

JANICE McCOY IS MAY QUEEN

Juniors To Fete Seniors Next Thursday

The approaching event to which all eyes are turned is the Junior-Senior Banquet.

The banquet sponsored by the freshman class will be held at the New Southern Hotel in Jackson on May 8 at 6:00 p.m.

Dan Jenkins, president of the freshman class will be master of ceremonies. The program will include speakers, Bob Fulmer and Calvin Conn. Added entertainment will be featured in the form of the quartet of Brackin, Williams, Phillips, and Inomata.

The event will be strictly formal and will give the boys ample opportunity for retaliation as this time they are permitted to make the dates.

Another item of interest to all attending is the fact that the girls are allowed later hours. Eleven o'clock p.m., that is.

The committee for the planning of the banquet is Dot Russell, chairman, Dot Greer, Dan Jenkins, Pat Phillips, John Paul Simon, Mary Jo Moore and Martha Dunn.

Gardner Named Vice-President Of Two Associations

At the annual meetings on April 9 and 10, E. Claude Gardner, Dean-Registrar of Freed-Hardeman College, was elected to serve as vice-president for two associations in higher education in Tennessee.

In Nashville at the thirteenth annual meeting of Tennessee Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admission Officers, he was selected as Vice-President. In Memphis on the following day, Dean Gardner was elected as Vice-President of the Tennessee College Association.

"HER MAJESTY"

Sandra Felici, alternate to the queen, helps Janice McCoy, the 1958 May Queen, arrange her gown as she prepares for her coronation which is set for this afternoon.

The Coronation Will Be At 3:00 Today

Miss Janice McCoy will be crowned May Queen for 1957-58 today at 3:00 p.m. H. A. Dixon, president of the college, will crown Miss McCoy on the athletic field after the procession from the gymnasium, which will be led by a number of girls attired in evening gowns. Following the procession of girls will be the Queen's Court made up of representatives from the two classes and the four campus societies. The alternate, Miss Sandra Felici, will be next in line followed by the Queen.

Appropriate organ background music will be furnished by Mrs. Mary Gardner, instructor of piano at Freed-Hardeman. The color scheme for this year's coronation will be white, pink, blue and green. Following the coronation, there will be a May Pole winding by the girls in the processional.

Reception For Guests

After the coronation ceremonies, there will be a reception for all guests in the Home Economics Department.

The alternate to the Queen is Miss Sandra Felici, a sophomore from Wheeling, West Virginia. Miss Felici is an education major and she plans to teach in Wheeling upon completion of her work at Freed-Hardeman.

The Attendants

The freshman attendants are Mary Jo Moore of Petersburg, Tennessee and Pat Phillips of Memphis, Tennessee. Representing the senior class are Glenda Haynie from Corinth, Mississippi and W. C. Ausborn from Amory, Mississippi. The Phi Kappa society is represented by Jean Newman of Spotsville, Kentucky and Ronald McIndoo of Terre Haute, Indiana. Ann Burgess of Rogers Springs, Tennessee and Jimmy Clifford of Henderson will represent the Philomathean society. The Sigma Rho society attendants are Jo Ann Carter from Florence, Alabama and Danny Eubanks from Paragould, Arkansas. Representing the Aipna 'tau Lambda society will be Mary Rawls of Warren, Michigan and Jim Clary of Hazel Park, Michigan.

Reigning Queen Is "Real McCoy"

By Jo Ann Hodges

May Queen of 1957-58 is the latest honor Janice McCoy can add to her long list of achievements at Freed-Hardeman.

This brown haired, hazel eyed, five foot nine inch beauty from Memphis, Tennessee, as assistant editor of the college yearbook, second alternate to the 1957-58 Sweetheart, vice-president of the Homemakers' Club, and Philomathean society Sweetheart, has been an outstanding personality on campus, and now she will top it all off as May Queen.

