Entertaining Commencement Program Planned

MANY VISITORS EXPECTED

The greatest Commencement week ever staged by F. H. C. is planned for the week of May 19 to 26. An entertaining program has been planned for every night of the week and extensive preparations are in progress. Brethren and friends of the school from all over the country have been invited, the only request, being that their intention of being present be made known to the faculty so provisions can be made for everyone.

The program follows:

Commencement Program

Friday Night—Music Graduation
—Evelyn Ham, Helen Boswell.
Saturday Night
—Children's Night
Sunday Night—Sermon
—James A. Allen, Nashville
Monday Night
—Music and Expression Recital
Tuesday Morning

(Talks by students)
Tuesday Night
—Oratorical Contests of Societies.
Wednesday Morning
—High School Graduating Exercises
Wednesday Night
Operetta—"The Gypsy Rover"
Thursday Morning
—College Class Graduation.
Address—
Judge Clifford Davis, Memphis.
Thursday Night
—Final Play—"The Prodigal Son."

CHILDREN IN FINE RECITAL

Monday evening, March 8th, the music and expression pupils under the supervision of Mrs. N. B. Hardeman, Miss Ruby Caldwell and Miss Johnnie May Neal gave a very enjoyable recital.

The talent found among these pupils has a merit of which any institution might be proud; and the development of such could certainly be under no finer supervision than that of the above mentioned directors.

The following is the program:

Rosemary Fox
—Bonna Tarpley
The Cello—Mattingly
—Mary Duanne McDonald
A Little Waltz—Gaynor
Robert McCallum, Mildred Fields
Polyanna Waltz—Crawford
—Druceil Reed
Arpeggio Waltz—Smity
—Sarah Elizabeth Foy
The Merry-Go Round—Gaynor
—Jeanette Olliver,
—Mary Duanne McDonald
Tick Tock—Mattingly
—Robert McCallum
The Peasant Dance—Gaynor
—Druceil Reed, Bonna Tarpley
June Flowers—Spialek
—Jeanette Olliver
A Fine Singer—Bitney
—Francis Foy
Dreams—Bliss
—Sarah E. Foy, Mildred Fields,
—Mary F. Brigrance
The Pixies Ballet—Brown
—Martha Williams

REPRESENTATIVES IN SOCIETY CONTESTS ARE CHOSEN

In keeping with the usual custom during Commencement week, a night is given to the Societies of the School in which the representatives chosen by each society may exhibit the work done during the past year and also determine the superiority of the contestants. A boy and girl is chosen from each society and this year the following were elected:

Philomathean—Lorene Spain, Wilbur Albright.
Sigma Rho—Elna Browning, Don Carlos Davis.
Bible—Nannie B. Conley, Elmer Smith.

CLARK BURNS AND KATE EDMONDSON ARE SPEAKERS

At a meeting of the Senior College Class, Clark Burns was chosen by the class as Valedictorian and Kate Edmondson a Salutatorian. Each have been students in F. H. C. both years of their college life and no more representative students of the class could have been chosen. Both have made good records in scholarship, are popular in all school activities and among their fellow students.

ALL HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES TO SPEAK

The High School Department has an unusually fine graduating class this year. Some splendid numbers have been prepared and in addition to the usual procedure the graduates will each deliver a short thesis which is original. A list of the names, homes, and subjects of address of the graduates is given below:

Bertha Hill, Russellville, Ala.—
"Build Thee More Stately Mansions."
Nathan Thompson, Henderson, Tenn.—
"What is Man."
Chloe Hope, Sulphur Lick, Ky.—
"Sail On."
Quaye Pope, Henderson, Tenn.—
"When A Man Comes to Himself."
Gretchen Harris, Finger, Tenn.—
"Wonders of Radio."
Aline Tucker, Finger, Tenn.—
"Be Sure Your Sin Will Find You Out."
Susie Walker, Finger, Tenn.—
"Sowing and Reaping."
Lois Hall, Bay Ark.—
"Decisions—Good and Bad."
Eleanor Moody, Albertville, Ala.—
"A Good Name."
Varna Cox, Stantonville, Tenn.—
"The Way of Transgression."
Aubrey Farris, Corinth, Miss.—
"The School of Adversity."

