Treasure Chest Announces Feature Contest Results

Miss Libby Harrison was selected as Freed-Hardeman's queen of loveliness, and Max Patterson as most handsome boy in the finals of the feature election which was held Friday evening, January 16, in the school auditorium. The results were released today by Betty Smotherman, Treasure Chest editor.

Second-place winner in the most beautiful contest was Maxine Belue, and Elsie Griggs took third place.

Among the boys, Joe Hardin and Lloyd Barker pleased the judges' eyes to take second and third place, respectively.

Miss Harrison, chosen as most beautiful, is a young lady from our Freshman class whose home is in New Albany, Mississippi. She was gowned in white net over taffeta with a large red rose at the waist. She wore white satin brocade slippers.

Miss Belue, second place winner from Columbus, Miss., wore white net over taffeta and a complementary red velvet bolero with a rhinestone clip at the neck. On her feet were white suede slippers.

Tennessee was not to be outdone. It produced third place winner, Miss Griggs, who hails from Parsons. Miss Griggs' beauty was enhanced by a billowy powder-blue, tiered net dress over lace and adding to her charm was the pink carnation which she wore in her long tresses.

Mr. Patterson, selected as winner among the handsome kind, was dressed in a black suit and wore a Roman-stripe tie. Max is a native of Selmer, Tennessee.

For second place Joe Hardin of Arbyrd, Missouri, pleased the judges eyes. He wore a navy blue suit and a bright red tie.

Lloyd Barker from Dayton, Ohio, was chosen for third place. He was dressed in a blue suit and yellow tie.

The judges of the contest were George Tipps, minister of the Highland Avenue Church of Christ in Jackson, Tenn., Paul Carter, proprietor of the Frances Shop in Jackson and Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd, dramatics teacher at Union University.

A statement as to what characteristics were judged included: beauty, poise and photogenic quality.

Miss Nancy Witt very capably served as piano accompanist.

Other similar contests will be held by the annual staff in the near future. Contests will be held for the most popular, ideal, athletic, intellectual girl and boy and one will be conducted for the school's favorite couple.

Irvington Church in Indianapolis. While there he has furthered his education in the Butler University School of Religion, receiving the M.A. degree in 1945, majoring in Christian Doctrine and minoring in New Testament. He has completed all work for the Th.M. degree except his thesis, which he hopes to complete by June, 1953.

Freed-Hardeman plans further expansion in its Bible training with the addition of Brother West. He will offer courses in Restoration History, Christian Evidences, New Testament Greek and Bible. Frank VanDyke will continue as head of the Bible Department proper. Special attention will be given to the "third year preachers course" which has been offered several years, and by which a total of 120 quarter hours are made available. Approximately 27 students are now enrolled for this work.

From 1938-1940 Brother West attended Freed-Hardeman College and Abilene Christian College from 1940-41. He attended George Pepperdine College from 1941-43 where he received a B.A. degree with majors in Bible and history and a minor in secondary education. In 1943 he began work with the

Nine Members Selected For Honor Club

Nine new members have been selected for Freed-Hardeman's honor society, the Alpha Gamma Delta.

A faculty committee on the basis of academic achievement, character, participation in school functions, and talent, recently chose the following as eligible for the club:

Martha Darnall, William Woodson, Cecil Phelps, Nancy Witt, Earline Watson, Bobby Sims, Anne Lucy, Neal Pryor and Al Bowers.

In order to attain membership in the Alpha Gamma Delta, one must have a 2.5 or more average and must be outstanding in one or more school activities or excel in some ability or skill.

The Alpha Gamma Delta recently elected new officers who are to serve throughout the remainder of the winter quarter. They are as follows:

President, Foy Lisenby; vice-president, Betty Smotherman; secretary, Glenda Dabbs and treasurer, Winston Brackeen.

'53 LECTURESHIP DRAWS RECORD-BREAKING CROWD

Approximately 575 visitors representing nineteen states, Italy, and South Africa registered for the annual Freed-Hardeman College Bible Lectureship which was held from January 5-9.