Miss McCoy, who was Valedictorian of the 1956 graduating class of Grove High School, Paris, Tennessee, has been a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta, campus honor organization, for two years.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McCoy. She is a mathematics and secondary education major. Cherry pie and ice cream is her favorite food, and her favorite past-time is watching television. Her hobby, sewing, won her a trip to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in 1955.

The new queen is affectionately called "The Real McCoy" by her classmates and professors.

Janice says, "I have had a wonderful two years at Freed-Hardeman, and I really hate to see graduation day getting so close."

Upon completion of her work at Freed-Hardeman, Janice plans to attend Memphis State University.

Thespians Are Now Rehearsing

The Freed-Hardeman College Thespians are now in rehearsal for their spring quarter presentation, "The Night Is My Enemy" by Fred Carmichael.

The play is a mystery in three acts, with the story centered around a young blind girl, Roane Shepperly, played by Arlene Hogan. Miss Shepperly lives in the home of her adopted uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Ora Fontaine, Bill Stanley and Judy McKenzie. Servants in the household include Tessie, Dot Greer, and Margaret and Hubert Biller, Judy Motley and J. F. Wiles. Tommy Biller is played by Ron Lentz. Gerald Clayton, a young lawyer and cousin of Mrs. Fontaine is played by Bob Fulmer. Augusta Garvey who is a sophisticated friend of Mrs. Fontaine is played by Shawn Sexton.

John Paul Simon is Stage Manager.

Production is set for Tuesday night, May 20.

FHC Chorus Is Traveling

On April 17, the Freed-Hardeman Chorus sang at a newly erected school building near Arlington, Kentucky. Both quartets sang. The ladies of the Church in that area provided them with plenty of food.

On May 6 the chorus is going to sing at Ashley, Mississippi.

Debate Club To Discuss Current Problem May 22

On May 22, two members of the Religious Debate Club will discuss one of the current problems confronting the church today. It will be the question of orphan homes and the benevolent work of the church. The debate will be held in Chapel Hall.

THE LAST RUNG

Students are climbing a ladder of education during the years they walk and learn in the halls of FHC. Alone and fearful on the first step upward, many of these students thought, "I can't." Now pride and gladness make them look down and want to shout, "I did."

They are humble and thankful to the One and the ones who helped them to attain the topmost rung.

They look back, but then they turn and look forward. Ahead they see a ladder, and another and another . . . on and on.

EVENING DEVOTIONALS
BRING PEACE OF MIND

Along with the rushed, exciting and hectic moments of this spring quarter comes the calm and serene religious ones. Freed-Hardeman campus provides a 7:00 devotional on Monday and Tuesday nights on the steps of Oakland Hall for those who wish to spend a few moments of evening worship to God.

A peaceful spring night adds to the devotional singing of hymns and prayers and scriptural readings. Various boys in the student body contribute to the services, providing a certain closeness and seriousness in our attitude toward God.

As they worship in the cool night air, those who attend find a long dwelling peace of mind.

Our Heritage

By Alan Highers

A few days ago I visited the historical Mount Olivet Cemetery at Nashville. There are approximately seventy thousand graves scattered across its hill-sides.

The grounds are beautifully kept, and the warm spring day of my visit made things seem even more picturesque. Dogwood trees in full bloom of red and white were sprinkled across the lawns. Stately oaks rose above them and spread their protective limbs. A gentle breeze stirred the leaves and gave the impression of life among the dead.

I strolled among the monuments, pausing and reading as I went. Within a few steps of one another were the graves of David Lipscomb, J. C. McQuiddy, F. D. Srygley, F. B. Srygley, and others—ALL great pioneers in the restoration. Their graves were simply marked—nothing ornate, nothing elaborate.

I could almost hear the words of E. G. Sewell at Lipscomb's funeral in the South College Street Church building on that afternoon in 1917, "Lord Jesus, receive His spirit."