"THE PRODIGAL SON" TO BE PRESENTED FOR FINAL PLAY

The final play for Commencement this year will be unusually different from any ever presented in Henderson before. In choosing "The Prodigal Son" by Edward Finnegan the faculty has chosen a play which should prove interesting and impressive in every way. It is a colorful romantic drama based on the well known Bible story and as is suggested by that, a splendid moral lesson is portrayed.

Special Oriental Costumes have been ordered from Memphis and with this elaborate costuming and the talent of the participants a magnificent production should result.

It might be of interest to know that it is on this play that "The Wanderer" a picture seen in Henderson last fall, is based.

Dramatic Personae:

A Chronicler—L. L. Brigrance
Esther—Lorene Spain
Odaia—Johnnie May Neal
Sarah—Edna Long
Ruth—Mary Nell Hardeman
Isdra—Helen Boswell
Rachel—Jessie Guipn
Six Dancing Girls—
Beulah Grounds
Ila Grounds
Martha Rodgers
Johnnie Sanders
Nell Ledbetter
Virginia Jackson
Jacob—D. D. Woody
Simeon—R. E. Hinson
David—Luther Roberts
Murmex—Newt Moody
Malachi—Albert Holland
Memnon—Carey Stovall
Daman—Joe Morgan
Ob—Elbert Kidd
Ahab—Caster Williams

SCHOOL HEARS WORLD TRAVELER

Feb. 25th the students and faculty had an opportunity of hearing Dr. Vankirk of Youngstown, Ohio, who is making a speaking tour of America in the interest of World Peace. He was present at the Hague Peace Conference, has travelled around the world, and thus was able to deliver a very interesting lecture.

STUDENT RECEIVES AWARD

Johnnie Sanders of the Business Department has won as a result of speed and accuracy in writing 40 words per minute on the typewriter, a bronze medal. She has the distinction of being the only student beginning this year who has accomplished this.

INTERMEDIATE HONOR ROLL

Jasper Hardeman
Louise Hefley
Worley Ward
Honey Brigrance
Frank Romine
Brody Pope
Addison Hall.

"GYPSY ROVER" TO BE PRESENTED

After a careful consideration of various musical plays, the directors of the Music Department, Mrs. N. B. Hardeman and Miss Ruby Caldwell have decided to present for Commencement week the operetta, "The Gypsy Rover."

The title alone suggests an interesting story, notwithstanding the colorful costumes and nomadic songs and choruses. The Operetta is always one of the most beautiful and interesting features of commencement and this one promises to be no exception.

Cast:

Meg—An old Gypsy Woman
—Edna Long
Zara—Belle of the Gypsy Camp
—Helen Boswell
Marto—Meg's Husband
—Nathan Thompson
Bob—The Gypsy Rover
—B. G. Swinney
Lady Constance
—Daughter of Sir Geo.
—Mary Nelle Hardeman

—Lorene Spain
Capt. Jerome
—Of the English Army
—Joe Morgan
Sir Toby Lyn—Social Butterfly
—Elbert Kidd
McCorkle
—Song Publishers of London
—Horace Colvett
Assisted by choruses.

LINEN SHOWER FROM SHEFFIELD

The spirit of donation seems to be in the air for following close upon the heels of Bro. Leather's donation to the boys came a very useful one for the girls. Members of the Sheffield Church literally showered Oakland Home with an abundance of beautiful linens, including such articles as table cloths, napkins, towels, pillow cases, and sheets. Those to whom we are indebted are: Mrs. H. G. Caperton, Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe, Mrs. J. E. Sanders, J. G. Walker, Mrs. A. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chambers, R. B. Newsome, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ingul, Mrs. W. A. Giles, Mrs. W. G. McCarley, Mrs. Emma Frederick, Mrs. Montant, Miss Edna Walker, Mrs. O. P. Green, Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Hanlin, Mrs. A. D. Lane, Miss Lillie Mae Sherrod, W. V. Walker, Mrs. L. R. Rhodes, Mrs. James G. Gambill, Mrs. M. G. Ragan, Mrs. Wm. A. Gammon, Mr. and Mrs. Brennanar, Mrs. Frank Liper, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle, Mrs. Blakemore, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamm, Mrs. G. W. Hanlin, and Mrs. O. B. Landis.