The College auditorium was overflowed during the day sessions and the large Henderson Church of Christ building was overflowed at night. It was estimated that from 600 to 900 people attended every night session.

Daily speakers and their subjects during the week were Guy N. Woods of Memphis, Tenn., "The Nature of Man"; Gus Nichols of Jasper, Alabama, "Premillennialism"; John H. Brinn, Henderson, Tenn., "The Book of Galatians"; G. K. Wallace, Tampa, Florida, "The Preacher and His Work"; Elred Stevens, Nashville, Tenn., "Roman Catholicism—A Present Menace"; and the Open Forum with Guy N. Woods as moderator.

Chapel speakers were Basil Overton of Gleason, Tenn., "The Power of Darkness"; James Falkner, Tupelo, Miss., "What Constitutes Good Preaching?"; H. A. Dixon, Henderson, Tenn., "The State and Plans of Freed-Hardeman College"; and Marshall Keeble, Nashville, Tenn., "Humility".

Night speakers were James W. Nichols, Abilene, Texas, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"; Batsell Barrett Baxter, Nashville, Tenn.,

FUTURE TEACHERS HOLD CONTEST

The Freed-Hardeman Chapter of the Future Teachers of America are conducting a contest for "Mr. and Miss Future Teacher of Freed-Hardeman College".

Benjamin Niblock and Kenard Ward are competing for the title "Mr. Future Teacher" and Earline Watson and Carolyn Sullenger are competing for the title of "Miss Future Teacher".

"The Power of Preaching"; Chas. Chumley, of Athens, Alabama, "Using the Bible"; G. C. Brewer, Memphis, Tenn., "Churchianity and Christianity"; and I. A. Douthitt, Chattanooga, Tenn., "Heaven's Interest in Our Salvation."

Carl Mitchell of Italy and Guy Casky of South Africa told of the work of the church in these two countries.

An additional feature to the program was the college quartet composed of Richard England, Leo Powers, O. D. Morrow and Al Bowers singing "Light of the World," "Crossing the Bar" and "The Treasures of Earth".

On Thursday night the chorus under the direction of Kelly Doyle sang "The Lord Is In His Holy Temple", "Beneath the Cross", "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind", "How Shall the Young Secure Their Hearts?" "A Mighty Fortress", "There Is a Green Hill Far Away", "Must I Go and Empty Handed?" "The Lord Bless You and Keep You", "My God and I", "Glory to God", "There Is a Balm in Gilead", and "Soon a Will Be Done."

Places were provided in the homes in Henderson for the overnight visitors to stay. H. A. Dixon, president of FHC stated, "This has been the most successful lectureship program we have had."

Snapshot Contest To Be Sponsored By Annual Staff

Betty Smotherman has announced that the snapshot contest sponsored by the Treasure Chest staff begins Monday and will continue for three weeks.

The winning student with the best single snapshot will receive a free Treasure Chest. A prize of $2.50 will be offered to the student who submits the best group of pictures.

More emphasis will be placed on the snapshot section of this year's annual than in years past.

All students are urged to participate and hearty cooperation is needed to make this years contest a great success.

So students get out your cameras, keep your eyes open and get busy. YOU MAY BE THE WINNER!!!!!!!!!!

MARS HILL CHORUS PRESENTS PROGRAM IN CHAPEL HERE

On January 16, the Mars Hill Chorus under the direction of Claude Lewis presented a program of songs during the chapel period.

Songs they sang were "Let the Words of My Mouth", "Awake and Sing", "O Praise the Lord", "When All Thy Mercies", "O How Kindly Hast Thou Led Me", "Like A Choir of Angels", "This Is My Fathers World", "Hallelujah Amen", and "There Is A Balm in Gilead".

The chorus remained at FHC until after noon and met with the chorus for their practice.

Bro. Earl West To Be Added To F-HC Faculty

Earl West, noted author, educator and evangelist of Indianapolis, Indiana, will join the faculty of Freed-Hardeman as head of the Religious Education Department in September, 1953.