At the marker of F. D. Srygley's grave I found thoughts drifting to the matchless T. B. Larimore who had stood in the same spot many years ago. He had been Fletcher Srygley's teacher and was several years his senior. But the teacher laid the student away; the elder mourned over the younger. Bosom friends were separated—at least for awhile.

These were great men. They leave their writings, their sermons, their influence behind. In this way each of them "being dead yet speaketh." If every member of the church would examine the heritage they have left, it would be productive of good.

With all this, however, they are gone! A tinge of sadness, a sigh of regret is left.

It is a well known fact that Jimmy Carter has taken for his biology project the mounting of a cat skeleton. Are we, the cat lovers of America, going to let him get away with such cruelty to our little fur covered, feline friends?

The "tennis bug" has bitten many of our FHC students. So it is with Betty Fox and George Bessent, or just Betty. George seems to have put himself in the doghouse one morning by not showing up for a 6 a.m. appointment.

Because of a prevalent feeling of drowsiness on John Harris' part in American Literature he has acquired a most unusual nickname, Rip Van Winkle. "Rip" for short.

"YoYo" temporarily lost his command of the English language when he couldn't think of the word thief. He just called it a "steal man."

It is often said "curiosity killed a cat." Miss Lora proved herself not to be affected. She searched for a fire late one night. Before her expedition over the hills in her housecoat, (if you don't believe it just ask her!) she first called the fire department and explained in full the details of the fire. The reassuring voice of Dale Buckley answered her, "Miss Lora, I believe you have the wrong number." She then called the fire department only to be told the firetruck was already being used in another fire. That fire later turned out to be the one she was attempting to describe. It's a dull life isn't it Miss Lora?

Terry is very industrious before tests. She stated that she intended to go to her room and "study with her head off."

Camp Sessions Are In June And July

Two camp sessions are being planned for the second annual youth camp to be held at Camp La Joie in Chickasaw State Park. The first session begins June 29 through July 5 and the second July 6-12. The following persons will play an important part in the success of the camp.

Bible Department: Miss Lora Laycock, Mrs. Oneal Galbraith, Mrs. Jess Wilcoxson, John Hollingsworth, (Bolivar), Mrs. Lon Hardeman, J. E. Williams, (Humboldt), Jess Wilcoxson and C. C. Arquitt.

Women Counsellors: Janice McCoy, Annette Almond, Gloria Lawson, Betty Jo Holliday, Barbara Williams, Joe Ann Hodges and others who are to be supplied.

Miss Laycock and Mrs. Harde- man will be chief counsellors.

Men Counsellors: John Harris, chief counsellor, Harold Sublett, Mark Hicks, Charles Westbrook, Jimmy Colgather and others who are to be selected.

Health nurse, Mrs. Robert Morris; cafeteria manager, Mrs. Edgar Smith; recreation director, J. Walker Whittle and music director, Homer Royster.

All between the ages of 10-18 who are interested in attending this camp should contact W. A. Bradfield, Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, Tennessee.

UTMB Professor,
Allison, Speaks

"I think it has really resulted in a victory for us rather than a defeat. It shook us out of our complacency," was the statement of Henry C. Allison, concerning Russia's satellite. Mr. Allison, Physics Professor at the University of Tennessee Martin Branch, Martin, Tennessee, was the speaker in FHC chapel Wednesday, April 23.

Before assuming his present duties as a professor, he was employed five years by the United States Navy in the Naval Research Laboratories. During that time, he worked very closely with Dr. Hagen, who was primarily responsible for the Navy's first satellite, the Vanguard.

In his chapel talk, Mr. Allison discussed 3 major points: 1. He justified the failure of the United States to beat Russia. 2. He discussed "space travel"—where to from here and what we will find. 3. How will we as individuals and a country meet the challenge of space.

In conclusion, Mr. Allison said we need to, "do the best job we can and leave everything else to God."