Other ladies sending gifts during the year were Miss Lucile McAllister of Fulton, Ky., a former student; and Mrs. J. H. Sutton of Memphis, mother of Vera Sutton who is now a student here.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Monday evening, April 25, the Juniors entertained the Seniors in the College Building with the annual banquet.

The guests were received in the lobby by groups of hosts and hostesses and ushered into the library which had been converted into a veritable woodland by beautiful wild honeysuckle and other shrubbery for a rustic effect. Here a number of games and contests formed the main diversion of the evening. In a memory contest Lula Cumings and Albert Holland proved lucky.

Music furnished by the Victrola added to the gayety.

At the conclusion of the games the guests were invited to the banquet table which had been arranged beautifully in the business room in the form of an "S". The Senior colors of pink and green were tastefully carried out in the table appointments, tiny bud vases added to the beauty and lighted candles cast a pretty glow over the scene.

Misses Nelle Ledbetter, Lois Hall, Varna Cox, and Bertha Hill of the Domestic Science department under Miss Mary Gresham served a delicious two course menu.

Between courses much merriment was created by the performance of stunts and reading of anecdotes. Toasts were also given by Professor C. P. Roland, and Prof. D. D. Woody, Miss Mary Nelle Hardeman, of the faculty, Clark Burns of the Senior Class, Albert Holland and Luther Roberts of the Junior Class.

The general expression among everyone present was that it was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held in the college. Not a dull moment prevailed, and the entertainment committee is to be congratulated on the splendid success of that feature of the affair.

BRO. LEATHERS DONATES BATS

The Baseball Team of F. H. C. is in receipt of a very useful present from Trustee John Leathers of Dickson, Tenn. Mr. Leathers is a handle manufacturer and thoughtfully sent baseball bats amounting to something like the value of $25.00. This is a very handy donation to the boys and one highly appreciated not only by them but by the entire school. The donor is a trustee of the school and extremely interested in its work, having visited us several times during this year.

VAUGHN QUARTET

Thursday, April 7, the Vaughn Quartet entertained an appreciative audience when they made their second appearance in F. H. C. this session. Their usual program of quartet, solos and duets were given and also some enjoyable instrumental numbers.

WHAT IS F. H. C. WORTH TO HENDERSON?

The end of the school year is at hand, soon the students and most of the faculty will be leaving, have they left any good behind them by having been here? Of what value have they as members of Freed-Hardeman College been to this community?

First consider the moral influence. Certainly in an institution where the Bible is studied daily by almost 100 per cent of the students a moral and spiritual influence should be felt. Many of the students in school are from homes in the town, therefore the influence is bound to be felt in a direct way.

Then consider the value of such an institution from a financial view point. Residents of Henderson do not have to send their children away from home for schooling, for here in Henderson they have an institution which people from Michigan to Florida appreciate sufficiently to patronize. Of course there are countless schools, closer home, fine ones, but a school of this type is the kind in which they wish to see their children. Citizens of Henderson are able to save that amount expended by others for the same privilege and more than that the non-resident student leaves his money in the town. At the drug store, at the barber shops, grocery stores, men's and ladies ready-to-wear shops, and various necessities and luxuries are purchased which add to the business of the town. Then considering the advantage which the students give Henderson when they return to their respective homes in various sections of the country, Henderson has a free system of advertising. Students tell others of the college, and its numbers increase. It is a stable institution, now, on an extremely promising career of expansion. Substantial legacies have recently been made which will securely provide for the future. It is only at the beginning of an era of growth.

Its supporters have a dream of additional beautiful buildings and improved equipment being added to the institution. What citizen is not proud when a stranger comes to town to show the beautiful buildings and campus of our college? How much it adds to the beauty and dignity of the town! Citizens of Henderson it is well worth your pride and support!

He: We had a party last night.
She: Anything to drink?
He: Yes, I went out for gin and oranges, and had to go five places before I could find any oranges.
—Wabash Caveman.

The modesty of a woman is a protection to her virtue more secure than all the robes in the world, however little they may be cut down.
—Heine.