For some time he has served as staff writer of the Gospel Advocate, and he has written rather extensively for other religious journals. He is the author of "The Search for the Ancient Order," a two-volume history dealing especially with the restoration of New Testament Christianity.

From 1938-1940 Brother West attended Freed-Hardeman College and Abilene Christian College from 1940-41. He attended George Pepperdine College from 1941-43 where he received a B.A. degree with majors in Bible and history and a minor in secondary education.

In 1943 he began work with the Food For Thought

The Hebrew writer admonished his Jewish brethren in Heb. 2:1 in this fashion: "Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard."

In giving his message the Holy Spirit used the word therefore which designated the connection with chapter one from which some conclusions followed. The writer had affirmed that the God who had spoken to the fathers had spoken in these last days by Jesus Christ. After showing by Old Testament quotations the superiority of his message, the admonition follows.

Primarily the admonition is for the Hebrew brethren to give a more earnest heed to those principles they had learned in order to prevent an apostasy. Let us consider "therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed" to all principles of the Christian vocation.

The importance of keeping our hearts pure has seemed to slip away from our attention. The wise man said "keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Prov. 4:23. In giving his teaching Jesus showed conclusively that the foundation for all acceptable service is the heart.

We certainly ought to give more earnest heed to the use of proper language. It is so easy for us to become careless in what we say. Paul often admonished Timothy to use "sound words." II Tim. 1:13.

The Hebrew writer was aware that the recipients of his message were in danger of apostatizing. When we begin to show distaste for God's word we are on the brink of apostasy.

We believe the Bible teaches the possibility of apostasy but we live as if the battle has already been won. Awake, sluggard—the Master calls!!

A Little Slower, Please

Have you ever been in front of a tribe of wild Comanches running at top speed? Of course you haven't—you know that such a predicament is hardly conducive to safety and peace of mind.

Yet, we have a similar situation at 11:55, Tuesday through Saturday. At the Zero Hour, the bell tolls and a herd of ravenous students thunder forth from the Ad Building, oblivious of any hapless individual who might be in their path.

Suppose someone should be loitering in that vicinity when the awesome avalanche of hungry humans descends the steps and gallops on toward the cafeteria?

Unless he be lucky, that person would be flattened out on the pavement and grievously bruised.

To say the least, this Banshee-like habit of going to lunch is extremely undignified. The pangs of hunger cannot be so great as to prompt us to make like P38's on the way to eat. Let's slow it down to a creeping 30 mph. Thanks.

A Word Of Praise

During the past year many changes were made at Freed-Hardeman College. Because these changes are so near to us we often fail to grasp the true value of improvements. As we glance back into 1952 many changes stand out as monuments to progress.

Freed-Hardeman College has a sincere desire to bring you the very best for your college investment. The teaching staff has been strengthened greatly by the addition of John H. Brinn and Earl West.

Many changes have been made in our physical plant. From small improvements as water coolers for our dormitories to the building of the new fire escape for the girls' home the school is meeting their problems with fresh ideas and new conveniences.

Goals and visions fill the minds of all connected with Freed-Hardeman College. Admission to the Southern Association of Colleges is being actively sought. In order to reach this goal many changes and improvements are being planned. Our library will be strengthened in various fields, more equipment will be supplied in the science and commercial departments.

To fulfill these worthy ambitions the active support and co-operation of all the friends of Freed-Hardeman is sought.

We are proud of our school because of its fruitful past and its bright future.

The opportunities for Christian education are unlimited and with God's help we will expand our capacities for doing good.

Attitude Toward Self

By Royce Reynolds

Someone has said that the morals of a nation can be changed by changing the type songs that the nation sings. There is probably much truth in such a premise, even though it seems to be converse in nature. The type of morals people have determine what type songs they sing.

How often do we find ourselves singing songs that are not expressive of the highest morals. Man is forced by an "inner stream" to express himself. Whether we realize it or not, we consciously or subconsciously choose themes, topics and even songs that best express our true inner man.

