEBRUARY...THE PING-PONG PLAY is climaxed by a spirited tournament in which Hastings defeated Penny, 2-1, for the crown. The F. H. C. quintet takes C. C. H. S. to the tune of 45-43. "Skinny Scrappers" take the "Buxom Beauties", 4-0, while a Sigma Rho-Philo combination loses to the Phi Kappas, 24-16.

MARCH...EVERYTHING IS QUIET. Only two things are worthy of mention. The first is the reorganization of the Physical Education Program. No longer will it be on a "hit or miss" schedule. Effective at once, there will be 30 minutes of required calisthenics each day. The other point worthy of note is the beginning of work on the tennis courts. At last the concreting has begun.

APRIL...TRACK TAKES THE SPOTLIGHT this month. Roper stars in a meet with C. C. H. S. by taking five of ten events. Besides the five taken by Roper, F. H. C. grabs two more events which gives them a total of seven out of ten. The Juniors swamp the Seniors in softball by winning five out of six games. The tennis fans are happy. The court is completed.

SINCE THIS BRINGS THE EVENTS up to the present, let us now consider what has been taking place in the past few weeks.

ONCE AGAIN, THE PHI KAPPAS have come out on top after a spirited softball tournament. Last fall, they won the crown; this spring, they proved their right to it. Besides the three societies which participated in the fall tournament, there were the Alpha Taus in the recent struggle. Their gallant spirit availed little, however, as they were sadly lacking in material. Nevertheless, the older societies would do well to profit by their example.

THE CLIMAX OF THE YEAR in sports is yet to come. We refer to the tennis tournament which ends next week. Already several interesting matches have been played but the finals are to be held until the last day of school.

WHO WILL WIN? ONLY time will tell, but after consulting our crystal ball we tremblingly advance these predictions: Boy's Singles...Billy Nicks. As for the Mixed Doubles, Girl's Singles, and Girl's Doubles...We leave that to you. After all, women are so unpredictable. If we're wrong, we will apologize.

PREACHERS' CLUBS

The Preacher's Club has had an outstanding year in every respect. The attendance throughout the year has been especially good, with an average of about seventy-five.

Member of the club have been kept busy this year preaching the Word in Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Missouri, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois.

It is customary to have members of the faculty appear on the program during the closing meetings. Bro. Hardeman, Bro. Endsley and Bro. Brigrance were invited to speak this year. Bro. Hardeman spoke on the manner of dress of young preachers. His advice is always timely and sensible. Bro.

Brigrance took as a text for his talk Paul's admonition to Timothy, and Bro. Endsley spoke on problems confronting preachers and how they should meet them. Bro. Hall was also invited to speak but gave his time to Bro. Choate, an old member of the club who was visiting us at that time. Bro. Choate stressed the importance of continued study. Last Friday night the time was spent in each member's telling his plans for the summer and the following school year.

As the year closes we look forward to the summer's work when we shall have opportunity to make application of the things learned in Freed-Hardeman this year, and to the 1943-44 school year.

CLUBS

Alpha Tau Lambdas

The Alpha Tau Lambdas devoted their last chapel program on May 6, to memories of the pleasant hours spent at F. H. C. and to new friends made that will not be forgotten.

At the last weekly meeting the program consisted of musical numbers by Barry Anderson and James Brasher. Then we were highly entertained by John Scott and his pal, Lester Littlebrain. Plans were made for the following year and our sponsor, Mrs. Finley, gave some good suggestions for its success. There was a touch of sadness as we realized it was the last time these members would be together. Officers for the next term were elected. They are;

H. A. Fincher.....President
John Scott.....1st Vice President
James Brasher 2nd Vice President
Aletta Burton.....Secretary
Bonnie Hatter.....Reporter
June Cline.....Sergeant-At-Arms

Sigma Rho

Sigma Rho is announcing its new officers for the coming year. They are:

President...Winston Burton
Vice President...Claude Gardner
2nd Vice President...Earl West
Secretary...Christeva Moody
Reporter...Becky Parker
Sgt. at Arms...Billy Nicks

At the last meeting of this society the members elected their own "Who's Who Among Sigma Rhos." Most of the votes fell to extreme opposites of reality. Hats off to our "Courting Couple" Kathleen Logan and Abie Sauter! A brief talk was presented by W. T. Hamilton and a reading by Rebecca Park.

The Sigma Rhos feel that they have concluded a most successful year, which they could not have done without the cooperation of the other societies.

Philomathean

The Philos entered the softball tournament last week. They played the Phi Kappas and lost the game. It was played very nicely however.

A meeting will be held during the last week of school to elect officers for the next year. At the meeting Wendell Broom will make a campaign speech for these officers.

The Philos have not rendered any chapel programs recently, since they turned their last Thursday, May 30, over to the orchestra.

We, the Philos, express our thanks to all at F. H. C. for their co-operation during the year.

Here's to a very pleasant summer vacation!

Miss Fixit Says

Dear Miss Fixit,

I have a case of alphabetitis. Since I heard that Jewel Wilson was organizing a chapter of the SPANKM I've been wondering whether I couldn't be the parents of an organization myself. So I've just been thinking and thinking. you have no idea what an effort it has been.

I admit that Jewel hit on the perfect theme. Her alphabetitis is Society for Prevention of Any Notion of Kindness to Meddlers, and when it gets to functioning, will be of real service to the college race, not to mention civilization in general. The main idea is that those who poke their proboscises into others' affairs must first show as credential the pair of wings growing out of their own shoulder-blades.

But me-ah, I want to found something with dash- with verve- with glamour. So I got me up a brain-kink and thought up the WARTS. Maybe I'd better tell you: It stands for Women's Association of Retrospective Tabbies. The password (Sssh-h-h! this is a secret) is a plaintive meow and the grip terminates with a scratch!