There is a club in New York devoted to the laziest men in the world. Any attempt by a member to hurry is punishable by a fine. One day a member was seen driving his car past the club at a high rate of speed.

Summoned before the committee, he excused himself by saying that he was too lazy to take his foot from the accelerator.
—Yale Record.

Prof. D. D. Woody made a recent chapel talk on the value of time, placing on the board a very fine outline which is here reproduced. It shows at an alarming figure, the value of our time even to the minute, likewise the financial advantage of a College student has over the person who stops at grammar school. An increase can be noted all the way through even though the higher the education, the less number of years is spent in labor. Hence where does the man with a college education gain over him who has stopped before going through college? The answer is easily shown by the chart:

Period of Action	ELEMENTARY	HIGH SCHOOL	4 YEAR COLLEGE
Earnings per year	60 yr.—16=44 yr.	60 yr.—20=40 yr.	60 yr.—24=36 yr.
Total Earnings	300 da. X $3=$900	12 Mo. X $125=$1500	12 Mo. X $250=$3,000

Miss Lula Allen has returned to her classes after several days illness.

Miss Ruby Williams was ill during the week of April 23.

Misses Edna Long and Kate Edmondson spent the week-end of April 23 at the home of Miss Long's parents in Tupelo, Miss.

Mrs. N. B. Hardeman is recuperating from a severe illness.

Miss Gladys Endsley was a visitor to Jackson April 25.

Misses Johnnie May Neal, Helen Boswell and Martha Rodgers were shoppers in Jackson April 25.

Prof. L. L. Brigrance preached at Newbern, Tenn., April 3. He was accompanied by his daughter Dorothy and Opal Barton.

Gilbert Shaffer preached at Iron city, April 8.

D. D. Woody met his regular appointment at Alamo Sunday, April 3.

Miss Cummings Entertains

The Calliope Club was delightfully entertained Monday night April 4, at the home of Miss Neal Cummings.

She very interestingly reviewed Dance Magic by C. B. Keland followed by a discussion by the members.

The decorations and refreshments were very unique, carrying out the Easter idea. A delicious plate luncheon was served by Miss Lula Cummings.

Miss Hardin Entertains.

Miss Georgia Hardin delightfully entertained the Calliope club Monday evening, April 11.

The book of the evening was the popular novel "Wall Flowers" by Temple Bailey.

The place cards and nut cups carried out the Easter idea very beautifully.

A delightful ice course was served by Misses Lois Hall and Bertha Hill.

Misses Eva Davis and Edna Long were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Roland for dinner Monday evening, April 11.

Aubrey Farris spent the week end of April 10 at his home in Corinth, he carried as his guest, Clarence Hopper.

Chickens For Dormitory.

Several times during the year various ladies of town have graciously donated chickens and other edibles to the Dormitory for Sunday dinner.

The girls and teachers all join heartily in thanks to Mrs. G. W. Roberts, Mrs. Ledbetter, Mrs. Lowrance, Mrs. Whit Ward, Mrs. John McDonald, Sr., and Mrs. Tom Williams for such appetizing donations Sunday, April 17.

Louise Hefley, Susie Love Chambers and Johnny May Neal were ill April 27.

Here and There

The sighs of the Seniors are not occasioned by thoughts of "parting," that is for the most part, but from the review of 44 plays in English.

Speaking of parting, some are awfully anxious but a few strange to say are rather down east, (Kate Caster, Price, Ham and Gladys are Seniors).

Lulu is going to "Union" this summer—Education isn't the only letter beginning with and "E".

So Alma and Lena just can't leave for good! Alma is going to teach the grammar grades and Lena will assist Miss Lula as "general flunkie"—course this means chauffeur too and Prof. Roland says if Lena gets her a car he'll have to move the buildings.

Helen will drive through the country with Lee W. after commencement and after a few days at home go to the U. of Fla. at Gainesville, and then to Paducah. All leading to an "O. M." degree, I suppose.

Can we imagine Lois making a graduating "address"?

Miss Gresh and Mrs. Jones both bought some real Irish linen—Now a "Dorm" is no place for such!

Ask "Miss Gresh" if she ever got her "Mother's" letter back from Lina. She surely was anxious. We thought there was a picture of a gondola on it.