Those with whom we have to do, know us only by our outward expressions. Perhaps those who are closely associated with us know us better than we know ourselves, or at least know us better than we ever suspect. Persons are inclined to think themselves to be something other than what they really are. A great deal of sober thinking is necessary for one to see himself as others see him.

When all is considered, our expressions are as much a part of our whole person as an arm or a leg.

There is no need to indulge in self-deception when a particular action or expression is shown to be faulty. The natural inclination is to say, "That act wasn't an expression of my true self." If it in reality is not an expression of our real self, it deceives those who know us. If it is a true expression of a faulty heart it is even worse.

Socrates had a message for our time: "Know thyself." We ought to heed his advice.

UNCLE DUDLEY

Hello, chillun; here's your old Uncle Dudley back again, jest as spry and talky as a woman gossip. You know what a woman gossip is, of course—a gab bag.

I went down to a used car agency the other day and demanded the fastest car they had. The feller there said, "Fast? Why I have just the car you want. You can leave here at noon and arrive at Hoboken at 2 A.M."

"Can't use it," I told the guy.

"Why?" the salesman replied.

"What am I gonna do in Hoboken at 2 in the morning?" sez I.

Hey, I've found a magnificent use for old shoes; I wear 'em . . . Times is getting bad. It is getting so that the only people who can live like millionaires are billionaires.

Reckon inflationary days will be here soon. Won't be long before you'll hear expressions like these:

"A nickle for your thoughts."

"For eight cents I'd knock your block off."

"Don't take any wooden quarters."

Didja hear about the Australian kid who got a new boomerang for Christmas and went crazy tryin' to throw the old one away?

This one is a dilly. A guy fell from an 8th story and landed flat on the sidewalk. A crowd gathered and a policeman rushed up and asked the feller what was the excitement all about. "Don't know," he groaned. "I just got here."

SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM

By Winston Brackeen

In the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 6:33, Jesus said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all of these things shall be added unto you." In every age man has been called upon to place God above everything else in life. During the Mosaic Law the first of the Ten Commandments was "Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

God's kingdom and his righteousness must come before our families. In Luke 14:26 Jesus said, "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple." Now Jesus does not mean that we should not love and respect our relatives. The Scriptures teach us to love honor, obey and provide for our families.

Just what does Jesus mean, then? He simply means we must love God more than family or friends.

Another thing that must be placed second to God's kingdom is our business. One day Jesus was walking by the sea of Galilee. He saw Peter and Andrew, his brother, casting their nets into the sea. He said unto them: "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Immediately, they left their nets and followed him. Later Jesus saw James and John with Zebedee, their father, in a ship mending their nets. He called them and they left their father and their nets.

These men were engaged in their life's occupation, but Jesus called them to a more important business—God's business—the business of saving souls. We need to learn to let God's business have first place in our lives.

God's kingdom and righteousness must come before our own personal interests. We must learn to deny self. "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow me." We must learn to pray sincerely, "not our will, but Thine be done."

Suppose we arise some beautiful Sunday—we might want to go fishing, go on a picnic, or go visiting; but the Lord says "not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another, and so much the more as ye see the day approaching."

We should deny ourselves, and do what God wills. A good motto for us all would be: God first, others second, ourselves third.

May we as Christians learn to put God's kingdom first in our lives. Put God above family, business and self. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God."

SCHOOL BAND IS ORGANIZED

By Berdyne Henry

After the Christmas holidays a band consisting of Freed-Hardeman students was organized. Brother John Hollingsworth is the director and is doing a splendid job.

The band is small, consisting of only twelve members at present; yet it is doing good work and improving steadily.

The band consists of the following: Libby Harrison, saxophone; Ruth Carol Owens, Berdyne Henry, and Roger Huff, clarinets; Bobby Duncan, Dixie Shelton, and Neal Pryor, cornets; Dewain Dickerson and Joe Pruet, drums. The bass horn is played by Bobby Hilburn and the baritone by Bob Young. There is one trombonist, James Turner.