Now isn't this the doings? I haven't got as far as uniforms yet, or charter, or by-laws, but I'm open for nomination to the executive offices, which are: Chief Sourpuss (President to you); Adjutant Lemon-Maltese (just a fancy name for Secretary); Puss-in-Boots (Treasurer is the common term) and Alley-Kitty (Sergeant-of-yarns).

And I haven't decided on the dues yet, or the do's and don'ts. Do you think I could get any recruits on the campus? And what's your suggestion for recruiting officer and station?

Yours determinedly,
Wilma Renegar

Homemakers Practice

The Homemakers Club served a buffet-style breakfast Sunday morning May 9th in the living room of the Home Economics Department to its members and a corresponding number of "future masculine members".

Strawberries with cream, delicious doughnuts, and coffee were served to the group. The guests even had to be requested to leave so that the girls might put all things in order... evidently all enjoyed the food and the company.

Dear Wilma,

I'm in favor of both Jewel's gang and yours. I should say I DO think you can get recruits for the WARTS on the campus. Suppose you appoint Martha McNatt as recruiting officer and fix the station at second base on the softball field, Tuesdays and Mondays at 8:42 P. M. Just as bait, you might ask Steve Patterson to hang around as an inducement. Then it seems to me ANY girl would want to be a Tabby.

However, if we go alphabetical, I see no reason to be one-sided about the matter. I therefore claim the distinction of proposing the BRATS, or the Brotherhood of Rattlers and Tattlers, or even Brotherhood of Rags and Tags. I think it would be no difficulty to find ample BRAT material on the campus. And there could be most fetching titles. Think of the aspirants for King Rat the First, or for the rank of Rattlers, first, second and third class, and Tattlers, fourth, fifth and sixth class. Why not organize all the talent that's around?

Yours alphabetically,

JIGGER'S JABBER

It's been fun this letting all of you kids in on the inside doin's of everyone. If your reputation didn't get ruined this session, don't blame me. We have an eagle-eyed censor (no reflections on Mrs. Powers.) How are Ben and Nell going to leave each other at the end of school? Why don't they just make it a merger?

That candlelight ceremony at the banquet was impressive in more ways than one but someone surely did sound inexperienced.

That Bankes-Wilson combination is O. K. but the redheads together are dangerous.

Isn't it strange that Mary misses class one day and Ford the next? They ought to get together on such things.

That was a lovely orchid that Jean got for Easter, but the fact she didn't wear it goes to show that she said it without flowers.

Mrs. Pickup certainly knows her son well. She wrote him to be sure to take a clean handkerchief when he went home with Jo.

Why do the Hermits call Ben Adams "Sugar?" Don't they know that such stuff is rationed?

Favorite quotation of the day: "Speed oh speed the day when she shall be my darling blushing bride. Would it were upon the morrow" For real meaning behind it, just ask Townsend Walker to quote it for you.

Wonder why John Scott is so inclined to choose June as his favorite month.

Martha McNatt asked me to put in an advertisement for a man for her. Are there any who wish to apply?

Take a tip from Roy Hearn, boys, and sleep with your hat on to prevent your hair from being unruly the next day.

Brother Rivenbark knocked on his own door the other night and said, "Time for lights out, boys."

What has happened to Junior and Mona Bell? They don't get around much anymore...at least, together.

Heva you noticed the wrinkles smoothing out of Virginia Ruth's brow since Bob wrote her that he might come for graduation?

Burton Camp has been telling us that his ambition is to start a nice little congregation near Memphis at a little place called Lucy. We figure it's more likely a place called Dot Jean.

Even the Sunday-School teacher knows that Mack Roland is interested in Lawrenceburg.

Corrine's affections quickly swapped from Simpson to Stanley. "Here today and gone tomorrow."

Abey says the amusement of pulling a chair from under a girl isn't worth sitting at the front table for a few days, knowing from experience, I don't think so either.

"You Can't Say No to a Soldier" and so Arcilla had to say good-bye to Paul.

Pauline House said she had the time of her life at the banquet with Bill Seaman.

"The Bells are Ringing for Me and My Gal." At least the ring part is so, for H. A. has already invested in one for Aletta.

A lot of people can tell you that Science Club meetings are fun but Ford and Mary can give you the real lowdown.

That Bankes boy must be some guy to keep two girls at F. H. C. fooled enough that both of them send him birthday gifts.

What has happened to Squeak and Henry? Don't they agree on a few little technicalities any more?

If Betty and Wendell do as well away from here as they have at F. H. C., it will be bride and Broome before long.

No doubt Paul Hall adMEYERS the athletic type of girl. First it was Jewel and now it is Mot.

ACE Supper at Mrs. Foy's

Twenty-three ACE Girls gathered at Mrs. Oscar Foy's home at 5:30 P. M. Saturday May 15 to enjoy preparing and eating an outdoor supper. The large grassy back lawn afforded a perfect setting.

A delicious and abundant supper was soon served: egg, peanut butter, and tomato sandwiches, stuffed eggs, pickles, orange juice, and strawberry ice cream with cake. After supper Betty Ann Miller gave an introductory talk, and then the election of officers for the following year was had. Mary Joyce Forrester will serve as president; Mary Flo Cox, vice-president; Aletta Burton, secretary; and Arcilla Jordan, reporter.

The program continued with vocal selections by Gerry Petty and Betty Billingsley, accompanied by Mary Flo Cox. Laura May Hudson favored the group with a reading. The girls presented to Mrs. Foy a silver tray, on which "ACE Girls '42 and '43" was engraved. To end a perfect afternoon, Mrs. Foy narrated an interesting story by Poe.

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold;
New-made friends, like new-made wine,
Age will mellow and refine;
Friendships that have stood the test,
Time and change are surely best.