Everyone in school has "suddenly" realized the great and wonderful need of spelling as a part of their education. The students of F. H. C. are so conscientious!

Commencement is in the air. Practices are in full sway and everything indicates the biggest we've ever had.

Miss Lula has a remarkable auto. It doesn't hesitate even at fences.

Friday afternoons are rushed with tennis players. Love what? Oh the score!

Well this is the last issue for this year. Let's hope each year may show an improvement over the last.

Mr. Ridge has learned that Henderson is a great town. It's on the direct line between the north and south pole. More advertising! Beulah says it's in N. Longitude.

"Miss Jo" has been pretty sick and we're all mighty glad she's som much improved. No one of the family could be missed more from school. Hurry back.

Some old students are expecting to be present commencement among whom are Leek Fraley, Joe Rainey and Lee W. Boswell. Of course there'll be others but we haven't heard.

JUST A SMILE.

Just a smile for the people who pass you,
Just a smile and a kind thoughtful word,
And their hearts grow strong,
Tho' their way be long,
For what they have seen and heard.

"I really think there is something dove-like about Martha," said Clarence.

"I do too, she's so pigeon-toed."

Alarm clocks are in demand — the Senior girls are taking the 7:30 poetry class.

Virginia: "And did you really miss me all summer?"

Audrey: "Did I? Every time I kissed another girl I wished it were you."

Edna was at Gibson's the other day purchasing a dress. The clerk asked her "What bust?" Edna exclaimed, "I never heard nuthin'."

Monkey: "Don't you love riding on a night like this?"

Gene: "Yes — but I thought I'd wait till I got out of town."

He Certainly Would

"I wonder," said Mrs. Jenks to Mr. Jenks, "why we say 'good evening' when a visitor calls and 'good night' when he leaves?"

"Force of habit, I presume," said Mr. Jenks. "Evening and night are synonymous terms."

"Well," continued Mrs. Jenks, "they may be synonymous, but I guess you'd rather have the society column report that I appeared in a tasteful evening gown instead of saying that I was clad in a tasteful night gown."

—Judge.

Weak: Gladys is about the closest person I know.

End: What makes you think so?

Weak: She's so stingy she won't use perfume on a windy day.

—Pelemele.

Blond: Pretty bad on you, old thing, since gentlemen started giving me the preference."

Brunette: Not at all, my dear, I've never cared for the gentlemen.

First Stenog: The boss bawled me out this morning about my lipstick.

Second Stenog: Gonna quit using it?

First Stenog: I guess I'll have to quit using the kind that comes off.

—Mink.

"Do you think I am conceited?"—Cary Stovall.
"Jessie, come out of that closet and go get a light."—Susie Love Chambers.
"I wish I had my old nal back again."—Johnnie Sanders.
"Well, Don, are you ready?"—L. L. Brigance.
"I am terribly fond of Luke's gospel."—Jessie Guni.
"I'm as hungry' as a bear. Have you anything to eat?"—Mary Ethleen Bailey.
"Oh, dear me! Have you worked that Trig?"—Helen Boswell.
"Oh! Go on away from here."—Lois Hall.
"Jessie! Jessie! there's a man in your room."—Vera Sutton.
(Compiled by Paul Randolph, Ruth Peddy, Brodie Roberts, Geneva Orndoff.)

The little rain-drop crept up to the speck of dust and in a hard voice said: "From now on your name is MUD!"

"I shall never marry," declared Price, "until I meet a woman who is my direct opposite."
"Well," said Brigance, "There are a number of intelligent girls in this school."

Burns: "At six years I was left an orphan."
Holland: "What did you do with it?"

Helen plays the piano a good deal of the time now and Ed. and Ham are right there with their saxophone and violin—wonder why? Probably on this account: "In the spring a young (wo) man's fancy lightly turns to love." Reckon so?

Ruby Williams (refusing proposal): "I am sorry, but some other girl can make you forget me."

Brodie: "I can never forget you!"

Ruby: "Oh, yes, you did it very nicely—yesterday was my birthday."

What about those old Neckties that you have thrown back? We can make them look like new ones through our Dry Cleaning department for 10c each.