Brother Hollingsworth's wife is helping in the clarinet section.

The band's first performance for the public was Monday night, January 12, at the Freed-Hardeman-Itawamba basketball game.

The band is expected to give many more performances and to improve as they go along. Let us back our band and help it to be a great success!

CLUB NEWS

GIRLS RELIGIOUS TRAINING CLASS

By Doris Johnson

The Girls Religious Training Class meets on Friday night, excepting the night the Home Economics Club meets.

A program is presented each time by members of the class. This takes up the different phases on how to live a better Christian life. One of the motives of the class is to teach young women to be teachers of children and to prepare themselves to be living examples.

New officers were elected at the beginning of the six weeks. They are: President, Zane Lawson; Vice President, Ruth Carol Owens; secretary, Kathy Creasy; Reporter, Doris Johnson; Program Committee, Ruth Carol Owens, Carolyn Sullenger, Sylvia Dunn and Vivian Howard.

PHILO CHATTER

The Philos recently elected a new force of officers to serve in its various capacities. Foy Lisenby was chosen to be our chief executive, and supplementing him are Harold Warren, 1st Vice President; Bobby Duncan, 2nd Vice President; Naomi Jorday, Secretary-Treasurer; Martha Ary, Reporter; Wayne Mathis, Sergeant-at-Arms.

We have several new members in our rank, all of whom we heartily welcome to participate in all activities.

Confidentially, some of the Philos just never seem to get around to the Monday afternoon meetings. We need some support in these meetings. I challenge—yes, challenge—every Philo to be at our next meeting. We need you and we want you to come.

PHI KAPPA HIGHLIGHTS

Once again we are overjoyed to be able to present such a wonderful line of news.

Our officers for the first six weeks were President, E. M. Chandler; 1st Vice President, Sylvia Dunn; 2nd Vice President, Nancy Patterson; Secretary-Treasurer, Kathy Creasy; Sergeant-at-Arms, Betty Smotherman.

Fellow Phi Kappas, we need a few more of you at these weekly meetings. Seems that some of you have completely forgotten

THE SURPRISE!

Public Opinion Poll

By Gibbons and Hawkins

Everyone is always saying that they wish we had something around or didn't have something so we have given several people the opportunity to tell what improvements could be made by asking: "What would you like to donate to Freed-Hardeman in years to come?"

Dwayne Dickerson: My undertaking business.

Betty Greer: Escalator for the girls' dorm.

Doug James: A new book of rules.

Johnny Bullington: A pillow on every chair to provide better sleeping opportunities in class.

John Shelton: A book of Bro. Hall's jokes for Bro. Darnall.

Jim Krumri: A model T Ford for recreation.

Nancy Patterson: 1 gross of light bulbs.

Myrt Cunningham: My two front teeth.

Zane Lawson: A washing machine for the girls' dorm.

Billy Lewelling: A new bed for room 313, the one there is hard.

Paul Stephenson: A room for Mrs. Griffey on the opposite side of town.

Buck Dukes: When I make my fortune (?) I am going to donate a tennis court for the faculty only.

Leon Goff: I donate George Erwin to take Bro. Doyle's place in later years.

Gentry Morrow: The fuzz and dust that's under my bed that will probably be there for generations to come and until someone gets the energy to clean it up.

Foy Lisenby: Parking meters for the benches to raise some revenue.

Leo Powers: A new chorus director.

Kilroy: A lot of little hay-makers—to keep the ball field clean.

Howard Justice: A new chair for the library to take place of the one I have worn out.

Frank Wiser: An easy course in College Math.

Bob Cavender: A boys' dorm.

Forrest Morris: A love seat.

Rachel Smelzer: I haven't got enough sense to donate anything.

Barbara Parker: I like it like it is.

Joan Stone: Prospective bride for Bro. Darnall.

Betsy Gately: My brain.

Fuzzy Warren: Steam pipes through the side walk so we won't catch cold.