FHC Homemakers
Attend Convention

Attending the annual meeting of the Tennessee Home Economics Association in Knoxville April 18, 19 and 20; were five members of the Homemakers' Club—Janice McCoy, Joann Harvick, Sara Staley, Dot Russell and Barbara Williams, and their sponsor, Miss Billie Buford. The theme of the convention was "Keeping Up To Date And Down To Earth".

The students toured the University of Tennessee Home Economics department, attended a luncheon and fashion show at Rich's Department Store, and climaxed their convention by attending a banquet at the Andrew Johnson Hotel.

A surprise bridal shower was given Miss Buford Tuesday night, April 22, by the club. Refreshments were served and games played. A gift was presented to her by the entire club.

Senior Reception

The annual senior reception given by President and Mrs. H. A. Dixon will be May 29. This reception, which is given in the yard of their residence, has been an annual affair for four years.

George Gurganus
Discusses Camps;
Other Speakers

Freed-Hardeman College was well represented at the David Lipscomb College Bible Lecture-ship, April 21 through 24. George Gurganus, Chairman of the Freed-Hardeman College Speech Department spoke each day at 10:00 a.m. on "Christian Camps".

E. Claude Gardner participated in a panel discussion. The topic was "Barriers to Communicating the Gospel".

H. A. Dixon, President of Freed-Hardeman College, spoke Tuesday night in the absence of B. C. Goodpasture on "The Faith Once Delivered—Yesterday and Today".

Ryo Kyoon Jhin, Korean student at Freed-Hardeman College, spoke Wednesday, at 4:00 on "Mission Work of Korea". Jhin also spoke Wednesday at 12:00 on "Introducing Korean Culture" at Murfreesboro High School.

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to girls, love and proposing. (I hope Mr. Ten-nyson will excuse me for re-wording his famous line.) One particular young man on campus had been a bachelor for a number of years, and you know what a bachelor is—a fellow who prefers to burn his own toast in the morning. It seems all of this beautiful spring weather finally got him, and he decided he was ready to shed his bachelor status, especially for the rather modern young miss who had caught his eye. So he went to her to pop the question.

"Honey," he said to her, "there are a lot of advantages in being a bachelor, but there comes a time when one longs for the companionship of another being—a being who will regard one as perfect, as an idol; whom one can treat as one's absolute property; who will be loyal through everything—"

Samantha's eyes sparkled with sympathy. "You don't have to say anymore, Eugene. I'm so glad you're thinking of buying a dog and I'll help you find it."

ASSIGNMENT: FHC

ELECTION RETURNS

By Dot Greer

The election is over. The faculty Who's Who has been chosen. When I counted the ballots and found only 33 I concluded that everyone hadn't voted. Then when I found several alike I decided that someone had attempted to stuff the ballot box.

Zickfoose and Witt ran a race for the most athletic. Witt was also elected wittiest. (This could be a joke about his name.) Witt is popular. I've noticed that all the students have, at one time or another, been to see him.

W. C. Hall has been selected as the most punctual. He said he was never late to a speaking appointment because he could hardly wait to hear what he was going to say. (Quoted from Readers' Digest.)

It must be the female FHC'ers who voted Buckley and Atnip

as the cutest.

Doyle was way out in front (in the number of votes that is) to be chosen as laziest. Chorus members feel that this is because pedaling his little green kiddie-car takes all his energy.

Gardner has been named the stubbornest, with Dixon in second place, and G. K. Wallace in third. Van Dyke and Scott received honorable mention.

Bradfield was "a hair a head" (or behind?) Williams, but both have the distinct honor of baldest.

Several of the ladies received votes for most athletic, cutest and baldest, but I reckon the men did more campaigning. I thought that at least one woman needed to win in the election. So I conducted a public opinion poll. I asked several people, and both of them agreed that Miss Lora should be unanimously elected "Miss Volunteer Firewoman" of FHC. (See Offbeat) Attention Students! Nothing.