O. D. Morrow: I'll donate my brother. (Ed, note: "Take him back. We don't want him.")

Martha Ary: A canopy for the line at the cafeteria so when it rains we won't get wet.

Wade Chandler: A light in every dark corner.

Benny Pinckley: A self service counter in the Inn.

E. M. Chandler: A coffee percolator.

Rena Faye Bishop: A T.V. set

STOP ME IF YOU'VE HEARD THIS ONE

Reba: How is the watch you got for Christmas?

Berdyn: Quite good, it can cover an hour in 45 minutes.

Waylon: I always do my hardest work before breakfast.

Winston: And what is that?

Waylon: Getting up

Bro. Moody: How are you supposed to erase when your paper is still in the typewriter?

Quinton: (Looking around with a serious expression.) With an eraser!

Gene: It took me three hours to iron that dress.

Helen: Why it only takes me half an hour to iron mine!

Gene: Well, maybe you take yours off to iron it.

Wendell: Well, I guess the Post Office people aren't so smart!

Richard: Why do you say that?

Wendell: I sent a letter addressed to the "Dumbest Boy in America" and it came back to me.

Doris: Your composition should be written so that the most ignorant can understand.

Becky: Well, which part do you not understand?

Jr. Wilder: The last time I sang, my voice fell on thousands of ears.

Bro. Doyle: And where were you singing?

Jr.: In a cornfield.

Judge: Driving through a red light will cost you $10, and the next time you'll go to jail, understand?

Bro. Gardner: Yes, your honour, just like a weather report: FINE today, COOLER tomorrow.

for the girls' dorm.

Helen Fike: A little room to pop corn in instead of out in the hall.

Betty Smotherman: Something to eat every night.

Tom Downey: An electric eye for every door in the boys dorm so the boys won't have to trouble themselves with opening doors.

Naomi Carnahan: A telephone in every room of the girls dorm.

Don Townsley: A pole from the 3rd floor to the basement so Mrs. Griffey can get on it and slide all way down without having to go down all those steps.

Waylon Laurence: A bus with venetian blinds.

Delores Edens: Flashlight batteries for the nightwatchmen.

Anne Butler: Squeakie shoes for the matron.

Oconee Henry: A radar screen for the students.

Berdyn Henry: Cushions for the steps.

Joan Hogan: Three new joke books for Bro. Moody.

June Hamaker: A new typing student that will sit up straight and keep her feet on the floor.

Editor: An automatic meal ticket puncher for the cafeteria.

Get your ear muffs that Grand ma gave you for Christmas because we may burn your ears with this red-hot gossip.

We extend sympathy to Joe J. He has been brushed off like so much dandruff by the Oklahoma flash. Poor Joe—they did make such a fine couple.

The girls' second floor had a new problem of giving consolation, since the schism in the Jones-Crocker affair. The medicine that seemed to revive Ruth Carroll Owens during her recent illness was one or two mushy notes from one Bill R.

This office gives the sentiments of the entire student body in approving the pleasing Sullenger-Brackeen arrangement.

It seems that Royce Hunter waited a long time to start his conquest, but Rena Faye Bishop seems to be well pleased about his recent action.

The new boys who arrived for the second quarter are chalking up a good record already. Many remarks have emanated from the girls' dorm showing intense longing for more attention from such campus handosomes as Raymond Tenpenny, Johnny Jackson, and Billy Russel. Go easy on Jackson, you co-eds. He has inteersts in Texas.

New couples have been seen on campus lately as James Turner and Susie Martin; Norma Lee and James Knight have finally broken down—we're for you!

Campus Steadies: Bobby Joe Sims and Margaret Ann Moore; H. L. Bruce and Becky Stacy; Ken Wilson and Lucille Young; O. D. Morrow and Joanne Stone; John Adams and Jane Mathis; Parker French and Joyce Steakly.

Campus Nuisances: Doug James, Mark Harmon and Bones Montgomery.

My false teeth fell and my chin chattered when I heard this news a few seconds ago; Fuzzy Warren and Betsy Gately are going steady.

In the College Inn, we overheard Brother Pinckley expressing doubts concerning his son's educational future. Could it be that Benny and Earlene are approaching that ominous relationship of matrimony? This office predicts that Brother Pink-

F-HC STUDENTS ENJOY CONCERT

Freed-Hardeman students attended another Young Artists Concert on January 22, with Ernest and Miles Mauney, duo-pianists, presenting the program.

These programs are being sponsored by the Music Department of Union University in Jackson, Tenn. To provide opportunities for the development of musicians and to provide the best possible music for those who are privileged to attend is their purpose. For this reason as many students as possible, whether music students or not, should attend these concerts because of both their educational and entertainment value.

The next concert will be given on March 7, with the famous 21 piece Sinfonietta conducted by Vincent De Frank of Memphis, Tenn., concluding the final program of the season for the Young Artists Concerts.

ALPHA TAU NEWS

In the last meeting before Christmas the Alpha Tau Society elected new officers for the next six weeks. The Society elected Ken Ward, President; O. D. Morrow, first-vice president; Homer Picklesimer, second vice president; Joe Johnston, Secretary-Treasurer and Doug James, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Alpha Taus were in charge of the Chapel program on January 5. The club decided to have a religious program.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Freed-Hardeman's Homemakers Club held its regular monthly meeting on January 15.

Several interesting things were discussed including: a quilt to be made and given Miss Home Economics, a secret ballot vote for Miss Home Economics to be revealed at a later date and plans for a Valentine party.

An interesting film concerning "baby-sitting" concluded the meeting.

LIONS UPSET STRONG ITAWAMBA TEAM 80-61

The Freed-Hardeman Lions pulled the upset of the year by defeating a strong Itawamba team by a score of 80 to 61.

The game was played at the Chester County gym and everyone who went enjoyed the best game of the year thus far.

The Lions started a little slowly and were trailing by one point at the end of the first quarter but it soon became evident that we were in for a good night.

In the second quarter the Lions came back to score 23 points while holding the Mississippians to 19 to leave the score at 39 to 36 at the half way mark.

Itawamba came back strong in the start of the third quarter and scored 4 fast goals to go ahead but then the Lions attack started to click once again and soon the Itawamba lead had been erased and by the end of the quarter we were leading by 10 points as the score stood at 57 to 47.

In the fourth quarter it was Freed-Hardeman all the way and by the last whistle the Lions had lengthened their lead to 19 points. Lusk and Herron led the Lion scoring attack with 23 and 16, respectively. Everyone had a nice share of points as Beauman and McCullough tallied 15 and 13.

The Itawamba team, one of the best Junior Colleges in this area was a strong favorite before game time but the Lions played smart, hard ball and capitalized on the breaks to win. This game was something of an example of what the Lions can do and any time they play this kind of ball we can be sure they will give a good account of themselves.

PHILO BOYS AHEAD IN INTRAMURALS

By Harold Warren

The Philo boys are still on top in intramural basketball, but have been "just getting by" in several contests.

They barely edged the Alpha Taus 21-20 last week in the last boys' game before press time. Wilder led the Philo attack with 12 points, while Gentry Morrow paced the Alpha Taus with 9.

Phi Kappa 36, Sigma Rho 18

The Phi Kappas trounced the Sigma Rhos in a one-sided affair, 36-18. The Phi Kappas led all the way. High scorer for the winners was Moore who tallied 9 points, Davidson hit for 8 for the Sigma Rhos. The Phi Kappas are slowly climbing to the top of the standings behind the Philos.

Philos 36, Phi Kappas 35

In a pre-holiday contest the Philos defeated the Phi Kappas by the slim margin of 36-35. The Kappas staged a strong comeback in the final quarter, and the ball game was tied when the clock showed the game to be over. The Philos managed to come out on top in the overtime. McCullough was top scorer for the Philos with 15 points.

Phi Kappa 39, Alpha Tau 17

The Phi Kappas dumped the last-place Alpha Taus 39-17. Downey paced the Kappas with 13 points.