Contest Winner Is John Paul Simon

The winners of the oratorical contest are: John Paul Simon, first place; Bob Fulmer, second place; Bill Berkley, third place and Shirley Hysmith, fourth place.

The prizes awarded were: first place, $10; second place, $7.50; third place, $5; and fourth place $2.50.

The contest, conducted by George Gurganus and Charles Williams, was held as a preliminary for the state-wide inter-collegiate oratorical contest sponsored by the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The orations were between 1000 and 1200 words in length and were on the general subject of the evils of beverage alcohol.

He Will Go Back To His Country; His People Need Him

By Dot Greer

"A land of tears, hunger and destruction through 4,000 years of history," was the way Myong described the country of his ancestry. "Why, why, why has my native land continually suffered persecution?"

Myong Nam Limb has small black eyes, heavy black hair and a planed, angular face. His skin is yellow. Myong is the son of a strife-divided, bleeding country, Korea. He is the studious son of a well-to-do Korean family. He has searched many long years for the answer to his question.

Born and reared in Japan he has always been near the stench of communism and the groans of his people. He wanted to help them so he founded a private school for Koreans in Japan.

About two and a half years ago the Methodist Foundation brought him to America to lecture on the economic and political situation in the Far East.

During his tour he was converted to the church of Christ in November of 1955. Since then he has attended Florida Christian College, Abilene Christian College and is now doing graduate work at Harding College in the field of religion.

Often this alert, English speaking Oriental talks to rapt audiences—and they cry. He tells them that Communism is buying men's souls and that Christianity is failing to reach them.

He stands in a free country and begs its peoples for their help. Discouragements are many, but Myong smiles optimistically.

After this, what? He has found the answer as to why his people constantly live in tragedy. He will go and take the answer back to them.

The answer is sin . . . and the remedy and hope he takes back to them is Christ.

Tennis Stars Win Three Straight Before Losing To Bethel

Sports Talk

by

Jay Lockhart

In my last column I went out on the end of a very dry limb and predicted that the Freed-Hardeman College tennis team would finish the current season with an unblemished record. Needless to say, I missed the mark.

When making this prediction, I overlooked the fact that Bethel College has one of the finest tennis teams in the school's history.

Bethel's number one man, Len Somrall, has been called by some, the greatest college tennis player in the country, and after seeing him in action I would say that he is not overrated.

Well can the students who were on the campus last year remember when Somrall came to Henderson with the Bethel team and had little trouble in beating our number one man, who was a better than average tennis player.

Those who have seen Somrall perform this year have said that he is better than ever, and he showed that he is as he won his match against the Lions on April 21, 6-0; 6-0.

Without a doubt, the Bethel team is the strongest team that we will meet this year, and at present it looks as though our tennis team will be victorious in their remaining matches.

I've got my fingers crossed.

Baseball Theme - "Almost But Lost"

The FHC baseball team nears the half-way point in the 1958 schedule and thus far has failed to register a win.

In the early games this season our team lacked polish and lost these games by rather large margins, but within the last two weeks it has shown remarkable improvement and has lost at least two heart-breakers.

On April 21, the batmen traveled to Bethel for the two teams first meeting of the year. Robert Fields was called on for mound duty and went all the way for the Lions, pitching an outstanding game.

In the early stages of the game FHC led by a score of 2-0, but Bethel overcame the lead and went ahead 4-2. However the Lions knotted the score at 4-4 in the eighth inning.

The score remained tied until the ninth inning when Bethel pushed across the winning run. Lambuth Shows Strength

David Sain and Bernie Waite bore the pitching duties as the Lions went against Lambuth on April 21. After achieving a 1-1 tie in the early stages of the game, FHC fell completely apart and were downed 10-1 by the strong Jackson, Tennessee team.

With much of the schedule left to be played, it is hoped that the FHC Lions will continue to improve and yet have a successful season.

four children moved to Singapore, February 19, 1955. They baptized 42 people on the Island of Singapore and 91 on the mainland of Malaya.