Philo 38, Alpha Tau 15

The Philo swooped down upon the Alpha Taus by the score of 38 to 15 with Wilder and McCullough leading the Philo attack.

Sigma Rho 29, Alpha Taus 12

The Rhos also descended with wrath upon the hapless Taus by defeating them 29 to 12. The Sigma Rhos led all the way.

Joe Johnston: I don't think I deserved a zero on that last test. Bro. Randolph: Maybe not—but that was the lowest I could give.

F-HC Lions Bow To Lipscomb

The Lions journeyed to Nashville and lost to a strong Lipscomb team last week by a score of 86-44.

The Lions played hard and were able to hold down the Lipscomb attack in the first half as the score stood at 38-28 at half-time with Lipscomb on the long end of the score.

Taking advantage of their reserve strength, Lipscomb came out strong in the last half to wear down the already weary Lions.

The Lions were unable to find the range at any time and had break after break against them.

Herron led the Lion scoring with 15 points, far below the usual Lion high point.

Of course the Lipscomb team is a highly polished and experienced team but we believe the Lions can give a much better account of themselves.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL LED BY PHI KAPPAS

By Elmer Lusk

Hello, sport fans, here are some more data on the girls' intramural basketball.

The Phi Kappa girls are currently on top; but the Alpha Taus are coming up fast. They downed the high-flying Kappa girls by the score of 28 to 20. Oconee Henry paced the winners with 20 points. Holland led the Phi Kappas with 14.

Alpha Tau 27, Philo 21

The Philos also recently fell victim to the Alpha Taus crusade by the score of 27-21, with Miss Henry leading the onslaught by dumping in 14 points. Alene Chalfin hit for 10 for the Philos.

Alpha Tau 12, Sigma Rho 10

In another one of our high scoring games the Alpha Taus edged the Sigma Rhos 12 to 10. In this game, as in other games, Henry was high scorer. This time she bucketed 8 points. Doris Jean Clark got 6 for the Rhos.

Phi Kappa 20, Sigma Rho 14

The Kappas, paced by Barbara Holland who scored 11 points, defeated the Sigma Rhos 20-14. Rowlett of the Rhos got 6 to lead the losing team.

Philos 16, Sigma Rhos 15

The Philo girls were victorious over the Sigma Rhos in an exciting 16-15 contest in the school gym.

The game was a rather one-

SIDELINE SLANTS

By Paul Kidwell

Now that holidays and lectures are over it seems the sports outlook is taking a complete change. Several changes have taken place on the varsity team with the addition of Knight, Meadows and McCullough.

Knight and Meadows are new faces at Freed-Hardeman but McCullough is a returning letterman and captain of last years team.

Lions Defeated By North East

The Lions have looked especially well in the last few games and the games against Itawamba and North East were by far the best games yet.

A new attraction came out at the Itawamba game. Everyone was pleasantly surprised to hear the first F.H.C. band in years.

The band is composed of about 12 instruments and it sounded surprisingly well for the period of time it has been in existence.

It was formed since Christmas and Bro. Hollingsworth has done a very fine job of whipping it into shape in such a short time. This should add much to the fine support being given the team.

That outstanding event which couples the faculty and the married students should be here soon. A new faculty member, Bro. Brinn, has caused much wonder.

We wonder if he is an adept artist of the hardwood. Time will tell. And time is gone. So long til next month.

It was Louis' first trip to the country. Outside the farmhouse he saw the farmer's daughter plucking a chicken for next day's dinner.

"I say, ma'am," he said, "Do you undress them every night?"

U. S. Battleships are named for states.

but did manage to score 20 points while Northeast was scoring 22. But for that disastrous third quarter, the score might easily have been reversed.

The Lions played three quarters (and especially the first two) of the best ball we have seen them play. Passing and moving the ball around, the Lions were baffling the Northeast aggregation which had trounced them severely just a few weeks ago.

From all indications, it appears that the Lions are going to have a team of reputable standing before the season is over.