Jordan Wen, a Chinese preacher from Formosa spoke in chapel Monday, April 27.

INTRAMURALS DRAW INTEREST

One of the highlights of the Freed-Hardeman College campus, at the present time, is the intramural program, with both men and women participating.

Softball is currently of much interest and it seems that there will be much excitement before the winning society is known.

As we go to press, there is no announcement concerning the current standings of the participants either in the men or women's league.

J. Walker Whittle To Tour Georgia

During the latter part of the summer J. Walker Whittle, Head of the Business Administration Department at Freed-Hardeman College, will make a tour of Georgia. His itinerary is as follows:

Tuesday, August 5, South Pittsburg, Tennessee; Wednesday, August 6, Chattanooga, Tennessee (Central Church of Christ); Thursday, August 7, Dalton, Georgia (Central Church of Christ); Sunday, August 10, Atlanta, (West End Church of Christ, and Druid Hills Church of Christ, 7:30 P.M.); Wednesday, August 13, Albany, (Highland Avenue Church of Christ); Sunday, August 17, Valdosta, (Central Church of Christ 11:00 A.M.; and River Street Church of Christ, 7:30 P.M.); Monday, August 18, Waycross; Tuesday, August 19, Brunswick; Wednesday, August 20, Savannah, (41st Street Church of Christ); Friday, August 22, Athens; Sunday, August 24, Macon, (Southside Church of Christ, 11:00 A.M.; and Central Church of Christ, 7:30 P.M.); and Thursday, September 4, Griffin.

Training Class Speaker Will Be Mrs. H. A. Dixon

In the very near future, Mrs. H. A. Dixon will speak to the Girls' Religious Training Class on the subject of "Manners for Christians".

On April 28, Dale Buckley spoke to the girls on "True Popularity".

On April 29, Miss Lora Laycock, sponsor of the class, taught two demonstration classes of pre-school and primary children at Walnut, Mississippi. There were about forty teachers from the surrounding congregations present at the demonstrations.

SNEA PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR

The SNEA is celebrating "Teaching Career Month" by laying groundwork for a bigger and better organization on the FHC campus next September. In the last regular meeting a nominating committee was appointed to suggest nominees for the offices of president and vice-president for the 1958-59 term of school. The newly elected officers will prepare for a membership drive to take place when the freshmen arrive in September.

Another step of progress coming out of the last meeting was the idea of a name for the club. Each member has been asked to submit a name for consideration. A committee will narrow the list down to three suggestions, and the club will vote on these three.

A spring highlight for the club will be the joint picnic with the FTA of Chester County High School. Tentative plans are that the picnic will be held at Chickasaw in the very near future.

The FHC tennis team got off to a fast start this season by winning the first three matches on their schedule.

The court stars proved to be too much for their weaker opponents and brought the victory back home with very little trouble.

At the present time Phil Evanson is playing the number one spot for the Lions, Phil Sumrall number two, Eugene England three, Emmitt Channell four, Bobby Thompson five, and Billy Brackeen six, rounding out a well balanced team.

U.T.M.B. BEATEN
On April 14 the Lions beat good U.T.M.B. team in a match played on our home courts. After winning only two of the six singles matches, the Lions bounced back and were able to take all of the doubles making the final score 5-4 in favor of FHC.

DOWN MARTIN
The Lions journeyed to Martin on April 18 to invade one of our northern foes. Here they met little opposition as they were able to win all singles and one double match to make the score read FHC 7; Martin 2.

BETHEL WINS
With three wins to their credit, the Lions went to Bethel on April 21 to meet possibly the strongest team on our schedule and one of the finest in this part of the country.

Evanson, Sumrall and England lost their matches in order, but Channell, Thompson and Brackeen came through with victories, making the score at the end of the single matches stand in a 3-3 deadlock.

Bethel, however, came back strong in the doubles, winning all three and the match by a score of 6-3.
